Smoke Fells Fireman

House Heavily Damaged In Fire

A city fireman required administration of oxygen after smoke inhalation while fighting a blaze that caused heavy damage to a house at Monroe and W. 3rd Sts. late this morning.

The blaze at the home of Glenn A. Wilson, 314 Monroe, broke out about 10:30.

Flames were shooting up from the roof by the time firemen arrived.

The two-story frame home was being remodeled and it was believed the blaze started from a torch being used by one of the workmen.

Aluminum siding was being installed. The blaze was confined to the roof and upper story.

A brisk breeze fanned the flames and sparks were blown onto nearby homes.

The fire was brought under control at about 11:30 after an emergency call was received at Central Station for oxygen for the fireman, who recovered quickly.

Some of the firemen were in the attic where the smoke was thick.

Trucks from Pleasant Heights, North Side and two from Central went to the scene. The East End unit was brought downtown to fill in at Central.

Wilson, who was called from his job at the Homer Laughlin China Co., said he has insurance on the loss, which was not immediately estimated.

Wilson and his wife and daughter reside in the downstairs and Mrs. Clara Finley, a widow, occupies the upstairs.

Tests In Pacific Could Thunder Any Hour

U.S. Nuclear Count-Down Started After President Gives Final Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. nuclear count-down is under way. The first explosion of the new test series could thunder out in the remote Pacific at any hour.

President Kennedy gave his final approval Tuesday for the series of test shots in the atmosphere. The Atomic Energy Commission announced the tests would begin "as soon as operationally feasible."

This meant, said an AEC spokesman, the first shot will be triggered any time in the next few days, as soon as the weather, the weapons and the elaborate experimental facilities are "go."

Kennedy's authorization for the tests to proceed came in a day of appeals and warnings against resumption of testing. U Thant, acting Secretary-general of the United Nations, and India's Prime Minister Nehru urged the great powers to refrain from testing. In Moscow, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko repeated Russian warnings that the Soviet Union would conduct new tests unless the United States relented.

On Capitol Hill, Kennedy's go-ahead announcement was greeted with general approval, with several members of Congress saying that the President had no alternative.

The U.S. Information Agency said today it has found strong support in the Philippines, Thailand and Latin America for the resumption of U.S. atmospheric testing. It reported that opinion in areas including the Middle East, South Asia and Africa is opposed to testing.

It has been almost four years since the United States made its last nuclear tests in the atmosphere, although it has reported firing 29 small (as nuclear gadgets go) devices underground in Nevada since last fall.

It has been almost eight months since the Soviet Union set off a series of powerful nuclear blasts on her arctic proving ground—to shatter the moratorium observed by the two countries and Great Britain since 1958.

Joint Task Force 8—an organization of more than 12,000 men of the Air Force, Navy, Army, Marine Corps, Atomic Energy Commission and contractor employes—actually began preparations last Nov. 2 when Kennedy said the United States would go ahead with standby preparations for a resumption of atmospheric tests.

The tempo of preparations has increased since Kennedy announced March 2 that the tests would be started late this month unless the Soviet Union agreed to a fool-proof system for banning nuclear tests.

Swarms of military men, AEC experts and laborers descended on the hitherto lonely islands of Christmas and Johnston—the former a British possession close to the equator, the latter a U.S. island airfield southwest of Hawaii.

There the task force, supplied by ships and planes, has erected the facilities for hurling thermonuclear warheads into the edge of space, dropping them from planes, launching them in torpedoes and depth charges—and, equally important, trying out new explosive recipes for producing more nuclear yield from smaller packages.

By this morning, the scene was set. The warnings to shipping and aircraft to steer clear of the Christmas Island area had gone into effect 10 days ago. The Christmas Island's designated area is a rectangle 600 to 800 miles, to which a smaller (120 by 240 miles rectangle) adjacent area was added.

The Johnston Island area is circular, radiating out 470 nautical miles at the surface. It is an inverted cone, with a radius of 700 miles at an altitude of 30,000 feet.

Kennedy, in his address of March 2, specified that the detonations would be conducted to seaward of the islands instead of on or over them.

Mindful of worldwide fears of fallout, the President emphasized safety for this new series.

He said by paying careful attention to location, wind and weather and by holding tests at sea it was intended to rule out fallout problems in the test areas and that radiation in the Northern Hemisphere would be held to "very low level."

Any fallout that comes down fairly soon from the new tests is expected to be limited mostly to a worldwide belt ranging from about 2,000 to 3,500 miles wide in tropics latitudes.

The government said that no super-size explosions—like the 58 megaton shot in the Soviet series—would be detonated. This has led to speculation the U.S. series might be limited to blasts no larger than 10 megatons (the equivalent of energy yielded by detonation of 10 million tons of TNT.)

4 Are Burned In Explosion Of Fuel Tank

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Flames shot 10 stories high today from a petroleum storage tank that exploded as escaping fumes floated across a highway.

Four persons suffered severe burns as the blaze erupted shortly before midnight. A woman living nearby suffered a heart attack.

A passing car apparently touched off the blast at a Sinclair Refining Co. tank farm on the Houston ship channel. The flames were visible in downtown Houston, 20 miles distant.

Houston Fire Chief C. M. Bullock had conflicting reports on whether the 85,000-gallon tank contained gasoline or diesel fuel. It was three-fourths full.

A Sinclair worker said the tank would be allowed to burn out "because it might explode if we try to put it out and it cools too quickly."

Congressman Urges Firm Stand Continue On Russia

The U. S. should maintain its firm policy of not backing down to the Communists, but should be extremely careful in pressing too close to the ring of Iron Curtain countries surrounding Russia to avoid another war, Rep. Wayne L. Hays told the Rotary Club Tuesday.

Swinging through his 18th Congressional District during the Easter vacation of Congress, Rep. Hays hammered out the need for a "more reasonable" approach to foreign aid, and advocated reorganization of the United Nations in addressing the club at its meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

The Democratic leader from Flushing expressed disbelief that Russia would fight over Cuba or Laos, but declared the reversal would hold true for any action in what he termed "the vital ring" around Russia.

He recalled that Premier Khrushchev told an American diplomat that " 'I know if a nuclear war comes, both Russia and the U. S. would be devastated, but unless China interfers, Russia would get the best'."

Khrushchev added that Americans not killed in the war would probably starve to death, while 'the Russians are so near peasants that it wouldn't bother them; those still alive would flee to cave and mountains, persist, and come back'," Rep. Hayes recalled.

Khrushchev warned of the U. S. pressing too closely to the Russian boundaries, however.

Rep. Hays asserted that President Kennedy "did the right thing" in rolling up American tanks to the Russian border in Berlin recently, and added that the U. S. also called the Soviet bluff in Lebanon.

Bipartisans Eyeing Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bipartisan group in the Senate takes another stab today at launching a civil rights bill into the election-year political spectrum.

Loser in an abortive attempt Tuesday to get a literacy test measure off the ground, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana rallied supporters for another try.

But his effort seemed likely to result only in the blast-off of a Southern filibuster. It could drone on for 10 days or more before Mansfield and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois reach for a seldom-reliable valve to shut off debate.

The cut-off could come only if two-thirds of senators voting approve a debate limitation. This device has never worked when a civil rights bill was up.

2 Gunmen Escape With $13,500 In Holdup At Church

Youngstown Clergymen Threatened

Forced To Give Combination Of Safe At Gunpoint

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Two gunmen broke into the rectory of St. Dominic's Catholic Church Tuesday night, forced two priests to give them the combination to the safe and escaped with more than $13,500.

Police said others may have been involved in the robbery as lookouts and driver of a get-away car.

Two men were waiting in the rectory when the Rev. Francis Swartz and the Rev. Thomas Donnelly returned from visits in town. They forced the priests into the office at gunpoint, threw them onto the floor and bound them.

The priests told police they gave the robbers the combination to the safe when the intruders threatened to shoot them unless they got it.

Father Swartz said he reprimanded the gunmen for robbing the church, telling them it was "a pretty low thing to do" and one of them answered: "We're scum anyway."

Five other priests asleep upstairs were unaware of the robbery until Father Swartz and Father Donnelly spread the alarm.

The loot represented the Easter offering at the church. Sunday offerings normally are held in the church safe until Wednesday, when they are delivered to a bank by armored car service for deposit, church officials said.

Police said the gunmen entered the rectory by forcing a rear door.

Arraignments Slated For 32 In Jefferson

Arraignment is scheduled Thursday for 32 defendants indicted Monday by the Jefferson County Grand Jury.

A first degree murder indictment was returned against William Anderson of Toronto, who is charged with the Feb. 17 shotgun slaying of Samuel D. Calhoun.

Eleven not true bills were returned along with nine secret indictments. Common Pleas Court Judge John J. Griesinger presided. The Grand Jury also reported it had inspected the old Courthouse Annex and found it "not clean" and the juvenile area "not properly lighted or heated."

The Grand Jury was in session three weeks and heard 80 witnesses. The session was recessed, not dismissed, and the jurors were informed by the judge they might be called back anytime before the September term of court.

Have A Sip Of Sabin—Pause Which Protects

Have a sip of Sabin — oral polio vaccine — Type III, that is — sometime this evening at one of the mass clinics being held at Westgate, East Junior High School, Calcutta fire station or other sites in the county until 7.

The "pause that protects" will give immunization against Type III polio, costs only 50 cents (or is free to those who can't afford it) and eliminates polio "carriers."

Together with the Type I vaccine administered in March and the Type II due in clinics in May, the tasteless dose will "knock out" polio in the county if every adult and child receives the series, according to the County Medical Society, hoping to distribute over 60,000 doses. Another Type III clinic is slated Saturday.

Saturn Fired Successfully Second Time

Booster Destroyed Deliberately After Streaking 65 Miles

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The great Saturn booster was launched successfully for the second time today and was deliberately blown up after the trial to dump 95 tons of cloud-forming water into the upper atmosphere.

With a tremendous roar and spurt of flame, the world's mightiest known rocket rode 1.3 million pounds of thrust to an altitude of 65 miles. There a signal from the ground detonated dynamite charges which ripped the vehicle apart spilling the water into the near-vacuum of space in a bonus experiment.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced several minutes after the 9 a.m. launching that the flight was completely successful.

Observers saw the water quickly form a huge cloud of snow-like ice particles which spread several hundred feet across a clear sky.

The great mass—higher than any natural cloud has flown—remained seemingly motionless in the air for only a few seconds, then spread apart and quickly vanished.

As on the first flight of the Saturn last October, only the first-stage performance was being checked. And once again it was a remarkable performance by what is believed to be the largest and most complex rocket in the world—a forerunner of a rocket designed to carry American astronauts to the moon later in this decade.

By the time the explosive charge was ignited 160 seconds after launching, the 162-foot Saturn had completed its main mission—a check-out on the booster itself.

Brush Fires Fought To Save Homes

Three brush and wood fires, two believed to be threatening homes, were burning in the district late this morning as the fire hazard index continued to climb with low humidity and windy conditions.

The fire tower at West Point said brush fires were being fought west of Calcutta near Route 30 and 170 and at Glasgow along Route 45, while a woods fire was burning along Township Line Rd. near Route 45.

Three or four homes were reported endangered in the blaze at Glasgow where West Point and Wellsville firemen were battling the blaze, along with state fire fighters.

Some farms were believed threatened in the Township Line blaze to which Glenmoor firemen were dispatched, along with a state airplane.

The tower reported the fire index at 35, which is hazardous, and said winds of 25 miles an hour were fanning the flames.

Over 15 acres of brush and woodland along Route 7 near the former horseshoe curves were burned off in a wind-driven fire finally quelled by Rogers, Lisbon and Glenmoor firemen and state fire fighters Tuesday afternoon.

Some 40 men battled the blaze, which began about 12:30, on property of William White of Route 7, about five miles south of Rogers.

Neighbors helped free him from the overturned machine, and he was rushed to the hospital.

876 Signers Required For Tax Petitions

City Trades Group To Issue 30 Forms To Be Circulated

A minimum of 876 valid signatures will be required on petitions which Trades and Labor Council expects to distribute tonight to prospective circulators, seeking to force a vote at the November general election on the new city income tax ordinance.

Trades Council announced Monday it will distribute about 30 of the petitions at an open meeting tonight at 7:30 at the old IBOP Hall.

The signature requirement is based on 10 per cent of the vote cast for governor in East Liverpool at the November 1958 general election.

Aug. 8 will be the deadline for filing the question with the County Election Board for a place on the November ballot. However, state law requires that many of the administrative duties in connection with the petitions will fall on City Auditor Lawrence C. Applegate.

When circulation of the petitions has been completed, they must be filed with the auditor. Law requires him to hold the petitions at least 10 days for public inspection. Meanwhile, he must determine if they contain sufficient valid signatures to warrant a ballot place.

If he finds the petitions sufficient, the auditor certifies his findings to the Election Board, along with the question proposed for the ballot.

Trades Council expects to file an initiative ordinance to repeal the tax ordinance which City Council enacted March 2. The ordinance imposes a tax of 80 cents on each $100 of earnings or other income.

Trades Council already has filed in the auditor's office a copy of the proposed ordinance. The copy must be filed before circulation of the petitions can begin.

Which Half Is Wasted?

When the next presidential campaign gets rolling in 1964, suppose you decide where the campaigners could save half the millions they will spend.

If your decision makes sense, the national committees of the two major parties will compete for your services as national chairman.

This is because the President's Commission on Campaign Costs, whose report now is being read wherever Americans can get their hands on a copy, says half of all campaign expenditures are wasted, in the opinion of most politicians, but no one knows which half. "Less money would be spent on campaigns if the wasteful half could be identified," concludes the commission drily.

The commission recommends that someone put up the money for an investigation to locate the wasted half. Ideally, the political parties would do this themselves but they have enough trouble now raising enough money to pay their bills. They have nothing to spare on investigations to show where half their money is being wasted.

That politicians and political parties should assume about television what they always have assumed about newspapers — that coverage of political speeches is a public obligation.

Newspapers deal with political debate as a free service. They regard it as part of the process of government. They are concerned with it, therefore.

Newspapers have advertising space to sell, just as television has time to sell. But the newspaper industry does not charge for coverage of basic campaigning. It charges only for what is plainly designed to be political advertising.

At a time when as much as a third of the cost of a national campaign is blotted up in TV costs, this would be a logical place to start to save money — not to cut down on TV exposure but to make the television industry give more free time to political campaigners.

Danger Spots

Stories such as that from Georgia where three college students survived a three-day ordeal in a muddy cave point up the need for another check on district danger spots.

Caves, abandoned mines and old wells are among sites that could prove death traps, particularly for youngsters with an urge to explore. And with warmer weather, the urge will become the greater.

If you live in an area where such hazards exist, make it a point to take safety measures on your own—such as boarding up the entrance to a cave — or call the proper authorities.

This appeal has been made before, but in view of the near-tragedy in Georgia it seems in order again.

No State Income Tax, Please

Ohio's tax commissioner, Stanley J. Bowers, predicted last week the state will need an income tax within the next five years to stabilize the local real estate tax situation and assure better distribution of the tax burden.

This might be interpreted at face value as an endorsement of the positions previously taken by the Ohio AFL-CIO and the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation. But a close look at his remarks as they were reported by the Associated Press indicates otherwise.

Mr. Bowers seemed to be saying a state income tax would be useful as an additional source of government revenue, not as a replacement except perhaps for the personal property tax.

THIS IS not exactly what farmers and organized labor have in mind. The former favor a state-collected income tax as a means of reducing local real estate taxes—partial replacement of property taxes, in other words.

Labor dreams of a state income tax as a replacement for the sales tax, chief source of state general funds. A progressive income levy similar to the federal government's would distribute the tax burden more fairly than the theoretically regressive sales tax, the union leaders argue.

The frightening question is how big the percentage income tax would have to be to accomplish either of these objectives. Mr. Bowers told his Akron audience the limited objective of stabilizing rather than replacing real estate levies would depend upon enactment of an income tax of "sufficient" size.

The problem is compounded by the constitutional provision that would require the state to return to local subdivisions half the revenue it collected from their citizens, as state inheritance taxes now are divided.

This could be solved either by changing the constitution, which seems politically unrealistic, or by raising the amount of the tax to make the state's half of the revenue large enough to meet the state's needs.

In either case, municipalities which have pre-empted the income tax as the only major source of new funds available to them would be threatened with even greater fiscal chaos than they now face.

Even if the state returned half its revenue to them, it seems unlikely their share would equal what they now are able to realize. And a side effect would be to take from the cities the only means they have of getting suburbanites who still depend upon city services to contribute to city general funds.

THE ENTIRE problem resembles the proverbial ripples across the pond after the pebble drops in; endless complications arise. But in simplest terms it boils down to this: If the state made fair allowance for the high-rate federal income tax and for the increasing reliance of municipalities on income taxes, would it be able to collect enough revenue for itself to make the effort worthwhile? Probably not.

This is one of the reasons virtually all of the elected leaders of both parties have refused to entertain seriously proposals for a state income tax.

Another, we suspect, is that, aside from organized pressure groups with their own axes to grind, there is very little citizen encouragement for a state income tax.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

AT&T annual meeting of stockholders, which drew capacity crowds through years when it served box lunches, played to smallest attendance in decades when it dropped free lunch. Stockholders chose a Campbell Soup official as new director, which indicates they think they are entitled to at least some canned consomme.

This could be biggest mistake in public relations since U.S. Steel boner in serving White House cold shoulder and deep-freeze tongue, knowing President had counted on hot meal. Steel was guilty of bad timing. AT&T is guilty of bad feeding.

Free lunch is an institution with big corporation. Is telephone corporation saying, "Let 'em eat cake"? Does it think stockholders ask fewer questions when unfed? Is it switching from "Come here, Watson, I can hear you," to "Come here, Watson, and bring your own lunch"?

President Kappel looked well fed and some stockholders muttered, "He must have had a big meal before he got here!" while moaned, "Imagine of the richest corporations on earth denying us a cup of coffee and a hotdog!" and "If it can bounce telephone communications off satellites, how come it can't bump a chicken sandwich from the free lunch counter to a stockholder?"

Phone company heads deny desire for thinner stockholders in support of Kennedy fitness program and insist they have not discover that people use phone more when hungry.

They dismiss report enormous outlays for expansion cause them to scrimp on ham and beans. Nevertheless fewer people attended this annual meeting than baseball game between seventh place "Mets" on same day.

The ball club served no free lunch but passed out paper plates which are edible under extreme circumstances. (Get me the complaint operator; I want to ask why the telephone company has disconnected the feedbag!)

WOMEN ARE BUYING WIGS by millions all over America. Big New York department store had spectacular demand in special sale of them in all shapes and colors. (Ya mean fantastic appearance of women for some time has NOT been due to wigs, but to their OWN HAIR!)

Biggest laughs on TV are some commercials and point of their interruptions. The other night there was a tense moment when a battered man, bound hand and foot in cellar with time-block bomb about to explode, twisted in horror when words came flashing on TV screens, "You have a friend at the Chase Manhattan!"

Ghana Cabinet minister has lost job and been deprived of palace as result of wife's purchase of $8,400 gold bed. We can hear him now exclaiming "You and your ideas of bedroom furniture!"

New York's new ball club, the Mets, may draw fans largely through underdog appeal. They are bound to draw sympathies aroused by the slum dwellers and "mugging" victims.

Bronx delicatessen dealer specializing in kosher food says he thought ham in sandwich was okay if served on Jewish rye bread. Things are getting confused all over.

Castro is charged with flooding United States with narcotics. He has obviously been needling us for a long time.

Judge has expressed belief law limiting hamburger to 30 per cent fat is unconstitutional, but imposed a fine on butcher since he had pleaded guilty. Well, we trust U. S. Supreme Court won't have to go into the hamburger situated. It could lead to 5-4 decisions with regard to pizza pies and hot dogs.

Roger Blough's hobbies include cooking. But he didn't know what he was cooking last week.

Army is studying a less fatty diet. First decision to make is to stop slapping strawberry ice cream on top of baked beans and pouring rice pudding on the beefstew.

If there is war between France and Prince Rainier and Grace Kelly, will the neutrals mobilize their yachts, villas and boodles against De Gaulle? Will France throw up a wall between De Gaulle and Rainier? This can get so serious U.N. will be asked to send troops to protect roulette wheels, dice tables and other gambling paraphernalia.

When Roger Blough held that second session with President do you suppose he said, "The face is familiar but I don't recall the smile"?

Watch Out For The Big One!

Labor Sets Huge Vote Drive

By Victor Riesel

You can run across the brothers Reuther on a global front almost anywhere from the Rio Grande to the Rhine. Usually it's either the oldest, Walter, or the youngest, Victor. If you want the brother in the middle — Roy Reuther — you have to look Stateside. Right on the Potomac, in fact. Early each weekday morning, he is at his desk in labor's political nerve center on the sixth floor of the national AFL-CIO headquarters — directing and programming a drive to get 20 million citizens registered and 37 million voters to the polls, especially in the big cities where working people live.

Victor Riesel

This sprawling assignment of Roy Reuther's — shyest and most unassuming and unpublicized of the three brothers — won't make headlines until the morning after next election day.

Then it may develop that Roy Reuther's "operation registration" has affected national politics by swinging millions to the polls to vote on the careers of such men as Nelson Rockefeller, Richard Nixon, George Romney, Gov. Pat Brown and New York's Mayor Wagner. Also President Kennedy's strength in Congress.

There are at least 50 districts where the Democrats or Republicans won by from 1 to 5 per cent.

ROY REUTHER points out that, strangely enough, it is in the big cities that people stay away from the polls in droves. In New York, for example, 2¼ million citizens of voting age did not cast a ballot in the last presidential election.

This is 42 per cent of the adult population there. In Chicago's Cook County, 823,000 citizens did not vote. John Kennedy, remember, took Illinois by less than 9,000 votes.

Reuther, whose official title, now that he has been lend-leased by the Auto Workers Union to the national AFL-CIO, is national director of voter registration. He says that 25 per cent of the people did not vote in Los Angeles County — enough to swing the state in any direction.

In Philadelphia, 396,000 did not vote and in Detroit, 466,000 ignored election day. The story is the same in other cities.

"Why not," asks Roy Reuther, "make it possible to register in every fire station, every city library, police station, high school and public building.

"Why not have public servants set up a continuing staff, which would go door to door registering on the spot if you can't get the people to some central registration office in their working neighborhoods?"

ROY REUTHER, who is working with such non-partisan groups as the American Heritage Foundation to create citizen registration committees, operates out of the headquarters of labor's Committee on Political Education (COPE). Through his unit there pulsates widespread imaginative political machinery. This ranges from Negro "house captains" to specially produced films.

In Cleveland the other week, for example, the Negro American Labor Council dovetailed its activities with COPE. With labor's financial help the Negro organization will attempt to set up its house captain network in 31 cities.

Its technique will be the enitors in every apartment house in every Negro community from coast to coast. The "super" will be the house captain — and it will be his task to get every family to register and vote.

THIS OPERATION will attempt to reach into the homes of every urban Negro family in the land. It could be done for $324,000 according to Joe Overton, the Negro group's executive vice president.

As for the motion picture approach, there is the three-part film "People and Politics." Cost —$25,000. Technique — it can be split into three 10-minute parts for TV broadcasts. Or it can be used by lecturers. Or it can be fitted together as a "full length" movie for showing at union meetings.

Featuring George Meany, it states why labor is in politics. Why folks should register. And why they should get out the vote —and how.

There is no doubt that all this will bring new millions to the ballot booths. There is no doubt that these millions can make or break our biggest political names — and even the congressional strength of Mr. Kennedy himself.

When In Washington

By Katherine Evans

From the headlines, one might think steel prices, Berlin, and Medicare are the only things worrying Washington. But we'll let you in on a secret. The real springtime crisis in Washington is what to do with out-of-town visitors. Here are some of the things we tell our spring visitors to do after they've climbed the Washington Monument:

Follow the footsteps of Queen Farah of Iran and drive through the Southwest Redevelopment Area, 550 acres of one-time slums that have been totally obliterated. Now rising on the wasteland of rubble are some dazzling new apartments and houses, many of them designed by local architects.

Hustle up to Capitol Hill and look in on a congressional hearing, taking care to check time, place and cast of characters in the morning newspaper or through your congressman's office. And, if you're really in solid with a Republican congressman, ask him to take you to the Ev and Charlie Show—the weekly political interview held by the Republican congressional leaders, Sen. Everett Dirksen and Congressman Charles Halleck.

GO TO THE EXHIBIT of "way out" abstract sculpture, mostly of welded iron and steel, by the well-known contemporary sculptor, David Smith. It's now on view at the Phillips Gallery, once the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Phillips, now filled with their collection of 19th and 20th century paintings and open to the public.

Drive out to the National Arboretum and see one of the country's outstanding displays of azaleas. Twenty acres of azaleas, including 80,000 plants of 1,500 varieties, should be in full bloom from now until the end of April.

Have your hair done by Kerek at Elizabeth Arden's.

Have lunch or dinner at the Jockey Club, a posh bistro full of horsey, oak-paneled atmosphere. Try their red snapper.

Plunge into an evening of political and social satire at one of Washington's new night spots specializing in topical humor.

Rent a canoe, any warm spring day at Fletcher's Boathouse on Canal Road and paddle up the century-old Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. Or hitch a ride on the mule-drawn barge which goes up and down the Canal every weekend, starting May 5. Reservations through Government Services, Inc., 1125 31st St., N.W.

Take in the Arena Stage, Washington's theater-in-the-round, now performing in its handsome new quarters in the Southwest Redevelopment Area.

Ask your congressman if he can get you into the special early-morning tour of the White House when the group is small and the guide has time to tell all about the restored rooms. Take along a carrot for Macaroni, Caroline Kennedy's pony, just in case he's grazing near the south fence of the White House and looks hungry.

Power To Destroy

By David Lawrence

Vote Change Proposal Termed Dangerous

Just as President Franklin D. Roosevelt became impatient with the processes of the judiciary and asked for laws to permit him to "pack" the Supreme Court, President Kennedy now has started an analogous controversy which will occupy the attention of the Senate for the next two weeks. He wants to "pack" the electorate by ignoring the rules laid down in the Constitution concerning voter qualifications.

David Lawrence

If Mr. Kennedy has his way, a rubber-stamp Congress could at the behest of a president pass a law making children of eleven years of age eligible to vote in federal elections.

The Constitution, of course, specifically gives only the states the power and right to fix the qualifications of voters. It reserves to Congress merely the right to alter state regulations as to the "times, places, and manner" of holding the elections themselves.

But Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, in a formal statement to a Senate subcommittee, declares he is tired of the bother of filing lawsuits and says, in effect, that it's easier just to get a law passed to set voter qualifications than to go through the prescribed process of amending the Constitution to take this right away from the states.

Now, it will be conceded that if there is any discrimination in any state because of race or color in preventing anyone from voting, then certainly the Constitution should be invoked to secure equal treatment. This, however, really isn't the issue, for the basic question is how the Constitution shall be enforced.

The attorney general says that, when the 15th amendment was adopted in 1870, it became illegal to practice racial discrimination in the voting process, but "it is necessary today, 92 years later, to file lawsuit after lawsuit to make this constitutional command a realty."

President Roosevelt argued the same way. He wanted the justices of the Supreme Court to decide cases the way he wanted them decided, and he declared that he didn't care to wait till enough vacancies on the bench occurred to give him the opportunity to appoint new judges who would support his views.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL says that persons with a sixth-grade education should not be required to take a literacy test as a qualification for voting. He feels that completion of the sixth grade is sufficient without an examination. He could be right about this as a test in itself. Yet he ignores the specific obligation under the Constitution that if the rights of the states — which include the power to fix voter qualifications — are to be changed, then the Constitution itself must be amended by a two-thirds vote of both houses of Congress and the states.

With amazing frankness, the attorney general proclaims the rule of expediency and the doctrine which has caused the overthrow of many an established government — the "end justifies the means." He says in his formal statement:

"The question is not whether the bill is valid, but whether it would correct the situation."

Mr. Kennedy, further on in his statement, adds:

"I believe legislation, to accomplish directly what can be unquestionably done through litigation, is plainly justified under the 14th and 15th Amendments."

But is this really true? Litigation can be instituted only when there is evidence of discrimination in denying the vote to anyone eligible. What the attorney general is proposing is that both whites and Negroes, for instance, be permitted to vote when they have completed a sixth-grade education.

He is ignoring the fact that, if a state actually administers its laws fairly and doesn't permit either a white or a colored person to vote if a literacy test is given and the applicant fails, then there is no basis for litigation. He wants to skip that step and declare all persons literate by law if they have completed a sixth grade education.

Only the states, however, under the Constitution can legally establish this form of voter qualification.

MR. KENNEDY argues that Article 1, Sec. 4, provides that Congress may at any time "make or alter the times, places, and manner of holding federal elections" and declares that "this plainly means that the state regulations on voting are subject to some limitations that may be imposed by Congress."

He then concludes: "I think the bill would be a proper limitation under the provision."

Nowhere in the judicial history of the United States is there any decision which says so. The "times, places, and manner" of holding elections have always been construed to mean the setting or changing of the date and place where elections are held, and questions involving honesty in counting ballots in the election itself.

The word "qualifications" appears three times in the Constitution, and in each instance refers only to the power of the states to prescribe the rules of eligibility for voting.

This whole manuever is characteristic of the Kennedy administration. It has issued many an executive order that has yet to be tested by the Supreme Court. The argument always is offered that, because it is "cumbersome" to amend the Constitution, a short cut can be taken by having Congress act alone. George Washington foresaw this trend as likely to develop when he warned in his farewell address:

"Let there be no change by usurpation. For through this, in one instance, may be the instrument of good, it is the customary weapon by which free governments are destroyed."

Letters To The Editor

(Harry Foden, a former East Liverpool resident, is dying of cancer in Florida. The following letter is in the form of a "farewell" to his friends here. For those interested in dropping a note, Mr. Foden resides at 143 N.W. 144th St., Miami 68, Fla.)

Dear friends: Having been assured that I will not live more than a few weeks, I feel so obligated that I should write to you out of appreciation for what you have been to me. I wanted to thank you for your pleasant and encouraging words and for what your acquaintance has added to my life.

I want to assure you that my friendship has accepted you as a sincere friend and the unhappy effects that death brings is not a very pleasant one, but, looking forward with anticipation to the time when we shall meet again is of great encouragement.

Having found in my early childhood, forgiveness and a constant Peace and Joy in a Christian life, these last days of my life have been full of assurance and happiness with no worry or doubts as to my hope of Heaven. Subtracting from this, of course, is the separation from my loved ones and my friends and I assure you a little word of encouragement and prayer from you would be very much appreciated. So I will be sincerely praying that you and I shall meet on the other side, God Bless You.

Ideally, the political parties would do this themselves but they have enough trouble now raising enough money to pay their bills. They have nothing to spare on investigations to show where half their money is being wasted.

That politicians and political parties should assume about television what they always have assumed about newspapers — that coverage of political speeches is a public obligation.

Newspapers deal with political debate as a free service. They regard it as part of the process of government. They are concerned with it, therefore.

Newspapers have advertising space to sell, just as television has time to sell. But the newspaper industry does not charge for coverage of basic campaigning. It charges only for what is plainly designed to be political advertising.

At a time when as much as a third of the cost of a national campaign is blotted up in TV costs, this would be a logical place to start to save money — not to cut down on TV exposure but to make the television industry give more free time to political campaigners.

Danger Spots

Stories such as that from Georgia where three college students survived a three-day ordeal in a muddy cave point up the need for another check on district danger spots.

Caves, abandoned mines and old wells are among sites that could prove death traps, particularly for youngsters with an urge to explore. And with warmer weather, the urge will become the greater.

If you live in an area where such hazards exist, make it a point to take safety measures on your own—such as boarding up the entrance to a cave — or call the proper authorities.

This appeal has been made before, but in view of the near-tragedy in Georgia it seems in order again.

No State Income Tax, Please

Ohio's tax commissioner, Stanley J. Bowers, predicted last week the state will need an income tax within the next five years to stabilize the local real estate tax situation and assure better distribution of the tax burden.

This might be interpreted at face value as an endorsement of the positions previously taken by the Ohio AFL-CIO and the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation. But a close look at his remarks as they were reported by the Associated Press indicates otherwise.

Mr. Bowers seemed to be saying a state income tax would be useful as an additional source of government revenue, not as a replacement except perhaps for the personal property tax.

THIS IS not exactly what farmers and organized labor have in mind. The former favor a state-collected income tax as a means of reducing local real estate taxes—partial replacement of property taxes, in other words.

Labor dreams of a state income tax as a replacement for the sales tax, chief source of state general funds. A progressive income levy similar to the federal government's would distribute the tax burden more fairly than the theoretically regressive sales tax, the union leaders argue.

The frightening question is how big the percentage income tax would have to be to accomplish either of these objectives. Mr. Bowers told his Akron audience the limited objective of stabilizing rather than replacing real estate levies would depend upon enactment of an income tax of "sufficient" size.

The problem is compounded by the constitutional provision that would require the state to return to local subdivisions half the revenue it collected from their citizens, as state inheritance taxes now are divided.

This could be solved either by changing the constitution, which seems politically unrealistic, or by raising the amount of the tax to make the state's half of the revenue large enough to meet the state's needs.

In either case, municipalities which have pre-empted the income tax as the only major source of new funds available to them would be threatened with even greater fiscal chaos than they now face.

Even if the state returned half its revenue to them, it seems unlikely their share would equal what they now are able to realize. And a side effect would be to take from the cities the only means they have of getting suburbanites who still depend upon city services to contribute to city general funds.

THE ENTIRE problem resembles the proverbial ripples across the pond after the pebble drops in; endless complications arise. But in simplest terms it boils down to this: If the state made fair allowance for the high-rate federal income tax and for the increasing reliance of municipalities on income taxes, would it be able to collect enough revenue for itself to make the effort worthwhile? Probably not.

This is one of the reasons virtually all of the elected leaders of both parties have refused to entertain seriously proposals for a state income tax.

Another, we suspect, is that, aside from organized pressure groups with their own axes to grind, there is very little citizen encouragement for a state income tax.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

AT&T annual meeting of stockholders, which drew capacity crowds through years when it served box lunches, played to smallest attendance in decades when it dropped free lunch. Stockholders chose a Campbell Soup official as new director, which indicates they think they are entitled to at least some canned consomme.

This could be biggest mistake in public relations since U.S. Steel boner in serving White House cold shoulder and deep-freeze tongue, knowing President had counted on hot meal. Steel was guilty of bad timing. AT&T is guilty of bad feeding.

Free lunch is an institution with big corporation. Is telephone corporation saying, "Let 'em eat cake"? Does it think stockholders ask fewer questions when unfed? Is it switching from "Come here, Watson, I can hear you," to "Come here, Watson, and bring your own lunch"?

President Kappel looked well fed and some stockholders muttered, "He must have had a big meal before he got here!" while moaned, "Imagine of the richest corporations on earth denying us a cup of coffee and a hotdog!" and "If it can bounce telephone communications off satellites, how come it can't bump a chicken sandwich from the free lunch counter to a stockholder?"

Phone company heads deny desire for thinner stockholders in support of Kennedy fitness program and insist they have not discover that people use phone more when hungry.

They dismiss report enormous outlays for expansion cause them to scrimp on ham and beans. Nevertheless fewer people attended this annual meeting than baseball game between seventh place "Mets" on same day.

The ball club served no free lunch but passed out paper plates which are edible under extreme circumstances. (Get me the complaint operator; I want to ask why the telephone company has disconnected the feedbag!)

WOMEN ARE BUYING WIGS by millions all over America. Big New York department store had spectacular demand in special sale of them in all shapes and colors. (Ya mean fantastic appearance of women for some time has NOT been due to wigs, but to their OWN HAIR!)

Biggest laughs on TV are some commercials and point of their interruptions. The other night there was a tense moment when a battered man, bound hand and foot in cellar with time-block bomb about to explode, twisted in horror when words came flashing on TV screens, "You have a friend at the Chase Manhattan!"

Ghana Cabinet minister has lost job and been deprived of palace as result of wife's purchase of $8,400 gold bed. We can hear him now exclaiming "You and your ideas of bedroom furniture!"

New York's new ball club, the Mets, may draw fans largely through underdog appeal. They are bound to draw sympathies aroused by the slum dwellers and "mugging" victims.

Will France throw up a wall between De Gaulle and Rainier? This can get so serious U.N. will be asked to send troops to protect roulette wheels, dice tables and other gambling paraphernalia.

Watch Out For The Big One!

Labor Sets Huge Vote Drive

By Victor Riesel

You can run across the brothers Reuther on a global front almost anywhere from the Rio Grande to the Rhine. Usually it's either the oldest, Walter, or the youngest, Victor. If you want the brother in the middle — Roy Reuther — you have to look Stateside. Right on the Potomac, in fact. Early each weekday morning, he is at his desk in labor's political nerve center on the sixth floor of the national AFL-CIO headquarters — directing and programming a drive to get 20 million citizens registered and 37 million voters to the polls, especially in the big cities where working people live.

Victor Riesel

This sprawling assignment of Roy Reuther's — shyest and most unassuming and unpublicized of the three brothers — won't make headlines until the morning after next election day.

Then it may develop that Roy Reuther's "operation registration" has affected national politics by swinging millions to the polls to vote on the careers of such men as Nelson Rockefeller, Richard Nixon, George Romney, Gov. Pat Brown and New York's Mayor Wagner. Also President Kennedy's strength in Congress.

There are at least 50 districts where the Democrats or Republicans won by from 1 to 5 per cent.

ROY REUTHER points out that, strangely enough, it is in the big cities that people stay away from the polls in droves. In New York, for example, 2¼ million citizens of voting age did not cast a ballot in the last presidential election.

This is 42 per cent of the adult population there. In Chicago's Cook County, 823,000 citizens did not vote. John Kennedy, remember, took Illinois by less than 9,000 votes.

Reuther, whose official title, now that he has been lend-leased by the Auto Workers Union to the national AFL-CIO, is national director of voter registration. He says that 25 per cent of the people did not vote in Los Angeles County — enough to swing the state in any direction.

In Philadelphia, 396,000 did not vote and in Detroit, 466,000 ignored election day. The story is the same in other cities.

"Why not," asks Roy Reuther, "make it possible to register in every fire station, every city library, police station, high school and public building.

"Why not have public servants set up a continuing staff, which would go door to door registering on the spot if you can't get the people to some central registration office in their working neighborhoods?"

ROY REUTHER, who is working with such non-partisan groups as the American Heritage Foundation to create citizen registration committees, operates out of the headquarters of labor's Committee on Political Education (COPE). Through his unit there pulsates widespread imaginative political machinery. This ranges from Negro "house captains" to specially produced films.

In Cleveland the other week, for example, the Negro American Labor Council dovetailed its activities with COPE. With labor's financial help the Negro organization will attempt to set up its house captain network in 31 cities.

rollment of superintendents or jan-

Its technique will be the enitors in every apartment house in every Negro community from coast to coast. The "super" will be the house captain — and it will be his task to get every family to register and vote.

THIS OPERATION will attempt to reach into the homes of every urban Negro family in the land. It could be done for $324,000 according to Joe Overton, the Negro group's executive vice president.

As for the motion picture approach, there is the three-part film "People and Politics." Cost —$25,000. Technique — it can be split into three 10-minute parts for TV broadcasts. Or it can be used by lecturers. Or it can be fitted together as a "full length" movie for showing at union meetings.

Featuring George Meany, it states why labor is in politics. Why folks should register. And why they should get out the vote —and how.

There is no doubt that all this will bring new millions to the ballot booths. There is no doubt that these millions can make or break our biggest political names — and even the congressional strength of Mr. Kennedy himself.

When In Washington

By Katherine Evans

From the headlines, one might think steel prices, Berlin, and Medicare are the only things worrying Washington. But we'll let you in on a secret. The real springtime crisis in Washington is what to do with out-of-town visitors. Here are some of the things we tell our spring visitors to do after they've climbed the Washington Monument:

Follow the footsteps of Queen Farah of Iran and drive through the Southwest Redevelopment Area, 550 acres of one-time slums that have been totally obliterated. Now rising on the wasteland of rubble are some dazzling new apartments and houses, many of them designed by local architects.

Hustle up to Capitol Hill and look in on a congressional hearing, taking care to check time, place and cast of characters in the morning newspaper or through your congressman's office. And, if you're really in solid with a Republican congressman, ask him to take you to the Ev and Charlie Show—the weekly political interview held by the Republican congressional leaders, Sen. Everett Dirksen and Congressman Charles Halleck.

GO TO THE EXHIBIT of "way out" abstract sculpture, mostly of welded iron and steel, by the well-known contemporary sculptor, David Smith. It's now on view at the Phillips Gallery, once the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Phillips, now filled with their collection of 19th and 20th century paintings and open to the public.

Drive out to the National Arboretum and see one of the country's outstanding displays of azaleas. Twenty acres of azaleas, including 80,000 plants of 1,500 varieties, should be in full bloom from now until the end of April.

Have your hair done by Kerek at Elizabeth Arden's.

Have lunch or dinner at the Jockey Club, a posh bistro full of horsey, oak-paneled atmosphere. Try their red snapper.

Plunge into an evening of political and social satire at one of Washington's new night spots specializing in topical humor.

Rent a canoe, any warm spring day at Fletcher's Boathouse on Canal Road and paddle up the century-old Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. Or hitch a ride on the mule-drawn barge which goes up and down the Canal every weekend, starting May 5. Reservations through Government Services, Inc., 1125 31st St., N.W.

Take in the Arena Stage, Washington's theater-in-the-round, now performing in its handsome new quarters in the Southwest Redevelopment Area.

Ask your congressman if he can get you into the special early-morning tour of the White House when the group is small and the guide has time to tell all about the restored rooms. Take along a carrot for Macaroni, Caroline Kennedy's pony, just in case he's grazing near the south fence of the White House and looks hungry.

Power To Destroy

By David Lawrence

Vote Change Proposal Termed Dangerous

Just as President Franklin D. Roosevelt became impatient with the processes of the judiciary and asked for laws to permit him to "pack" the Supreme Court, President Kennedy now has started an analogous controversy which will occupy the attention of the Senate for the next two weeks. He wants to "pack" the electorate by ignoring the rules laid down in the Constitution concerning voter qualifications.

David Lawrence

If Mr. Kennedy has his way, a rubber-stamp Congress could at the behest of a president pass a law making children of eleven years of age eligible to vote in federal elections.

The Constitution, of course, specifically gives only the states the power and right to fix the qualifications of voters. It reserves to Congress merely the right to alter state regulations as to the "times, places, and manner" of holding the elections themselves.

But Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, in a formal statement to a Senate subcommittee, declares he is tired of the bother of filing lawsuits and says, in effect, that it's easier just to get a law passed to set voter qualifications than to go through the prescribed process of amending the Constitution to take this right away from the states.

Now, it will be conceded that if there is any discrimination in any state because of race or color in preventing anyone from voting, then certainly the Constitution should be invoked to secure equal treatment. This, however, really isn't the issue, for the basic question is how the Constitution shall be enforced.

The attorney general says that, when the 15th amendment was adopted in 1870, it became illegal to practice racial discrimination in the voting process, but "it is necessary today, 92 years later, to file lawsuit after lawsuit to make this constitutional command a realty."

President Roosevelt argued the same way. He wanted the justices of the Supreme Court to decide cases the way he wanted them decided, and he declared that he didn't care to wait till enough vacancies on the bench occurred to give him the opportunity to appoint new judges who would support his views.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL says that persons with a sixth-grade education should not be required to take a literacy test as a qualification for voting. He feels that completion of the sixth grade is sufficient without an examination. He could be right about this as a test in itself. Yet he ignores the specific obligation under the Constitution that if the rights of the states — which include the power to fix voter qualifications — are to be changed, then the Constitution itself must be amended by a two-thirds vote of both houses of Congress and the states.

With amazing frankness, the attorney general proclaims the rule of expediency and the doctrine which has caused the overthrow of many an established government — the "end justifies the means." He says in his formal statement:

"The question is not whether the bill is valid, but whether it would correct the situation."

Mr. Kennedy, further on in his statement, adds:

"I believe legislation, to accomplish directly what can be unquestionably done through litigation, is plainly justified under the 14th and 15th Amendments."

But is this really true? Litigation can be instituted only when there is evidence of discrimination in denying the vote to anyone eligible. What the attorney general is proposing is that both whites and Negroes, for instance, be permitted to vote when they have completed a sixth-grade education.

He is ignoring the fact that, if a state actually administers its laws fairly and doesn't permit either a white or a colored person to vote if a literacy test is given and the applicant fails, then there is no basis for litigation. He wants to skip that step and declare all persons literate by law if they have completed a sixth grade education.

Only the states, however, under the Constitution can legally establish this form of voter qualification.

MR. KENNEDY argues that Article 1, Sec. 4, provides that Congress may at any time "make or alter the times, places, and manner of holding federal elections" and declares that "this plainly means that the state regulations on voting are subject to some limitations that may be imposed by Congress."

He then concludes: "I think the bill would be a proper limitation under the provision."

Nowhere in the judicial history of the United States is there any decision which says so. The "times, places, and manner" of holding elections have always been construed to mean the setting or changing of the date and place where elections are held, and questions involving honesty in counting ballots in the election itself.

The word "qualifications" appears three times in the Constitution, and in each instance refers only to the power of the states to prescribe the rules of eligibility for voting.

This whole manuever is characteristic of the Kennedy administration. It has issued many an executive order that has yet to be tested by the Supreme Court. The argument always is offered that, because it is "cumbersome" to amend the Constitution, a short cut can be taken by having Congress act alone. George Washington foresaw this trend as likely to develop when he warned in his farewell address:

"Let there be no change by usurpation. For through this, in one instance, may be the instrument of good, it is the customary weapon by which free governments are destroyed."

Letters To The Editor

(Harry Foden, a former East Liverpool resident, is dying of cancer in Florida. The following letter is in the form of a "farewell" to his friends here. For those interested in dropping a note, Mr. Foden resides at 143 N.W. 144th St., Miami 68, Fla.)

Dear friends: Having been assured that I will not live more than a few weeks, I feel so obligated that I should write to you out of appreciation for what you have been to me. I wanted to thank you for your pleasant and encouraging words and for what your acquaintance has added to my life.

I want to assure you that my friendship has accepted you as a sincere friend and the unhappy effects that death brings is not a very pleasant one, but, looking forward with anticipation to the time when we shall meet again is of great encouragement.

Having found in my early childhood, forgiveness and a constant Peace and Joy in a Christian life, these last days of my life have been full of assurance and happiness with no worry or doubts as to my hope of Heaven. Subtracting from this, of course, is the separation from my loved ones and my friends and I assure you a little word of encouragement and prayer from you would be very much appreciated. So I will be sincerely praying that you and I shall meet on the other side, God Bless You.

Hays

think Russians are supermen. They are not dumb peasants, but they are not 10 feet tall either," Rep. Hays said.

Commenting on foreign aid, Rep. Hays called for a "more reasonable choice of approach" instead of "scattergun" methods in providing aid for reform programs.

He asserted that the director of foreign aid needs to be "tough," not wishy - washy enough to refrain from saying no to blackmailing dictators after U. S. dollars.

Rep. Hays said the problem boils down to the question of "Do we fight an atomic war if we disagree, or go in and try to buy the votes" of countries undecided between democracy or Communism?

Rep. Hays declared he is "critical" of the U. N. and asserted that reorganization is needed to equalize voting power. He pointed out that the U. S., with 180 million people, has the same vote of a country with only one million.

"I say we have to get a different system or we will bog down consistently about who can buy the most votes at one time," Rep. Hays said.

Responding to a question, he said a proposal of moving the U.N headquarters from New York to Berlin would "not solve anything," because of Berlin's precarious position.

Rep. Hays also lauded the Peace Corps of President Kennedy, asserting that "it has done more for foreign aid than anything in the field." He called for more people-to-people contracts in efforts to aid underdeveloped countries.

Returning to the threat of Communism in his wide-ranging talk, Rep. Hays declared "there is no magic formula for a quick victory."

"The fight against Communism will be a long term thing," Rep. Hays said, adding: "They will not give up in 1962 or 1972, but are out to win no matter how long it takes."

Rep. Hays said Fidel Castro "has been a colossal failure" in Cuba and other Latin American countries should take a good, quick look for themselves what has happened there.

"Castro has been no howling success and we should let him fester awhile and show what Communism brings to this country of four million," he continued.

Rep. Hays said he labeled Castro a Communist early in the revolution and was attacked by both Protestant and Catholic publications. He explained he recognized Castro's allegiance because the Cuban leader used the tactic of shooting his enemies immediately.

Rep. Hays will attend a breakfast meeting of the National Association of College Advisors Thursday morning in Washington and return the same day to address the Steubenville Chamber of Commerce.

He was introduced by Richard O. Wilson, program chairman. Guests included Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, Democratic State Central Committeeman in the 18th District, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff of Municipal Court and Bob Gilmore, new president of the Key Clubs of Ohio, son of Rotarian Dr. W. L. Gilmore. Dr. J. Jay Kinsey, president, presided.

IN THE BAG. This considerate street workman solved the problem of his noisy pneumatic drill by putting it in a bag. The drill was disturbing patients in nearby St. George Hospital in London, England. He found encasing the drill with this bag muffled the noise as he tore up the street to make way for a new sewer system.

a postponement Tuesday by the simple expedient of demanding that a quorum be present. Mansfield was trying to get discussion going on a bill which would exempt voters in federal elections who have completed a sixth-grade education from taking literacy tests in 21 states which have such requirements.

When only 35 of the 100 senators could be rounded up to answer to their names, Mansfield abruptly adjourned the Senate. It is supposed to have 51 on hand, a bare majority, to do business.

The Democratic leader lost a day but no ground in trying for action on a measure Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and other sponsors claim would go a long way toward preventing discrimination against Negro voters.

The Senate still had before it a House-passed bill to which Mansfield hopes to attach the literacy measure. The bill in question would free James M. Norman of Memphis, Tex., from repaying $2,001.48 in federal crop insurance paid him by the government's mistake.

In opening fire on the civil rights proposal, Russell made it clear Southerners feel it is a political rocket aimed at them.

Saving Of Pennies Adds To Matrimony

ASHEVILLE, N. C. — Thomas Walter Lance of Candler and Carolyn Sue Hooper of Asheville decided to save all their pennies to make a down payment on some item they would need after their wedding.

When the collection of pennies passed the 500 mark, they decided the idea of a down payment was taking too long so they plunked down $5 in pennies at the register of deeds office here and secured a marriage license.

Goose Strikes Wire And Cooks Own Goose

CHARLOTTE HARBOR, Fla. —A wild goose cooked his own goose, and the lights went out.

Deputy Sheriff John Shannon said a wild goose flew into a high tension line stretched across the Peace River. In an instant, the goose was well done. And elecrical power throughout the Charlotte Harbor area was out for nearly an hour until a crew could repair the damage.

almost extinguished the flames, but summoned help when the wind changed and the fire spread anew.

The Lisbon fire department sent the Center Township truck and also the Civil Defense tanker.

Two brush fires on Route 30 were quelled Tuesday by Chester and Lawrenceville firemen.

About eight acres were burned off on a site about one and a half miles east of Chester at 11 a. m. which 16 Lawrenceville firemen answered, and 14 Chester firemen assisted.

Lawrenceville firemen were summoned to extinguish a grass fire at 3:20 p. m. opposite the Cactus Bar of Route 30. About a half acre was burned over.

Showers Thursday May Cut Fire Hazard

Busy district firemen, kept on the run since Sunday with grass and brush fires, took hope today that the showers forecast for Thursday may help alleviate the situation.

But the Ohio weatherman said they will be scattered showers in the afternoon or night. No wind is forecast, however, which will help reduce the hazard.

Further drying of the brush and grass was expected today with temperatures expected to reach 81. Tonight will be fair and mild.

Hays

think Russians are supermen. They are not dumb peasants, but they are not 10 feet tall either," Rep. Hays said.

Commenting on foreign aid, Rep. Hays called for a "more reasonable choice of approach" instead of "scattergun" methods in providing aid for reform programs.

He asserted that the director of foreign aid needs to be "tough," not wishy - washy enough to refrain from saying no to blackmailing dictators after U. S. dollars.

Rep. Hays said the problem boils down to the question of "Do we fight an atomic war if we disagree, or go in and try to buy the votes" of countries undecided between democracy or Communism?

Rep. Hays declared he is "critical" of the U. N. and asserted that reorganization is needed to equalize voting power. He pointed out that the U. S., with 180 million people, has the same vote of a country with only one million.

"I say we have to get a different system or we will bog down consistently about who can buy the most votes at one time," Rep. Hays said.

Responding to a question, he said a proposal of moving the U.N headquarters from New York to Berlin would "not solve anything," because of Berlin's precarious position.

Rep. Hays also lauded the Peace Corps of President Kennedy, asserting that "it has done more for foreign aid than anything in the field." He called for more people-to-people contracts in efforts to aid underdeveloped countries.

Returning to the threat of Communism in his wide-ranging talk, Rep. Hays declared "there is no magic formula for a quick victory."

"The fight against Communism will be a long term thing," Rep. Hays said, adding: "They will not give up in 1962 or 1972, but are out to win no matter how long it takes."

Rep. Hays said Fidel Castro "has been a colossal failure" in Cuba and other Latin American countries should take a good, quick look for themselves what has happened there.

"Castro has been no howling success and we should let him fester awhile and show what Communism brings to this country of four million," he continued.

Rep. Hays said he labeled Castro a Communist early in the revolution and was attacked by both Protestant and Catholic publications. He explained he recognized Castro's allegiance because the Cuban leader used the tactic of shooting his enemies immediately.

Rep. Hays will attend a breakfast meeting of the National Association of College Advisors Thursday morning in Washington and return the same day to address the Steubenville Chamber of Commerce.

He was introduced by Richard O. Wilson, program chairman. Guests included Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, Democratic State Central Committeeman in the 18th District, Judge Samuel M. Chertoff of Municipal Court and Bob Gilmore, new president of the Key Clubs of Ohio, son of Rotarian Dr. W. L. Gilmore. Dr. J. Jay Kinsey, president, presided.

IN THE BAG. This considerate street workman solved the problem of his noisy pneumatic drill by putting it in a bag. The drill was disturbing patients in nearby St. George Hospital in London, England. He found encasing the drill with this bag muffled the noise as he tore up the street to make way for a new sewer system.

Civil Rights

a postponement Tuesday by the simple expedient of demanding that a quorum be present. Mansfield was trying to get discussion going on a bill which would exempt voters in federal elections who have completed a sixth-grade education from taking literacy tests in 21 states which have such requirements.

When only 35 of the 100 senators could be rounded up to answer to their names, Mansfield abruptly adjourned the Senate. It is supposed to have 51 on hand, a bare majority, to do business.

The Democratic leader lost a day but no ground in trying for action on a measure Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and other sponsors claim would go a long way toward preventing discrimination against Negro voters.

The Senate still had before it a House-passed bill to which Mansfield hopes to attach the literacy measure. The bill in question would free James M. Norman of Memphis, Tex., from repaying $2,001.48 in federal crop insurance paid him by the government's mistake.

In opening fire on the civil rights proposal, Russell made it clear Southerners feel it is a political rocket aimed at them.

Spring That Supplied Indians Still Produces

SALEM, Mass. (AP) —A spring that supplied the Indians is still producing purest of water here.

Public Property Supt. John J. O'Rourke says the spring has been on Park Department land "as long as anyone can remember."

Saving Of Pennies Adds To Matrimony

ASHEVILLE, N. C. — Thomas Walter Lance of Candler and Carolyn Sue Hooper of Asheville decided to save all their pennies to make a down payment on some item they would need after their wedding.

When the collection of pennies passed the 500 mark, they decided the idea of a down payment was taking too long so they plunked down $5 in pennies at the register of deeds office here and secured a marriage license.

Goose Strikes Wire And Cooks Own Goose

CHARLOTTE HARBOR, Fla. —A wild goose cooked his own goose, and the lights went out.

Deputy Sheriff John Shannon said a wild goose flew into a high tension line stretched across the Peace River. In an instant, the goose was well done. And electrical power throughout the Charlotte Harbor area was out for nearly an hour until a crew could repair the damage.

Brush Fires

almost extinguished the flames, but summoned help when the wind changed and the fire spread anew.

Two brush fires on Route 30 were quelled Tuesday by Chester and Lawrenceville firemen.

About eight acres were burned off on a site about one and a half miles east of Chester at 11 a. m. which 16 Lawrenceville firemen answered, and 14 Chester firemen assisted.

Lawrenceville firemen were summoned to extinguish a grass fire at 3:20 p. m. opposite the Cactus Bar of Route 30. About a half acre was burned over.

Showers Thursday May Cut Fire Hazard

Busy district firemen, kept on the run since Sunday with grass and brush fires, took hope today that the showers forecast for Thursday may help alleviate the situation.

But the Ohio weatherman said they will be scattered showers in the afternoon or night. No wind is forecast, however, which will help reduce the hazard.

Further drying of the brush and grass was expected today with temperatures expected to reach 81. Tonight will be fair and mild.

President Of Firm Sets Good Example

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Carl K. Gieringer, a corporation president, sets an example for his employes by punching the time clock at the start and the end of his working day.

Explosion

and nearby communities fought the blaze. Police asked residents of a nearby subdivision to leave so rooftops could be soaked.

Injured were James E. Sheppard, 43, of Houston, a worker at the tank farm; James Duke, 25, and Judy Taylor, 21, both of Pasadena, a Houston suburb, and Allen Buchneck, 21, of Genoa, Tex.

The woman who suffered a heart attack was Mrs. Ledith Miller, 45, of Houston. Three firemen were overcome by smoke.

Testimony Enters 3rd Day In Phone Rate Hike Fight

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Testimony on the long-contested rate increase for Southeastern Ohio customers of the Commonwealth Telephone Co. went into its third day today.

Three executives of the company testified Tuesday in behalf of the increase, estimated at $465,822 annually, before members of the Utilities Commission. The hearings began last Thursday when an expert witness hired by the company testified.

The company planned to put Paul A. Betty of New York on the stand when the hearing resumed today. Betty, assistant vice president for finance of General Telephone and Electronics Corp., Commonwealth's parent company, was to be the company's final witness.

So far the only opportunity opposing factions have had to express their views has been through cross-examination of the company's witnesses.

However, commissioner Rankin Gibson said he expected several southeastern Ohioans to be called to the stand today in opposition to the rate hikes.

The commission has on file several letters from groups and individuals objecting to the hikes.

Appearing for the company Tuesday were F. W. Hamper of Marion, operating vice president for the Commonwealth Telephone Co. of Ohio, General Telephone Co. of Ohio and Troy-Tipp Telephone Inc.; Forrest R. Stroud Jr., chief engineer for the three companies, and Herbert J. Vrooman of Marion, their controller (top financial officer).

Hamper told the commission "steadily advancing costs of wages and other operating expenses, including depreciation and taxes" make the rate increases necessary.

Through his line of questioning Hamper, James Peterson, city solicitor from Bremen, argued against the company's use of so-called bands to establish rates for a given area. A band is a grouping of rates according to the number of telephones reachable from an exchange without having tolls charged on each call.

Hamper asserted customers within each exchange should be charged on the basis of the costs incurred by that exchange only.

Ad Director Dies

4-H News

Proceeds from the sale will be used to help send members to the annual Hancock County 4-H Camp at Tomlinson Run Park in June.

Plans also were made to attend services at the Pughtown Presbyterian Church on "Rural Life Sunday," May 27.

Project talks were given by Bobby Walker, Paula Mercer, Barbara McHenry, Lewis Hall, Nola Fisher and Joyce Davis. Demonstrations were presented by Miss Mercer and Miss Fisher.

Lunch was served by Miss Davis, Miss McHenry and Mary Margaret Anderson. Next meeting is May 28 at the Glenn home.

Stroud Jr., chief engineer for the three companies, and Herbert J. Vrooman of Marion, their controller (top financial officer).

Hamper told the commission "steadily advancing costs of wages and other operating expenses, including depreciation and taxes" make the rate increases necessary.

Through his line of questioning Hamper, James Peterson, city solicitor from Bremen, argued against the company's use of so-called bands to establish rates for a given area. A band is a grouping of rates according to the number of telephones reachable from an exchange without having tolls charged on each call.

Hamper asserted customers within each exchange should be charged on the basis of the costs incurred by that exchange only.

4-H News

Plans were made for a benefit bake sale Saturday at the Chester Laundromat when the Apache 4-H Club met Monday night at the home of the advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Don Glenn, of State Route 2, near Chester.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to help send members to the annual Hancock County 4-H Camp at Tomlinson Run Park in June.

Plans also were made to attend services at the Pughtown Presbyterian Church on "Rural Life Sunday," May 27.

Project talks were given by Bobby Walker, Paula Mercer, Barbara McHenry, Lewis Hall, Nola Fisher and Joyce Davis. Demonstrations were presented by Miss Mercer and Miss Fisher.

Lunch was served by Miss Davis, Miss McHenry and Mary Margaret Anderson. Next meeting is May 28 at the Glenn home.

Petitions Due By Aug. 8 For Judicial Jobs

Aug. 8 at 4 p. m. will be the deadline for candidates to file for non-partisan ballot spots at the Nov. 6 general election in which three County Court judges will be elected, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, reminded prospective candidates today.

Under a new state law, two of the judges will be named for four-year terms and one will be elected for two years. Candidates must designate which tenure they are seeking when filing, O'Hanlon explained.

The incumbents are James L. MacDonald, whose court is at Lisbon; Herbert Arfman, whose court is in East Palestine, and Luther Donbar, who presides at Salem. They will run in the so-called County Court District, which includes all of Columbiana County outside East Liverpool and Liverpool Township. The city and the adjoining township comprise the East Liverpool Municipal Court jurisdiction.

Only County Court District electors may sign petitions of prospective candidates, O'Hanlon said. The minimum number of signatures is 294, based upon 29,370 votes cast for governor in the court area in 1958. The filing fee is $19.51, one half of one per cent of the annual salary of $3,907.

Unless a candidate is an incumbent, he must be an attorney in order to qualify, the law provides.

Meanwhile, O'Hanlon repeated an explanation of election law which he first issued last week, pointing out that an elector will have a right to vote at the May 8 primaries on special questions and issues only — if he desires— without being required to declare his party affiliation.

O'Hanlon said he repeated the explanation because the original announcement prompted many enquiries and comments from precinct officials as well as the general public.

Instructions already mailed precinct workers explain the provision of the law, O'Hanlon said, but he added the board expects to send a supplemental letter to presiding judges emphasizing the point again.

Poll books have a special section for listing non-partisan voters, O'Hanlon said. He reiterated that a vote on a special question or issue technically is a special election held on the same date at the primary.

Coast Guard Findings Due In Yacht Case

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Coast Guard said it would make public today its findings on the yacht Bluebelle mystery, an ocean tragedy with only a little girl as a survivor.

The announcement by Seventh District Coast Guard headquarters at Miami came a day after an insurance company asked a federal court to rule on the death of one passenger.

She was Mary Dene Harvey, 34, wife of Bluebelle skipper Julian A. Harvey. He killed himself a few hours after learning Terry Jo Duperrault, 11, was rescued semi-conscious from a liferaft.

Harvey's tale of dismasting and fire last Nov. 12 in a Bahamas squall bore little resemblance to the account related by Terry Jo after she was nursed back to strength in a Miami hospital.

The pretty blonde Green Bay, Wis., girl, orphaned in the Bluebelle tragedy, told Coast Guard interrogators she saw no fire or broken masts on the 60-foot ketch. She said she did see her mother and brother lying on blood-spattered decks and was slapped by Harvey, who she said was carrying the ship's rifle and later abandoned her on the sinking craft.

Harvey, 44, a former Air Force officer with a history of involvement in auto, plane and boating accidents, skippered the yacht Bluebelle on a Duperrault family vacation charter cruise with his wife as helper. Dr. Arthur Duperrault, 49, Green Bay optician, his wife, Jean, 38, their son, Brian, 14, and daughters, Renee, 7, and Terry Jo had saved for a long time for the trip out of Fort Lauderdale.

The Bluebelle went down the night of Nov. 12. The next day Harvey was found in a dinghy with the body of Renee and was brought by a merchant vessel to Nassau where he rested a few days and returned to Miami.

Harvey was in a Coast Guard inquiry office when word came that Terry Jo was alive and was being brought to Miami after clinging more than three days to a five-foot life raft. He left the hearing room. Next morning, Harvey's body was found in his lodgings with razor slashes in throat and wrists. A note said he could not stand the strain any longer.

Terry Jo regained her strength quickly and went to live in Lapere, a Green Bay suburb, with an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scheer.

The Travelers Insurance Co. asked U.S. District Court at Miami Tuesday to rule whether, how and when Mary Dene Harvey died.

Petitions Due By Aug. 8 For Judicial Jobs

Aug. 8 at 4 p. m. will be the deadline for candidates to file for non-partisan ballot spots at the Nov. 6 general election in which three County Court judges will be elected, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, reminded prospective candidates today.

Under a new state law, two of the judges will be named for four-year terms and one will be elected for two years. Candidates must designate which tenure they are seeking when filing, O'Hanlon explained.

The incumbents are James L. MacDonald, whose court is at Lisbon; Herbert Arfman, whose court is in East Palestine, and Luther Donbar, who presides at Salem. They will run in the so-called County Court District, which includes all of Columbiana County outside East Liverpool and Liverpool Township. The city and the adjoining township comprise the East Liverpool Municipal Court jurisdiction.

Only County Court District electors may sign petitions of prospective candidates, O'Hanlon said. The minimum number of signatures is 294, based upon 29,370 votes cast for governor in the court area in 1958. The filing fee is $19.51, one half of one per cent of the annual salary of $3,907.

Unless a candidate is an incumbent, he must be an attorney in order to qualify, the law provides.

Meanwhile, O'Hanlon repeated an explanation of election law which he first issued last week, pointing out that an elector will have a right to vote at the May 8 primaries on special questions and issues only — if he desires— without being required to declare his party affiliation.

O'Hanlon said he repeated the explanation because the original announcement prompted many enquiries and comments from precinct officials as well as the general public.

Instructions already mailed precinct workers explain the provision of the law, O'Hanlon said, but he added the board expects to send a supplemental letter to presiding judges emphasizing the point again.

Poll books have a special section for listing non-partisan voters, O'Hanlon said. He reiterated that a vote on a special question or issue technically is a special election held on the same date at the primary.

Town Hall Destroyed In $40,000 Blaze

FELICITY, Ohio (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the town hall in this Clermont County village early today. First estimate of the loss was $40,000.

Felicity is about 40 miles east of Cincinnati.

The two-story brick building housed the Fire Department, jail and Council chambers. Two pieces of fire fighting equipment—a town pumper and a Civil Defense pumper—were saved.

Mayor William McClanahan said most of the town's current official records were at his home and older records were saved although damaged.

The fire was discovered by a passerby, but had gained too much headway for the building to be saved. The mayor said the town's police patrolman was off duty because lack of funds prevent full time police protection.

Japs Try To Storm American Embassy

TOKYO (AP)—Denouncing the U.S. decision to resume nuclear tests, 100 left-wing students tried to storm the American Embassy today, but 200 police stopped them 50 yards short of the gate.

One plainclothesman was cut about the face in the brief, fierce battle that left the street littered with banners, shoes and other belongings of the students.

The demonstration was led by Japan's Zengakuren Student Federation, which has vowed to demonstrate at the embassy every day the United States carries on nuclear tests in the central Pacific.

Town Hall Destroyed In $40,000 Blaze

FELICITY, Ohio (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the town hall in this Clermont County village early today. First estimate of the loss was $40,000.

Felicity is about 40 miles east of Cincinnati.

The two-story brick building housed the Fire Department, jail and Council chambers. Two pieces of fire fighting equipment —a town pumper and a Civil Defense pumper—were saved.

Mayor William McClanahan said most of the town's current official records were at his home and older records were saved although damaged.

The fire was discovered by a passerby, but had gained too much headway for the building to be saved. The mayor said the town's police patrolman was off duty because lack of funds prevent full time police protection.

Japs Try To Storm American Embassy

TOKYO (AP)—Denouncing the U.S. decision to resume nuclear tests, 100 left-wing students tried to storm the American Embassy today, but 200 police stopped them 50 yards short of the gate.

One plainclothesman was cut about the face in the brief, fierce battle that left the street littered with banners, shoes and other belongings of the students.

The demonstration was led by Japan's Zengakuren Student Federation, which has vowed to demonstrate at the embassy every day the United States carries on nuclear tests in the central Pacific.

'Dogs' Too Tired

Jaycees 'Walked Out'

Two Salem Jaycees who walked to East Liverpool still were able to manage a smile, but were too tired to stand when greeted by William Webber, president of the East Liverpool Junior Chamber of Commerce, as they arrived at the District 5 Jaycee meeting Tuesday night at the Elks Lodge.

But it wasn't all smiles when they ended their 29-mile march as they were "arrested" by East Liverpool police—through the courtesy of the local Jaycees.

Willard said his feet were covered with blisters after the nine-hour walk. They left Salem yesterday morning at 8 and arrived here at 5:10 p. m. The march was part of a promotion for the observance of National YWCA Week sponsored by the Salem YWCA. The promotion, backed by the Salem Jaycees, is to stimulate persons to walk a mile a day in a physical fitness program.

Lewis is the brother of Robert Lewis, treasurer of the East Liverpool Jaycees.

When they heard of the stunt yesterday morning, local Jaycees made arrangements with the police department to pick up the two at the city limits. They were put in a police cruiser and hauled to City Hall. There they were told they had been arrested at the request of the State Highway Patrol for illegally crossing the highway, disrupting the flow of traffic and halting motorists.

Both men said they were flabbergasted at the turn of events. Lewis said it sounded as if they were going to throw the book at us and "I thought we had had it." They said the authorities wouldn't listen to them when they tried to explain.

Their wives were really surprised also as they were following close behind in a car and their husbands were whisked away before they could say anything.

Eighty attended the district business session. Art Cooksey, president of the Youngstown Jaycees, was elected district vice president to succeed Dave Gregg of Youngstown.

Cooksey also was named winner of the district Speak-Up Jaycee contest and will participate in the state contest in May at Cleveland. Two others participated.

Judges were Keith Langdon, East Liverpool High School speech - arts instructor, Ed Adkins and Harry Stewart.

Elmer Williams of near Cincinnati, state president, was guest speaker. He outlined the aims of the Jaycees and reviewed the year's program.

Dick Croyle of Lorain and Dick Siebold of Mansfield, state vice presidents and candidates for the presidency, gave campaign speeches. The election will be held at the state meeting May 11-13 at Cleveland. The national election will be June 18-21 at Las Vegas. Candidates for other state offices also spoke.

Webber gave the welcome. Guests were introduced by Gregg, who outlined the state program during business. Dave Humphrey of MacDonald, Region 3 director, discussed chapter and community development.

Adkins gave the invocation. Charles Dunlevy was dinner chairman. His committee included Frank Dawson, Russell Brown, Charles Govey and Webber.

H. A. Titsch, vice president in charge of production and storage for Ohio Fuel, said this well has the largest open flow recorded thus far in Ohio and is expected to spur interest in deep drilling in other areas.

Art Figure Airs Abstract Method At Chester Club

A discussion on modern abstract art was presented by Louis Kesling of Weirton at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall auditorium.

Kesling, an employe of the Weirton Steel Co., told of his work as a teacher of creative abstract art at the Weirton workshop and the Swaney Memorial Library at New Cumberland.

He said an art gallery in community rooms at the library is open to the public, and many adults and children have become interested in abstract painting.

He was introduced by Alvin Fineman, program chairman.

Paul Finley, president, announced five members of the club and their wives will attend a Charter Night dinner meeting at Wellsburg Saturday.

Thayer Allison announced William Deel of Weirton, vocational guidance director of Hancock County schools, will speak at the annual dinner meeting May 29 for nine Chester High School honor students.

New Officers Are Named At O.U. Dinner Meeting

Officers were elected and an extensive university development program was outlined when the Tri-State Chapter of the Ohio University Alumni Association held its annual dinner meeting Tuesday night at the East Liverpool Country club.

Robert R. Duffy, sports editor of The Review, was named chapter president, Mrs. John Michels vice president and Mrs. T. Fred Edwards secretary - treasurer.

Byron R. Eells and Blake Boyd were elected by the group as new directors for three-year terms and Mrs. Hazel Mast and Robert Lowther were elected by the board for two-year terms as provided by the chapter by-laws.

Mrs. Dorothy Lynch, retiring president, presided.

Speakers from the campus at Athens were Jack Gilbert, whose elevation to the post of alumni secretary was announced last night; John Milar, assistant treasurer of the university, and Myron Hutcheson, director of university fund activities.

Gilbert, a native of East Liverpool, has been serving as assistant alumni secretary since April and was advanced to his new position when Martin L. Hecht, former secretary, was named assistant to the president of the university in charge of development. Gilbert had been with The Athens Messenger 10 years previous to becoming affiliated with the alumni office.

With an anticipated enrollment of between 15,000 and 20,000 by 1970 or 1972, the speakers emphasized the extensive development program that is in the making to meet the needs of the mounting enrollment.

Milar said a federally - assisted urban renewal development plan is one of the key phases.

Under it, he explained, the university would be able to acquire some 34 additional acres at a minimum cost for continued building. "A more cohesive campus will result if the plan goes through," he said.

As part of a broad research program, the speaker continued, the university hopes to have a hand in attracting satellite industries to the area. "Ohio University must take an active part in the development of southeastern Ohio," he emphasized.

Milar said plans also have been dusted off again for relocating the Hocking River which flows through Athens, with the idea of providing room for multiple-deck parking ramps and other facilities. A nurses' training school and a forestry research center also are on the drawing board for the future.

Discussing the present physical program, Milar pointed out that four dormitories already are under construction on the West Green and eight more are planned. The total cost would be approximately 12 million, with facilities for 3,500 students.

Turning to the university's "intellectual growth", the assistant treasurer said an "honor college" for advanced students was one of the major projects in the not too distant future.

Hutcheson, as fund director, appealed for the support of alumni and "all related areas". "We plan to grow quality - wise as well as in a physical sense," he said.

He listed the following "areas of need" financially: Library improvement, an endowment program, a research program and broader scholarship funds.

Among new ideas being mapped to serve some 56,000 in the early 1970s is a comprehensive high school program.

West Virginia School Board Eyes Budgets

CHARLESTON (AP) — Budgets of institutions and agencies under its control came before the West Virginia Board of Education today for its consideration and approval.

The budgets are for the fiscal year starting July 1. The main ones to be considered were those of Marshall University and eight state colleges.

Amounts available for spending are determined by legislative appropriation, but the details of how the institutions propose to spend the money are subject to board approval.

Yesterday, first day of a two-day meeting, the board discussed a proposal that it endorse federal aid to education, but decided against any action at this time.

State School Supt. Rex M. Smith proposed that the board endorse a bill, now under consideration by a House committee in Washington, for federal financial aid for public elementary and secondary schools. Smith said the measure could mean about $6.3 million for West Virginia in the next fiscal year.

However, the board decided against any action, for the time being at least. Board member Lacy I. Rice of Martinsburg said he would prefer delaying consideration of an endorsement until he had a chance to read the entire bill.

50 Attend Lisbon Men's Program

MAN AND MACHINE

Of all God's creatures only man has the ability to create and use tools.

Beginning with simple tools to supplement his muscle power and enable him to better survive, man has progressed to making the complex tools which permit mass production of goods.

This progress has developed a modern technology — bringing together skills and techniques, machinery and equipment, men, money and methods — to make a better life for us all.

Technology has brought new benefits, for machines have lifted physical toil from man's work, allowing him time to enjoy pleasures earned through his work.

Kiwanis Told Of Program For Retarded

The needs of the program supported by the Columbiana County Council for Retarded Children were outlined by John Billiter of Salem at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the Hotel Wilk.

Billiter also reviewed the classroom procedure at the school at Elkton. He said there are three classes, handling children from all sections of the county. They are transported to the school daily.

The children are taught self reliance, health practices and safety rules.

Columbiana County is presenting a two-tenths mill levy on the primary ballot for support of the program. Matching funds will be received from the state, and if the levy is approved, the council will have a budget of approximately $50,000 a year.

Presently the program is under the supervision of the County Welfare Department but is dependent almost entirely on volunteer work and funds.

The levy would provide a steady income and no further fund drives would be necessary, Billiter commented.

He said the older children can be taught to do certain routine kinds of work and thus provide to a certain extent their own income.

A fourth classroom is needed now and a fifth is expected to be required in the future. If the levy is approved, plans call for the initiation of a workshop for the older children to teach them various skills.

Council Nips Rogers Move By McCreary

ROGERS — A heated discussion of meal concessions for the Community Hall — one of several problems Mayor Robert McCreary sought to air at a special meeting of Council Tuesday night — ended with a unanimous move for adjournment.

The meeting had been called by the mayor to air some 22 community matters, ranging from street and lighting problems to sanitation and administration procedures.

But councilmen said only one matter could be taken up at a special meeting and the discussion focussed on the meal concession.

Mayor McCreary suggested a committee be appointed to arrange for assignment of the concession, which in the past had been rotated among groups in the town. It was reported one church group has consistently held the concession recently.

After considerable discussion, Councilman W. E. Galbreath moved the meeting be adjourned, and this was approved by the seven councilmen.

Friction between the mayor and some councilman has been in evidence for some weeks. McCreary was elected in November. About five townspeople attended.

Council will meet in regular session May 14.

The annual spring concert will be held Friday at 8 p. m. in the Westgate Auditorium under the direction of E. King Mathews.

Next meeting will be held in September and the date will be announced.

Burns Prove Fatal To Canton Man, 32

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Henry C. Bradley, 32, of Canton, died in Mercy Hospital today of burns suffered in an explosion at a vacant two-family dwelling he owned here. The house was destroyed by the explosion and fire which followed it.

Bradley had been working on the house to bring it up to specifications laid down by the Health Department, which had condemned it.

He told police he went to the house shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday night and the explosion occurred when he struck a match. Cause of the blast was not determined.

Next meeting will be held in September and the date will be announced.

At present, with the exception of the Child Counseling Center in East Liverpool, there are no other facilities available in Columbiana County.

The study also reveals that a center, to be set up according to state standards, must have:

A governing body, a complete staff with a psychiatrist, a psychologist, a trained case worker and adequate facilities.

If these conditions are met, the State Mental Health Department will give $2 for each dollar raised locally.

The amount, therefore, that would have to be met locally would be $20,000 which the state would match in the amount of $40,000 and which would enable a guidance center to be established.

"It is with this in mind that the Mental Health Association and myself have appointed a campaign committee, with Judge Louis Tobin as county chairman, to raise the necessary $20,000," Mrs. Thompson said.

The committee includes the Rev. George Sweeney of Columbiana, Bruce Kendall of Salem, William Shoub of Wellsville and Miss Alice Herriott of East Palestine. Atty. Warren Bettis of Salineville is publicity chairman. Chairmen will be appointed from other localities, Mrs. Thompson said.

Information will be given to anyone interested in the needs of such a center and speakers will be available to any group upon request.

The fund drive is set tentatively for Oct. 1-15.

DiSalle, McElroy Carry Campaigns To Cleveland

By The Associated Press

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, rivals for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the May primary election, stopped in Cleveland Tuesday on their speech making trails.

DiSalle offered some views on planning to the Regional Planning Commission at the Cleveland Engineering Society.

As he spoke, pickets marched outside the building in behalf of Mrs. Willie Mae Mallory, a Negro DiSalle has ordered extradited to North Carolina. She is charged with kidnaping a white couple during a racial incident there.

DiSalle stressed in his speech that Ohio must buckle down to some sound planning to prevent future slums, to block ugly "string development," and to look attractive to new industry.

McElroy, speaking at the 32nd Ward Democratic rally at Slovenian Hall, said if elected governor he would establish a program to find out what jobs automation is killing, what jobs to retrain the jobless for and how to get new jobs started.

McElroy moved on today to Sylvania, near Toledo, where he proposed a statewide juvenile delinquency prevention program. He told Sylvania Democratic women that if elected he would strive to effect a plan in which experts would travel the state conducting courses for parents.

The experts would "inform them of what they must do in their role as parents to keep our children from the wayward path."

Two of the candidates in another of the most hotly contested Democratic races, for congressman-at-large, spoke in Delaware and Newark Tuesday night.

In Delaware, Alan F. Reeves of Cleveland said if he goes to Congress he will "be in the forefront of those who will bring budding young political scientists into party activities."

Speaking at the Institute of Practical Politics, Ohio Wesleyan University, Reeves called on dedicated young people to enter politics.

One of Reeves' 10 rivals for nomination, Joseph J. Murphy of Columbus, told the Newark Democratic Club "the Ohio River to Lake Erie canal is vital for the industrial expansion of our state."

Murphy called for the canal's immediate construction.

Hair Spray, Polio Vaccine Listed In Medical Reports

By The Associated Press

Hair Spray Hazard?

A medical study raises suspicions that hair sprays may cause lung diseases in some women, and men who work as hair-dressers.

There is no proof this happens, and thousands of women have used the sprays without any apparent harmful effects, says a team of doctors.

But they tell of 15 women and men who possibly suffered lung damage from breathing in particles of resins used in hair sprays. They found evidence of lung damage either in X rays, in examinations of bits of tissue, and in autopsies of three women.

Polio Vaccine

The new live-virus polio vaccine now is becoming available, but a committee of the American Academy of Pediatrics sees no emergency or urgency to give it to persons who have already had the full series of killed-virus of Salk vaccine shots and boosters.

Most paralytic polio occurs now among persons who didn't get Salk vaccine, it says. The specialists urge more effort to use the Sabin or live-virus vaccine in persons who as yet have had no vaccination. The Sabin vaccine offers several advantages, and "is best used on a community wide basis whenever an epidemic of polio strikes an area."

Extra Teeth

One day you may be able to call on a tooth bank to replace missing teeth.

As an initial step, teeth have been preserved and grown outside the body in research by Dr. Robert Gerstner at the New York University Dental Center. Teeth in early stages of growth can be treated with an anti-freeze, glycerol, and then freeze-stored for years. They grow normally again after quick thawing.

Prom For South Side High To Feature Pair's Crowning

The crowning of a king and queen will highlight the Junior-Senior Prom Friday night at South Side High School near Hookstown.

A post-prom party will follow at the Hookstown Grange Hall, sponsored by the Upper-Four Club.

The prom will be from 9 to midnight and the reigning couple will be crowned at 10. Five judges from the Youngstown area will select six girls and six boys from the Junior Class as finalists and then choose the king and the queen from the two groups.

The prom theme will be "Blue Hawaii" for decorations in the high school auditorium. The Del Sinchak Orchestra from Youngstown will play.

The public may view the grand march, which will be led by class officers, about 9 p. m.

Warm And Sun Continues Over Most Of Nation

By The Associated Press

Warm, sunny weather continued over most of the nation today with cloudy skies limited mainly to a few areas dampened by nighttime showers and thunderstorms.

Cool weather persisted only in the Northeast where readings dipped below freezing from New York State northeastward through Maine. Canadian air flowing into the area touched off snow flurries in Maine Tuesday.

The nation's midsection was under the influence of warm air pushing northward from the Gulf States. Temperatures during the night remained in the 50s and 60s as far north as Eastern Montana, the upper Mississippi Valley and the Southern Great Lakes.

Supreme Court Disbars Lawyer For All Time

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court permanently disbarred Sol C. Copperman of Willoughby today from the practice of law.

The unanimous decision went beyond a recommendation of indefinite suspension by the court's commissioners on grievances and discipline.

The court said it imposed disbarment because of Copperman's "long-continued course" of unprofessional conduct and his previous penalties.

The Lake County Bar Association recommended suspension on seven counts ranging from imposing exorbitant fees to endorsing and cashing checks payable to clients without their consent.

Grievance commissioners found him guilty on five counts as the basis for the recommendation.

Admitted to the bar in 1928, Copperman was disbarred in 1939 by Common Pleas Court in Cuyahoga County and reinstated in 1945. He began practice in Painesville and later established an office in Willoughby.

Lake County Common Pleas Court suspended him for three months in 1949.

It was reported 75 place settings of tableware have been purchased. The attendance banner was won by the second grade.

Mrs. Ruth Steinmetz of the Columbiana County Retarded Children's Council, and a teacher from the retarded school at Elkton, were guest speakers.

Supreme Court Disbars Lawyer For All Time

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court permanently disbarred Sol C. Copperman of Willoughby today from the practice of law.

The unanimous decision went beyond a recommendation of indefinite suspension by the court's commissioners on grievances and discipline.

The court said it imposed disbarment because of Copperman's "long-continued course" of unprofessional conduct and his previous penalties.

The Lake County Bar Association recommended suspension on seven counts ranging from imposing exorbitant fees to endorsing and cashing checks payable to clients without their consent.

Grievance commissioners found him guilty on five counts as the basis for the recommendation.

Admitted to the bar in 1928, Copperman was disbarred in 1939 by Common Pleas Court in Cuyahoga County and reinstated in 1945. He began practice in Painesville and later established an office in Willoughby.

Lake County Common Pleas Court suspended him for three months in 1949.

When you are removing the tops from beets before cooking, always leave an inch or two of the stems. Leave on the root ends, too. Cover the beets with cold water and boil them gently until they are tender when pierced with a fork.

Living Costs Hit New High During March

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs, as measured by the government, rose two-tenths of one per cent in March to a record level.

The Labor Department reported its consumers price index rose to 105.0 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This was 1.1 per cent above the level of March 1961.

The rise was attributed mainly to price advances for clothing, fresh fruits and vegetables, drugs, used cars and house furnishings.

On the other hand, egg prices declined sharply and there was a drop in gasoline prices due to price wars and introduction of lower octane grades.

The living cost increase will mean pay rises for approximately 67,000 workers whose wages are adjusted periodically to the government index.

Expert On Child Care Raps Plans On Atomic Tests

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Benjamin Spock, child care authority, has voiced opposition to the impending U.S. atmospheric nuclear tests.

"If we resume testing the indignationation of the world will shock us," he said Tuesday. "The world expects more from us than the Russians, who are willing to be ruthless. We should have no fear if we have high principles."

He made the remarks in an interview granted to explain why he is a sponsor of the National Committee for Sane Nuclear Policy (Sane) and why he expressed his views on the subject in full-page advertisements reprinted in 61 newspapers. In the recent ad spnsored by Sane he complained about the prospects of endless future tests.

"I'm not pacifist," said the kindly looking professor of child development at Western Reserve University. "We've got to have deterrents. We should be firm and quiet and not noisy with threats.

"President Kennedy says we are ahead, so it is provocative to start testing. We've got enough bombs now to wipe out Russia."

Supreme Court Declines Review In Paper Dispute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court refused today to review a dispute between the Lima News and former employes over severance pay.

The high court action let stand decisions of lower courts awarding Raymond D. Harrold, a 31-year veteran of the News, $6,667 in severance on grounds that he was replaced or locked out May 1, 1957.

Forty similar suits for a total of $122,000 were brought against the News by former employes belonging to the Lima Typographical Union. Eleven other cases are pending in Allen County Common Pleas Court for $33,000 in payments claimed by former employes holding membership in the Stereotypers' and Pressmen's Unions.

Harrol claimed that the News brought in workers to replace himself and other employes but the newspaper alleged he and the other quit or were discharged for just cause.

Midland Easter Seal Proceeds Hit $1,323

Donations in the Midland Easter Seal campaign total $1,323.64, including $647 from Easter Seal letters as of Tuesday, Bill Yee, Midland Rotarian and campaign chairman, reported.

He said $64.16 was received from canisters which were picked up earlier this week from businesses and clubs. Other amounts include $50.50 from the Rotary Club, $240.40 from a house-to-house Easter Lily Sale and $321.58 from an Easter Lily Tag Day.

Yee urged residents to send in their donations for Easter Seals as the Beaver County Society for Crippled Children has extended the campaign this week. The society reported it is short of its $28,000 goal since only 10,000 replies have been received from 53,000 letters.

More Profits Are Needed, Blough Says

NEW YORK (AP) -- Roger M. Blough says U.S. Steel Corp. will "have to do everything we can" —short of an early increase in prices—to bolster earnings.

"The economic situation that we had before we attempted to change our prices remains with us," he said in appraising future prospects of the nation's third largest industrial corporation.

Blough, U.S. Steel chairman, referred to the surprise $6 a ton boost announced April 10 and then withdrawn 72 hours later in the face of an angry response by President Kennedy.

He met with newsmen Tuesday after "Big Steel" disclosed January-March profits were $55.8 million. He said the figure left nothing for plant improvement after keeping abreast of dividend obligations to stockholders and debt repayment requirements.

In defending the abortive price boost, Blough had said it was needed to gather funds for upgrading and expanding plants to stay competitive with rival materials at home and steelmakers abroad.

The industrialist, answering the questions with customary caution, mentioned no specific steps for overcoming the corporation's cost-price squeeze, speaking only of an intense effort to hold down costs.

He indicated the government could help out by liberalizing regulations on depreciation, a factor in profits.

He ruled out repetition of the price move two weeks ago when asked whether there would be prior consultation with the White House in any such project.

"First, let me say that I have no contemplation on the part of United States Steel at the moment with respect to any major change in the level of our prices," he replied.

Queried about the possibility of increases on selected steel products, as distinguished from an across-the-board hike, Blough said "I didn't intend to convey any impression whatsoever with respect to that. I would say that is a matter which would have to be taken up in the future."

Accompanying the earnings report was declaration of a 75 cents a share dividend on common stock, the same payment directors have voted each quarter since the start of 1957.

Blough declined any forecast on what directors may decide in the future on the dividend rate.

Liz Taylor Has Hospital Care; Quarrel Hinted

ROME (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor, the troubled Cleopatra, was treated Tuesday night at a Rome hospital after an Easter seaside idyll with Richard Burton that reportedly ended in a violent quarrel.

Attendants at Salvator Mundi Hospital said the 30-year-old film queen had come there for treatment and had returned home several hours later. They said her condition was not serious but wouldn't say what was wrong.

A secretary at Miss Taylor's villa said she went to the hospital for a personal matter. He said she did not have food poisoning, for which she had been treated at the same hospital two months ago.

The secretary also denied a report by an Italian news agency that Miss Taylor had stopped to see a doctor in Orbetello after she left Burton at Porto Santo Stefano and drove back to Rome alone Monday night.

The secretary said Miss Taylor was perfectly well today.

Rome newspapers reported that Miss Taylor stormed out of Porto Santo Stefano and raced back to Rome after a violent quarrel with Burton, her leading man in "Cleopatra" and her constant companion since the announcement that she would divorce singer Eddie Fisher.

Burton returned to Rome alone Tuesday.

Living Costs Hit New High During March

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs, as measured by the government, rose two-tenths of one per cent in March to a record level.

The Labor Department reported its consumers price index rose to 105.0 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This was 1.1 per cent above the level of March 1961.

The rise was attributed mainly to price advances for clothing, fresh fruits and vegetables, drugs, used cars and house furnishings.

On the other hand, egg prices declined sharply and there was a drop in gasoline prices due to price wars and introduction of lower octane grades.

The living cost increase will mean pay rises for approximately 67,000 workers whose wages are adjusted periodically to the government index.

Expert On Child Care Raps Plans On Atomic Tests

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Benjamin Spock, child care authority, has voiced opposition to the impending U.S. atmospheric nuclear tests.

"If we resume testing the indignationation of the world will shock us," he said Tuesday. "The world expects more from us than the Russians, who are willing to be ruthless. We should have no fear if we have high principles."

He made the remarks in an interview granted to explain why he is a sponsor of the National Committee for Sane Nuclear Policy (Sane) and why he expressed his views on the subject in full-page advertisements reprinted in 61 newspapers. In the recent ad spnsored by Sane he complained about the prospects of endless future tests.

"I'm not pacifist," said the kindly looking professor of child development at Western Reserve University. "We've got to have deterrents. We should be firm and quiet and not noisy with threats.

"President Kennedy says we are ahead, so it is provocative to start testing. We've got enough bombs now to wipe out Russia."

Supreme Court Declines Review In Paper Dispute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court refused today to review a dispute between the Lima News and former employes over severance pay.

The high court action let stand decisions of lower courts awarding Raymond D. Harrold, a 31-year veteran of the News, $6,667 in severance on grounds that he was replaced or locked out May 1, 1957.

Forty similar suits for a total of $122,000 were brought against the News by former employes belonging to the Lima Typographical Union. Eleven other cases are pending in Allen County Common Pleas Court for $33,000 in payments claimed by former employes holding membership in the Stereotypers' and Pressmen's Unions.

Harrol claimed that the News brought in workers to replace himself and other employes but the newspaper alleged he and the other quit or were discharged for just cause.

Farm Income Expected To Equal 1961

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says developments are bearing out its forecast that farm income this year will be about the same as last year.

The estimated of farmers' net income — the amount left after paying production costs—is $12.7 billion, the figures reported for 1961.

A department report emphasized that this income prospect assumes average growing conditions a strong level of domestic demand for farm products, and large export movement of those products.

The report predicted that farmers will take in between $550 and $600 million more than last year in receipts from sale of products and increased government payments. But increased farm production costs are expeced to even out the gain.

The department expects larger receipts from soybeans, tobacco, beef cattle and cotton. Returns from dairymen will be down, largely as a reflection of a recent reduction in dairy price supports. Little change was foreseen in returns from poultry, fruits and vegetables.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says 30,579,000 pounds of dairy products have been authorized for importation during the year ending June 30.

Included were 27,565,000 pounds of cheese, 702,240 pounds of butter, and 1,311,900 pounds of various kinds of dried milk.

WASHINGTON (AP)—If a national potato marketing order is issued to help stabilize grower prices and supplies, it may have to wait until 1963 to be applied.

Hearings on such an order have been recessed for perhaps a 60-day period. Agriculture Department officials said it is unlikely a grower referendum could be held before fall, which would be too late for this year's crop.

Women Given City Positions

Two women were appointed to part-time city posts Tuesday by Safety-Service Robert Owen.

Mrs. Gatha Bekar of Center St., Beechwood, was named a school crossing guard and assigned to duty at the intersection of Orchard Grove Ave. and Anderson Blvd.—a post established in legislation enacted at a special Council session Monday night.

Mrs. Pauline Nelson, 157 Thompson Ave., was appointed an alternate "Meter Maid," to work when one of the regulars is off duty.

Mrs. Nelson fills the vacancy created about a week ago when Mrs. Letha Kelly was promoted from an alternate to a regular on the "Meter Maid" force. Mrs. Kelly filled the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Joan Cartwright. Mrs. Nelson was one of the original "Meter Maids" when the system was inaugurated in mid-1957.

Mrs. Bekar went to work as a crossing guard yesterday morning. The ordinance limits her and the other 10 adult guards to a maximum of 15 hours weekly at $1 an hour.

The crossing was without a guard Monday when children returned to classes after the Easter vacation, so Councilman Edward Massey filled in as a volunteer.

Following the day's duty, Massey commented to Owen that from what he observed a guard is vitally necessary for the intersection. The councilman told the director he was "surprised at the number of children who use the crossing and at the lack of courtesy on the part of some of the motorists."

Councilman Kenneth Berg urged the appointment of the additional guard. He said traffic through the Anderson Blvd-Orchard Grove Ave. intersection has increased greatly because many motorists bypass the rough pavement of outer St. Clair Ave.

Churchmen Hold Installation Rite

Others inducted were Ralph Wolfe, vice president; Fred Hood, secretary, and Harry Lewis, treasurer. The Rev. C. Donald Vogel of the First United Presbyterian Church was in charge of the candlelight ceremony.

The group set June 20 for the annual church family picnic at Thompson Park. Plans were discussed for painting the newly-remodeled basement in the near future.

Refreshments were served 23 by J. J. Berry, Harvey Werkheiser and Jonathan Allison. Next meeting is May 22.

Robs Supermarket

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—An estimated $5,000 was stolen from the safe of Schaefer's Supermarket Tuesday night. Assistant manager William Decker, bound with tape when police arrived, said a man with a pistol accosted him as he was locking up and made him go back in and open the safe.

The del, a long coat of wool or silk, is still worn in Outer Mongolia.

The Presbytery also approved three other ministerial calls.

The Rev. Edward W. Sensenbrenner of the Columbus Presbytery, will serve the Island Creek Presbyterian Church of Toronto R. D. and the Pleasant Hills Presbyterian Church at Steubenville, R. D. He will be installed July 8. He succeeds the Rev. Norman Riedsel, who now is pastor of a charge in Michigan.

Harry Holfelder of the Beaver-Butler Presbytery, who will graduate from the seminary in May, will be pastor of the Carrollton and Scroggsfield United Presbyterian Churches, where he has been serving as a student pastor for about two years. He will be installed June 1.

The Presbytery approved the creation of the Revelation Larger Parish, which will be comprised of seven congregations — the Carrollton, Scroggsfield and Bethlehem Presbyterian Churches at Malvern, Corinth church, the Waynesburg Presbyterian, Deilroy Presbyterian, and the Glade Run Presbyterian Churches at Augusta.

The Rev. Leroy Antram, now pastor of the Corinth and Bethlehem churches, will serve as director of the parish and Mr. Holfelder will be assistant.

The Rev. Robert Thompson of Bloomingdale, moderator, presided.

Next meeting is June 26 at 9:30 a. m. at the Bethel United Presbyterian Church near Highlandtown.

Midland Easter Seal Proceeds Hit $1,323

Donations in the Midland Easter Seal campaign total $1,323.64, including $647 from Easter Seal letters as of Tuesday, Bill Yee, Midland Rotarian and campaign chairman, reported.

He said $64.16 was received from canisters which were picked up earlier this week from businesses and clubs. Other amounts include $50.50 from the Rotary Club, $240.40 from a house-to-house Easter Lily Sale and $321.58 from an Easter Lily Tag Day.

Yee urged residents to send in their donations for Easter Seals as the Beaver County Society for Crippled Children has extended the campaign this week. The society reported it is short of its $28,000 goal since only 10,000 replies have been received from 53,000 letters.

More Profits Are Needed, Blough Says

NEW YORK (AP) — Roger M. Blough says U.S. Steel Corp. will "have to do everything we can" —short of an early increase in prices—to bolster earnings.

"The economic situation that we had before we attempted to change our prices remains with us," he said in appraising future prospects of the nation's third largest industrial corporation.

Blough, U.S. Steel chairman, referred to the surprise $6 a ton boost announced April 10 and then withdrawn 72 hours later in the face of an angry response by President Kennedy.

He met with newsmen Tuesday after "Big Steel" disclosed January-March profits were $55.8 million. He said the figure left nothing for plant improvement after keeping abreast of dividend obligations to stockholders and debt repayment requirements.

In defending the abortive price boost, Blough had said it was needed to gather funds for upgrading and expanding plants to stay competitive with rival materials at home and steelmakers abroad.

The industrialist, answering the questions with customary caution, mentioned no specific steps for overcoming the corporation's cost-price squeeze, speaking only of an intense effort to hold down costs.

He indicated the government could help out by liberalizing regulations on depreciation, a factor in profits.

He ruled out repetition of the price move two weeks ago when asked whether there would be prior consultation with the White House in any such project.

"First, let me say that I have no contemplation on the part of United States Steel at the moment with respect to any major change in the level of our prices," he replied.

Queried about the possibility of increases on selected steel products, as distinguished from an across-the-board hike, Blough said "I didn't intend to convey any impression whatsoever with respect to that. I would say that is a matter which would have to be taken up in the future."

Accompanying the earnings report was declaration of a 75 cents a share dividend on common stock, the same payment directors have voted each quarter since the start of 1957.

Blough declined any forecast on what directors may decide in the future on the dividend rate.

Allan G. Chamberlin of Leetonia R. D. 2, president, will preside. Refreshments will be served.

Liz Taylor Has Hospital Care; Quarrel Hinted

ROME (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor, the troubled Cleopatra, was treated Tuesday night at a Rome hospital after an Easter seaside idyll with Richard Burton that reportedly ended in a violent quarrel.

Attendants at Salvator Mundi Hospital said the 30-year-old film queen had come there for treatment and had returned home several hours later. They said her condition was not serious but wouldn't say what was wrong.

A secretary at Miss Taylor's villa said she went to the hospital for a personal matter. He said she did not have food poisoning, for which she had been treated at the same hospital two months ago.

The secretary also denied a report by an Italian news agency that Miss Taylor had stopped to see a doctor in Orbetello after she left Burton at Porto Santo Stefano and drove back to Rome alone Monday night.

The secretary said Miss Taylor was perfectly well today.

Rome newspapers reported that Miss Taylor stormed out of Porto Santo Stefano and raced back to Rome after a violent quarrel with Burton, her leading man in "Cleopatra" and her constant companion since the announcement that she would divorce singer Eddie Fisher.

Burton returned to Rome alone Tuesday.

New State Office Center Planned In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Barron announced Tuesday that the West Virginia Office Building Commission has been authorized to proceed with plans for purchasing property for a new state office building.

The structure will relieve overcrowded conditions at the capitol, which Barron said had forced "many departments to locate a large number of their divisions throughout the city".

The new structure will be in the area adjacent to the capitol and similar to Building No. 3, which houses the Department of Motor Vehicles, State Road Commission, Department of Natural Resources, State Health Department and smaller agencies.

The state now pays about $180,000 in rent annually for departments unable to find quarters in state property.

Barron made the announcement at a news conference during which he also said the State Centennial Commission "needs some firing up" and he intends to supply the fuel.

He plans attending the next commission meeting in Parkersburg May 25.

"I just think the Centennial Commission needs more vigor," Barron explained. "Time is running out and we can't sit around and re-hash things of the past. . .It's time to insert some enthusiasm and get it off the ground."

Barron said he felt the commission is spending too much time on matters that could be settled more quickly.

Barron also announced at the conference that a plant to manufacture ground support equipment for the nation's missile and space program will be built at Charles Town by Wells Industries, Inc., of North Hollywood, Calif.

The facilities will employ from 25 to 50 persons at the start and is expected to have from 100 to 150 on the payroll eventually.

Barron said that Democratic Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey was in "for a hard battle" for the new 1st District seat with Republican Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. and "we feel he (Bailey) should have all the support he can muster".

Bailey and Moore were put in the same district after West Virginia lost one of six seats in the House because of a population drop.

County Health League Will Hear Akron Aide

200 More Jobs Expected In New Radar Project

CLEVELAND (AP)—A new $1.2 million radar installation is expected to provide 200 more jobs over the next two years at the Cleveland air route traffic control center on Ohio 10.

Greater safety in handling air traffic should result from the set-up that was demonstrated Tuesday. It is the fourth of its kind in the nation and the first in this part of the country.

The equipment will make it possible for controllers to tell the difference between jet liners, slower propeller airplanes, small private aircraft and helicopters.

The center, one of 26 built by the Federal Aviation Agency throughout the country, is 25 miles west of Cleveland Hopkins Airport. It controls all air traffic in a 41,275-square mile area extending roughly from 25 miles west of Syracuse, N.Y., west to 35 miles east of Goshen, Ind., north to the Canadian border and south of Mansfield, Ohio.

Present employment at the center includes 300 controllers and 35 maintenance specialists. Officials said 200 or more would be needed over the next two years.

Farm Income Expected To Equal 1961

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says developments are bearing out its forecast that farm income this year will be about the same as last year.

A department report emphasized that this income prospect assumes average growing conditions a strong level of domestic demand for farm products, and large export movement of those products.

The report predicted that farmers will take in between $550 and $600 million more than last year in receipts from sale of products and increased government payments. But increased farm production costs are expeced to even out the gain.

The department expects larger receipts from soybeans, tobacco, beef cattle and cotton. Returns from dairymen will be down, largely as a reflection of a recent reduction in dairy price supports. Little change was foreseen in returns from poultry, fruits and vegetables.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says 30,579,000 pounds of dairy products have been authorized for importation during the year ending June 30.

Included were 27,565,000 pounds of cheese, 702,240 pounds of butter, and 1,311,900 pounds of various kinds of dried milk.

WASHINGTON (AP)—If a national potato marketing order is issued to help stabilize grower prices and supplies, it may have to wait until 1963 to be applied.

Hearings on such an order have been recessed for perhaps a 60-day period. Agriculture Department officials said it is unlikely a grower referendum could be held before fall, which would be too late for this year's crop.

Women Given City Positions

Two women were appointed to part-time city posts Tuesday by Safety-Service Robert Owen.

Mrs. Gatha Bekar of Center St., Beechwood, was named a school crossing guard and assigned to duty at the intersection of Orchard Grove Ave. and Anderson Blvd.—a post established in legislation enacted at a special Council session Monday night.

Mrs. Pauline Nelson, 157 Thompson Ave., was appointed an alternate "Meter Maid," to work when one of the regulars is off duty.

Mrs. Nelson fills the vacancy created about a week ago when Mrs. Letha Kelly was promoted from an alternate to a regular on the "Meter Maid" force. Mrs. Kelly filled the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Joan Cartwright. Mrs. Nelson was one of the original "Meter Maids" when the system was inaugurated in mid-1957.

Mrs. Bekar went to work as a crossing guard yesterday morning. The ordinance limits her and the other 10 adult guards to a maximum of 15 hours weekly at $1 an hour.

The crossing was without a guard Monday when children returned to classes after the Easter vacation, so Councilman Edward Massey filled in as a volunteer.

Following the day's duty, Massey commented to Owen that from what he observed a guard is vitally necessary for the intersection. The councilman told the director he was "surprised at the number of children who use the crossing and at the lack of courtesy on the part of some of the motorists."

Councilman Kenneth Berg urged the appointment of the additional guard. He said traffic through the Anderson Blvd-Orchard Grove Ave. intersection has increased greatly because many motorists bypass the rough pavement of outer St. Clair Ave.

Churchmen Hold Installation Rite

Others inducted were Ralph Wolfe, vice president; Fred Hood, secretary, and Harry Lewis, treasurer. The Rev. C. Donald Vogel of the First United Presbyterian Church was in charge of the candlelight ceremony.

The group set June 20 for the annual church family picnic at Thompson Park. Plans were discussed for painting the newly-remodeled basement in the near future.

Refreshments were served 23 by J. J. Berry, Harvey Werkheiser and Jonathan Allison. Next meeting is May 22.

Robs Supermarket

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—An estimated $5,000 was stolen from the safe of Schaefer's Supermarket Tuesday night. Assistant manager William Decker, bound with tape when police arrived, said a man with a pistol accosted him as he was locking up and made him go back in and open the safe.

The del, a long coat of wool or silk, is still worn in Outer Mongolia.

New State Office Center Planned In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Gov. Barron announced Tuesday that the West Virginia Office Building Commission has been authorized to proceed with plans for purchasing property for a new state office building.

The structure will relieve overcrowded conditions at the capitol, which Barron said had forced "many departments to locate a large number of their divisions throughout the city".

The new structure will be in the area adjacent to the capitol and similar to Building No. 3, which houses the Department of Motor Vehicles, State Road Commission, Department of Natural Resources, State Health Department and smaller agencies.

The state now pays about $180,000 in rent annually for departments unable to find quarters in state property.

Barron made the announcement at a news conference during which he also said the State Centennial Commission "needs some firing up" and he intends to supply the fuel.

He plans attending the next commission meeting in Parkersburg May 25.

"I just think the Centennial Commission needs more vigor," Barron explained. "Time is running out and we can't sit around and re-hash things of the past. . .It's time to insert some enthusiasm and get it off the ground."

Barron said he felt the commission is spending too much time on matters that could be settled more quickly.

Barron also announced at the conference that a plant to manufacture ground support equipment for the nation's missile and space program will be built at Charles Town by Wells Industries, Inc., of North Hollywood, Calif.

The facilities will employ from 25 to 50 persons at the start and is expected to have from 100 to 150 on the payroll eventually.

Barron said that Democratic Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey was in "for a hard battle" for the new 1st District seat with Republican Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. and "we feel he (Bailey) should have all the support he can muster".

Bailey and Moore were put in the same district after West Virginia lost one of six seats in the House because of a population drop.

County Health League Will Hear Akron Aide

LISBON — Dr. John Morley, Akron health commissioner, will be guest speaker for the annual dinner meeting of the Columbiana County Public Health League at 8 p. m. May 14 at the Wick Hotel.

Miss Lillian Schroeder, executive director, said the event will afford interested residents the opportunity to hear committee reports and participate in plans for the coming year.

200 More Jobs Expected In New Radar Project

CLEVELAND (AP)—A new $1.2 million radar installation is expected to provide 200 more jobs over the next two years at the Cleveland air route traffic control center on Ohio 10.

Greater safety in handling air traffic should result from the set-up that was demonstrated Tuesday. It is the fourth of its kind in the nation and the first in this part of the country.

The equipment will make it possible for controllers to tell the difference between jet liners, slower propeller airplanes, small private aircraft and helicopters.

The center, one of 26 built by the Federal Aviation Agency throughout the country, is 25 miles west of Cleveland Hopkins Airport. It controls all air traffic in a 41,275-square mile area extending roughly from 25 miles west of Syracuse, N.Y., west to 35 miles east of Goshen, Ind., north to the Canadian border and south of Mansfield, Ohio.

Present employment at the center includes 300 controllers and 35 maintenance specialists. Officials said 200 or more would be needed over the next two years.

The lowest surveyed level in Meramec Caverns, Stanton, Mo., is 4,200 feet.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Mother Must Curb Creeping Poundage

"I couldn't convince myself I was actually getting fat—" a young mother who is now making slimming progress lamented.

Ida Jean Kain

Many of you will be aware that this is not an impossibility. Fat is insidious, it sneaks on so slowly as to lull you into complacency. To continue her story:

"All through high school I weighed 120 pounds, perfect weight. After marrying and having children, my weight slowly crept up, and the pounds clung.

"Three years ago when the scales hit 160 pounds I started to reduce, and then I became pregnant with my third child. After the baby arrived I had surgery for gall bladder and lost weight. But before the fourth baby was on the way, I had regained. Imagine someone 5 feet 2 weighing 195 pounds!

WHEN THE baby was born my weight dropped to 164¼ pounds. I wanted to start on a good diet but candy, cookies and cake were much too hard to give up.

"This letter is written for one purpose, to urge other overweights to put themselves in the hands of a good doctor and reduce. High blood pressure sent me to the doctor and he told me that losing weight was the only answer. He prescribed pills, one to be taken each day.

"The first month I lost 7 pounds which encouraged me to curb calories, so that by the second month I had lost 11 pounds more. I have lost a total of 29 pounds in nine months. I do not take pills regularly — only when I start to crave chocolate candy, pies and cakes.

"I have found out that it takes will power too! With 13 pounds to go, I now need encouragement more than ever. I read your morale boosting column every day and I wish you would print how crushing it is to have people tell you how terrible you look as soon as you start losing.

"The most wonderful encouragement was given me by my brother who had not seen me for a year. He couldn't believe his eyes. He called me 'Slim' and meant it. My husband is really pleased, and that helps. And it's wonderful to have your children say, 'Mom you look so pretty now!'

"When I get down to 122 pounds, that's where I'm staying! My real friends tell me they won't let me start to gain again! I'm so grateful to my doctor, my friends and to you."

THANK YOU so very much for sharing! Your story may help others who are getting fat. It's easier to gloss over a weight gain than it is to face up to it, for this sharpens up the problem and forces you to act.

Ham Balls In Rice Ring Attractive, Tasty

Are you looking for an attractive appetizing way to use baked ham leftovers?

If not, perhaps there is a can of luncheon meat on your supply shelf. You could just serve these ham balls over cooked rice or noodles, but for just a little more effort, you can mold your rice in a ring mold and combine your hamballs with mushroom crowns and have an eye appealing dish.

For garnishing with watercress or parsley, why not take just a bit of time to make bouquets? To make the carrot rings, you will need fairly large carrots. Peel and slice the carrots, then cut the center out of each slice. Just push a few sprigs of short cut watercress or parsley through the hole. They will stand up pert and pretty and the color scheme looks like springtime.

2 cups ground cooked ham, about 12 oz.
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 egg, beaten
½ cup milk
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
1 can (6 oz.) broiled mushroom crowns
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons vinegar
¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup water

Put enough cooked ham or luncheon meat through food chopper to make 2 cups. Add bread crumbs, egg, milk, mustard and Worchestershire sauce to ham. Mix together thoroughly and shape into 16 small balls.

Place ham balls in shallow baking pan and brush lightly with bouquet. Bake in pre-heated 350 degree oven until lightly browned, about 30 minutes. Meanwhile, combine in small saucepan mushrooms, including broth, cornstarch, vinegar, sugar, salt and water. Bring to boil over moderate heat, stirring constantly.

Pour sauce and mushrooms over ham balls and continue baking for 15 minutes. Serve in rice ring, or over hot cooked noodles, garnished with tiny watercress bouquets.

Bringing Up A Family

Memorizing Won't Assure Spelling

"My daughter, in the sixth grade, can memorize spelling words but is a very poor speller otherwise," writes a mother from New Mexico. Lots of children have this trouble. There's nothing surprising about it. Such necessary mechanical memorizing, as of the spelling of a number of words, easily fades. Being able to spell a word several hours after its spelling was memorized doesn't guarantee that it will be remembered later. Its spelling just had not been repeated often enough or over a long period to make it stick. So when it is used in writing it may be spelled wrong, especially since the child's attention is strongly centered on what he is trying to say on paper.

THIS IS NO ARGUMENT for his not having memorized its spelling in the first place. But it is not enough just to learn the spelling of a word so it can be spelled correctly right away or several hours later. It must be learned over and then practiced again and again later.

You can help your child in this direction if you will induce him to keep the lists of words he has learned to spell over a period of several weeks or months and have him see how well he can spell them all at various intervals, and then have him relearn the few which give him trouble.

You can help him more, perhaps, as he sets out to learn to spell each assignment of a list of words in the first place.

SUPPOSE HE MUST learn tonight to spell a list of 10 words. The chances are he will want you to try him out by pronouncing them for him before he has mastered all of them perfectly.

Encourage him not even to try himself out on a single word till he is sure he can spell it, and always to look back at its correct spelling when he has the slightest doubt.

Furthermore, when he writes homework, be ready to spell any word he asks you to spell. Strive to cultivate in him a strong spelling conscience.

My bulletin "Home Helps for Poor Spellers" may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Missile Wanders Off Its Course And Is Destroyed

The solid-fuel rocket shot into a clear sky and continued rising straight up instead of pitching on its intended course to the southeast.

About 30 seconds after liftoff, the safety officer deliberately blew the rocket. Flaming hunks of the broken rocket showered into the Atlantic just offshore, providing a spectacular show for hundreds of persons on nearby beaches.

The failure ended a string of 13 straight successes for the Pershing, which is scheduled to become operational late this year, with initial development in Western Europe.

Social Advantage Grows

Double-Talk Skill Tested

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It's time we had another brush-up drill on double talk, the modern art of saying one thing while you're thinking another.

Double-talk has one great social advantage: it enables you to use your mouth and your brain at the same time—but without getting yourself into trouble.

Only the very young or the very old ordinarily have either the ignorance or courage to say at all times exactly what they mean. The rest of us must temper our conversational valor with a little judicious fudge. We rarely utter what our minds mutter.

For those wishing to polish up their skill in double-talk, here are a few typical examples—followed by their literal meanings:

"Mother says she never worries about me when I'm out with you, John." Mother would rather have me bored to death than thrilled to pieces.

"There's no doubt of it—that boy of yours really has a head on him." Too bad he doesn't have another one just like it; then he could at least count on steady work with a carnival.

"Don't tell me you made that pretty dress all by yourself!" I'd swear nobody could turn out anything that awful with only 10 thumbs.

"It must have been a terrible blow to you when your dear aunt died." Particularly when you read the will, and found out the old girl left her money to her other niece.

"How did a child her age ever learn to play the piano like that?" With a hammer, or by wearing roller skates on her hands?

"No, Jim, I could never bring myself to marry a man just for his money." Not for the kind you make anyway.

"I'm not very hungry, Bob. I think I'll just have a club sandwich." I'm starved, but if I order the steak the cheapskate is likely to faint.

"Frankly, I've always regarded her as one of my dearest friends." She doesn't like me either.

"Why, Mabel, darling, your hair looks so lovely. Whatever did you do to it?" Pour molasses over it, and run it through a clothes dryer?

"No, let's be sure to keep in touch with each other." Don't call me—and I won't call you.

Koufax Equals Strikeout Mark With 18 At Chicago

Cline Swings Big Bat In Cleveland's 3-2 Victory At LA

Pirates Top Giants, 7-3; Cards Lose

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

One of these days Sandy Koufax will strike out 20 batters in a nine-inning game and people may recognize that the Los Angeles Dodgers southpaw is the greatest strikeout pitcher of modern times.

For the second time in his comparatively brief major league career, Koufax equalled the major league strikeout mark when he fanned 18 Chicago players Tuesday as the Dodgers routed the Cubs 10-2.

That gave the 26-year-old Brooklyn native a career total of 992 strikeouts in 980 innings, an average of better than one strikeout per inning.

No other pitcher in the history of baseball averaged a strikeout an inning. Not even Walter Johnson, the all-time whiff king of the majors, or such other strikeout artists as Bobby Feller, Rube Waddell, Lefty Grove and Christy Mathewson did it.

Pittsburgh won its 11th game in 12 starts, defeating San Francisco 7-3, the same score by which Cincinnati downed the New York Mets. Milwaukee defeated Philadelphia 2-1 and Houston shaded St. Louis 4-3.

Tommy Davis and Duke Snider drove in seven runs between them as the Dodgers clubbed loser Don Cardwell and three relief pitchers for 12 hits. Davis drove in four runs with a home run and single, Snider batted in three with a home run and triple.

Koufax, fanning eight of the first nine batters he faced, finished with a flourish, striking out the side in the ninth for his third victory in four decisions.

Sandy's 18 strikeouts matched the record set by Cleveland's Bob Feller against Detroit on Oct. 2, 1936 and later equalled by Koufax against San Francisco on Aug. 31, 1959. This is a National League daytime strikeout record since Koufax' 1959 effort was achieved at night. Feller accomplished his feat in an afternoon game.

The league-leading Pirates put five of their seven hits together for a five-run fourth inning against loser Juan Marichal as Al McBean registered his second triumph. He needed ninth-inning help from Elroy Face. Catcher Don Leppert homered for the Bucs.

The Reds scored four runs in the first against New York starter Craig Anderson and went on to inflict the 10th defeat on the Mets, who have won only one game. Cincinnati rookie Sam Ellis allowed only one hit but was replaced by Moe Drabowsky in the sixth after walking his 10th and 11th batters. Wally Post hit two doubles and a home run, Vada Pinson also homered and Eddie Kasko had three hits for the Reds.

Warren Spahn scattered nine Philadelphia hits and doubled home the Braves' first run. Eddie Mathews' fifth home run accounted for what proved to be the winning run. Three straight hits after two out in the ninth ruined Spahn's bid for his 56th lifetime shutout but he tossed out the final Philly batter himself to preserve his second victory of the season and 311th of his major league career.

Southpaw Hal Woodeshick pitched a six-hitter for Houston against St. Louis and ex-Cardinal outfielder Don Taussig homered in the sixth, off loser Larry Jackson, for the clincher.

Allen Takes Throw At 2nd

BERNIE ALLEN NO. 12, East Liverpool's bonus baby playing second base for the Minnesota Twins, is shown taking a throw at second base which forced Baltimore's Jerry Adair who is beginning his slide in the seventh inning of Tuesday night's game at Baltimore. The umpire is Larry Napp. The Twins were beaten, 5-4, Allen tripled, singled and drove in one run in last night's game. (UPI Telephoto)

Orioles' 4 In 9th Edge Minnesota

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ty Cline, Cleveland's 22-year-old rookie center fielder, has shaken his slump and lifted the pressure imposed by a can't miss label and a tendency in the teepee to spell that last name C-o-b-b.

Using Chavez Ravine as the site for his war dance, Cline crashed three extra-base hits in a 3-2 victory over the Los Angeles Angels Tuesday night that kept the Indians in first place in the American League with their sixth consecutive victory.

The much-publicized speed merchant scored the Indians' first run after doubling, drove in the second with another two-base blow, then rapped a triple in the seventh inning to knock in pitcher Ron Taylor with the winning run.

It was quite a one-man show for the left-handed swinging Cline, trying to live up to a host of press clippings after only two seasons in organized ball. His credentials include a .311 batting average at Mobile in 1960 and a .290 mark at Salt Lake City last season.

Cline now has five hits—all for extra bases—in his last 11 trips to the plate after failing to hit in his first dozen appearances.

Baltimore stretched its winning streak to four with a 5-4 victory over Minnesota, Detroit blanked Kansas City 1-0 behind Don Mossi's four-hitter, the Chicago White Sox whipped the New York Yankees 3-1 and Boston bopped Washington 4-1.

Taylor (1-1), pitching for the first time since he lost his debut after hurling 11 shutout innings, gave up only three hits before yielding to reliever Frank Funk in the seventh. Leon Wagner accounted for the Angels' runs with a two-run homer in the sixth.

Boog Powell's bases-loaded single with two out in the ninth drove in two runs and capped a four-run rally that gave the Orioles and Milt Pappas (2-0) their win over the Twins after Jack Kralick had checked Baltimore on one run and four hits for eight innings. Joe Bonikowski (1-1), working in relief of Kralick, took the loss. It was Pappas' first route-going performance since a March 12 appendectomy. He allowed eight hits.

Mossi (2-1) beat rookie Dan Pfister, making his first major league start for the A's, in a stirring pitchers' duel. Going into the eighth Pfister had the Tigers blanked on one hit, but Jake Wood's double and a single by Rocky Colavito brought in the only run of the game. Pfister (0-1) wound up with a three-hitter.

Floyd Robinson's two-run homer in the eighth inning off Ralph Terry (3-1) got the job done for the White Sox after Joe Cunningham's single had driven in the tying run against the Yankees. The victory went to John Buzhardt (2-1), who gave up a homer to John Blanchard in the second and needed relief help from Frank Baumann and Turk Lown to wrap it up.

Pete Runnels, who hit only three homers last year, hit a pair with the bases empty to support Galen Cisco's four-hit pitching for the Red Sox, Runnels' shot in the eighth inning off Joe McClain (0-2) snapped a 1-1 tie and gave Cisco (2-0) the run he needed to send the Senators to their seventh consecutive defeat.

Will Quit If Not Traded, Taylor Says

WOODRUFF, S.C. (AP)—"My family means more to me than baseball," says the Chicago Cubs' suspended catcher, Sammy Taylor.

After returning to his home Tuesday, Taylor said he will quit baseball if he is not traded.

Earlier Cub Vice President John Holland said in Chicago that Taylor was suspended for failing to show up for Tuesday's game with the Los Angeles Dodger.

Taylor said he was not making enough money to keep up two homes, in Chicago, and in Woodruff, where his wife prefers to live with their daughter, 4.

Parents Urging Injured English Driver To Quit

LONDON (AP)—The parents of badly injured racing driver Stirling Moss said today they want him to quit the sport that has made his name a legend.

"You can't go on seeing your son have accidents without wanting him to give up," said Alfred Moss, the driver's father, who has been with him constantly since Monday's crackup at the Goodwood track.

"Stirling knows that I have felt like this for a long time."

Their son is unconscious in a South London hospital which specializes in brain surgery.

Moss suffered serious head injuries in a 100 miles per hour smash at an Easter Monday race meeting watched by 100,000 fans. Early morning bulletin on his condition said he had maintained his "slight improvement" of Tuesday throughout the night.

Ellis Allows One Hit But Walks 11

Ellis defeated Stengel's New York Mets 7-3 Tuesday night by allowing them only one hit but giving up 11 walks. The 21-year-old youngster, whose only professional experience prior to this year was a season of Class B baseball, was yanked, dead tired but still game, after five full innings and 120 pitches.

Stengel, who sometimes talks about a player without using his name, had this to say about Ellis:

"That first pitcher was very interesting. He walks how many? Eleven? His knuckleball was better than his fast one."

Ellis, who claims to have the only knuckleball curve in the majors, struck out six and held the Mets hitless until Charlie Neal got a single with two down in the fifth. New York scored its first run in that inning. Ellis was replaced by Moe Drabowsky after issuing two passes in the sixth.

The Reds found New York pitchers easy, administering the new National League entry its 10th defeat in 11 games. The Reds got 11 hits off five pitchers.

The Reds got off to a quick start with four runs in the first inning on four hits, a walk and an error. From there on, it was easy.

Vada Pinson and Wally Post homered to add to the score. Post had a perfect night at bat with the homer and two doubles, and Pinson tied for the National League lead in runs batted in. Both he and Thomas Davis of Los Angeles have 20 RBI's.

As for the Mets, they got only five hits—all singles except for a double by Gus Bell.

Ellis, who pitched for Columbia in the Sally League, said he was "tired, dead tired" when Hutchinson removed him from the game.

"My legs were tired," he added. "I've had a cold for more than a week, but that's no excuse. But, I'm not that wild," he said of the 11 walks.

The victory was awarded to Ellis, while Craig Anderson, the first New York pitcher, was charged with the loss. Ellis is now 1-1, and Anderson 0-1.

The Mets and Reds meet again tonight for the final game of the present two-game series. Hutchinson's choice for starter is Bob Purkey (2-0). His probable opponent is Bob Miller (0-1).

Royals' Embry Thinks Lucas Will Turn Pro

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Royals' Wayne Embry, just back from a few basketball games with Jerry Lucas, says he thinks the Ohio State star will go into pro basketball.

Both Embry and Lucas played in a two-game tournament at Charleston, W.Va., over the weekend.

"Yes, I talked to Jerry and he said nothing about what he intends to do," Embry said Tuesday night.

"I told him I thought it was partly my duty as captain of the Royals to tell him how much we wanted him and what a great asset he'd be. I think he'll play, but that's my own personal opinion."

However, in Columbus Tuesday, Lucas said he still is undecided about playing pro ball. He said he plans to meet with representatives of the Cleveland Pipers of the American Basketball League in the near future.

Koufax Got Mad To Set New Record

CHICAGO (AP)—Sandy Koufax gets mad at himself when he throws a bad pitch. Because of this, the Los Angeles southpaw Tuesday became the first pitcher to twice strike out 18 batters in the major leagues.

Koufax pitched the greatest baseball in his career through the first three innings of the game which the Dodgers won from the Chicago Cubs 10-2.

Yet, he needed two ninth inning breaks to equal the modern record of 18 strikeouts which he previously shared with Bob Feller, the Cleveland fireballer who established the mark in 1938.

First, Billy Williams led off the Cub ninth with a home run and this so infuriated Koufax that "I really started pumping. It was a bad pitch, a curve which hung high and inside."

Koufax pumped so hard that he made Bob Will and Elder White strikeout victims to run his total to 17. Then came another break.

Moe Thacker hit a pop fly for what should have been the game-ending out but first baseman Tim Harkness lost the ball in the wind and sun and it dropped for a single, Chicago's fifth hit. Koufax then fanned pinch batter Moe Morhardt to end the game.

"I had no idea of any records," said Koufax, whose 269 strikeouts last season set another modern National League record. "I was surprised to see the whole team pour out on the field to shake my hand."

Koufax struck out nine of the first 10 men he faced, getting the side out on strikes in both the first and third innings. He threw 144 pitches.

Mother Must Curb Creeping Poundage

"I couldn't convince myself I was actually getting fat—" a young mother who is now making slimming progress lamented.

Ida Jean Kain

Many of you will be aware that this is not an impossibility. Fat is insidious, it sneaks on so slowly as to lull you into complacency. To continue her story:

"All through high school I weighed 120 pounds, perfect weight. After marrying and having children, my weight slowly crept up, and the pounds clung.

"Three years ago when the scales hit 160 pounds I started to reduce, and then I became pregnant with my third child. After the baby arrived I had surgery for gall bladder and lost weight. But before the fourth baby was on the way, I had regained. Imagine someone 5 feet 2 weighing 195 pounds!

WHEN THE baby was born my weight dropped to 164¼ pounds. I wanted to start on a good diet but candy, cookies and cake were much too hard to give up.

"This letter is written for one purpose, to urge other overweights to put themselves in the hands of a good doctor and reduce. High blood pressure sent me to the doctor and he told me that losing weight was the only answer. He prescribed pills, one to be taken each day.

"The first month I lost 7 pounds which encouraged me to curb calories, so that by the second month I had lost 11 pounds more. I have lost a total of 29 pounds in nine months. I do not take pills regularly — only when I start to crave chocolate candy, pies and cakes.

"I have found out that it takes will power too! With 13 pounds to go, I now need encouragement more than ever. I read your morale boosting column every day and I wish you would print how crushing it is to have people tell you how terrible you look as soon as you start losing.

"The most wonderful encouragement was given me by my brother who had not seen me for a year. He couldn't believe his eyes. He called me 'Slim' and meant it. My husband is really pleased, and that helps. And it's wonderful to have your children say, 'Mom you look so pretty now!'

"When I get down to 122 pounds, that's where I'm staying! My real friends tell me they won't let me start to gain again! I'm so grateful to my doctor, my friends and to you."

THANK YOU so very much for sharing! Your story may help others who are getting fat. It's easier to gloss over a weight gain than it is to face up to it, for this sharpens up the problem and forces you to act.

Send a stamped, self - addressed, long envelope for "Choose To Lose Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

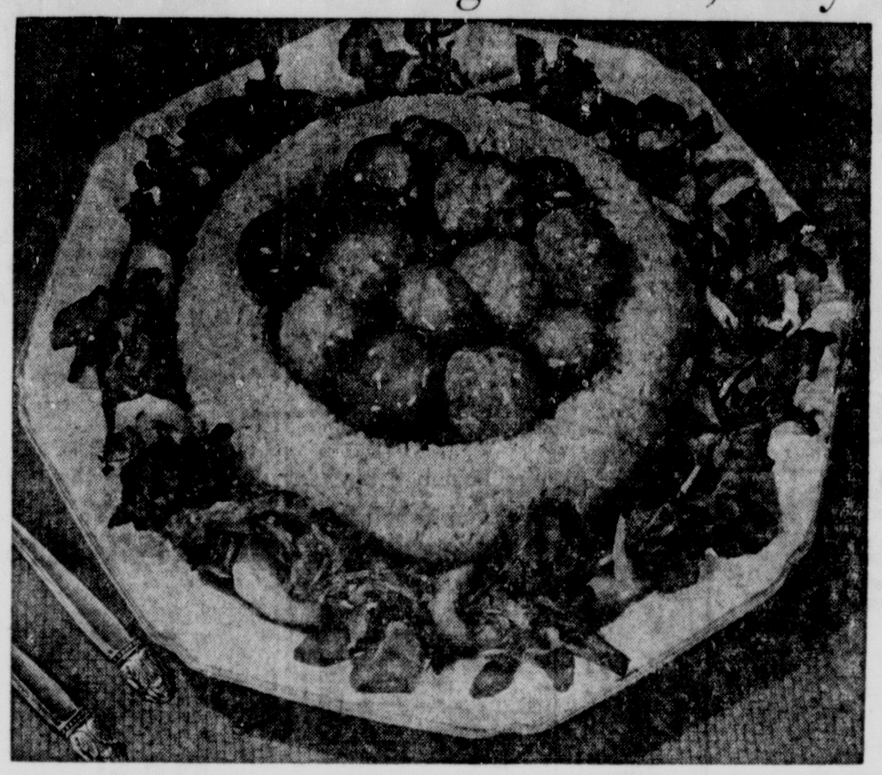
HUNTINGTON, W. Va. — The U.S. Engineers will open bids June 19 on an estimated $100,000 worth of repair work to flood walls along the Ohio River in the Huntington area.

The project involves remedial work to flood walls at Point Pleasant, Huntington and Ceredo-Kenova in West Virginia, and Ironton, Ohio.

Ham Balls In Rice Ring Attractive, Tasty



Are you looking for an attractive appetizing way to use baked ham leftovers?

If not, perhaps there is a can of luncheon meat on your supply shelf. You could just serve these ham balls over cooked rice or noodles, but for just a little more effort, you can mold your rice in a ring mold and combine your hamballs with mushroom crowns and have an eye appealing dish.

For garnishing with watercress or parsley, why not take just a bit of time to make bouquets? To make the carrot rings, you will need fairly large carrots. Peel and slice the carrots, then cut the center out of each slice. Just push a few sprigs of short cut watercress or parsley through the hole. They will stand up pert and pretty and the color scheme looks like springtime.

2 cups ground cooked ham, about 12 oz.
½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 egg, beaten
½ cup milk
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
1 can (6 oz.) broiled mushroom crowns
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons vinegar
¼ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup water

Put enough cooked ham or luncheon meat through food chopper to make 2 cups. Add bread crumbs, egg, milk, mustard and Worchestershire sauce to ham. Mix together thoroughly and shape into 16 small balls.

Place ham balls in shallow baking pan and brush lightly with bouquet. Bake in pre-heated 350 degree oven until lightly browned, about 30 minutes. Meanwhile, combine in small saucepan mushrooms, including broth, cornstarch, vinegar, sugar, salt and water. Bring to boil over moderate heat, stirring constantly.

Pour sauce and mushrooms over ham balls and continue baking for 15 minutes. Serve in rice ring, or over hot cooked noodles, garnished with tiny watercress bouquets.

Bringing Up A Family

Memorizing Won't Assure Spelling

"My daughter, in the sixth grade, can memorize spelling words but is a very poor speller otherwise," writes a mother from New Mexico. Lots of children have this trouble. There's nothing surprising about it. Such necessary mechanical memorizing, as of the spelling of a number of words, easily fades. Being able to spell a word several hours after its spelling was memorized doesn't guarantee that it will be remembered later. Its spelling just had not been repeated often enough or over a long period to make it stick. So when it is used in writing it may be spelled wrong, especially since the child's attention is strongly centered on what he is trying to say on paper.

THIS IS NO ARGUMENT for his not having memorized its spelling in the first place. But it is not enough just to learn the spelling of a word so it can be spelled correctly right away or several hours later. It must be learned over and then practiced again and again later.

You can help your child in this direction if you will induce him to keep the lists of words he has learned to spell over a period of several weeks or months and have him see how well he can spell them all at various intervals, and then have him relearn the few which give him trouble.

You can help him more, perhaps, as he sets out to learn to spell each assignment of a list of words in the first place.

SUPPOSE HE MUST learn tonight to spell a list of 10 words. The chances are he will want you to try him out by pronouncing them for him before he has mastered all of them perfectly.

Encourage him not even to try himself out on a single word till he is sure he can spell it, and always to look back at its correct spelling when he has the slightest doubt.

Furthermore, when he writes homework, be ready to spell any word he asks you to spell. Strive to cultivate in him a strong spelling conscience.

My bulletin "Home Helps for Poor Spellers" may be had by sending a self - addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Missile Wanders Off Its Course And Is Destroyed

The solid-fuel rocket shot into a clear sky and continued rising straight up instead of pitching on its intended course to the southeast.

About 30 seconds after liftoff, the safety officer deliberately blew the rocket. Flaming hunks of the broken rocket showered into the Atlantic just offshore, providing a spectacular show for hundreds of persons on nearby beaches.

The failure ended a string of 13 straight successes for the Pershing, which is scheduled to become operational late this year, with initial development in Western Europe.

Social Advantage Grows

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It's time we had another brush-up drill on double talk, the modern art of saying one thing while you're thinking another.

Double-talk has one great social advantage: it enables you to use your mouth and your brain at the same time—but without getting yourself into trouble.

Only the very young or the very old ordinarily have either the ignorance or courage to say at all times exactly what they mean. The rest of us must temper our conversational valor with a little judicious fudge. We rarely utter what our minds mutter.

For those wishing to polish up their skill in double-talk, here are a few typical examples—followed by their literal meanings:

"Oh, what a lovely new mink stole!" Those poor rabbits sure dyed in vain.

"Mother says she never worries about me when I'm out with you, John." Mother would rather have me bored to death than thrilled to pieces.

"There's no doubt of it—that boy of yours really has a head on him." Too bad he doesn't have another one just like it; then he could at least count on steady work with a carnival.

"Don't tell me you made that pretty dress all by yourself!" I'd swear nobody could turn out anything that awful with only 10 thumbs.

"It must have been a terrible blow to you when your dear aunt died." Particularly when you read the will, and found out the old girl left her money to her other niece.

"How did a child her age ever learn to play the piano like that?" With a hammer, or by wearing roller skates on her hands?

"No, Jim, I could never bring myself to marry a man just for his money." Not for the kind you make anyway.

"I'm not very hungry, Bob. I think I'll just have a club sandwich." I'm starved, but if I order the steak the cheapskate is likely to faint.

"Frankly, I've always regarded her as one of my dearest friends." She doesn't like me either.

"Why, Mabel, darling, your hair looks so lovely. Whatever did you do to it?" Pour molasses over it, and run it through a clothes dryer?

"No, let's be sure to keep in touch with each other." Don't call me—and I won't call you.

Robinson, Floyd That Is, Beats Yankees With Homer

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The woods are full of Robinsons these days. Jackie in the Hall of Fame. Brooks and Earl with Baltimore. Frank with Cincinnati. But Floyd of the Chicago White Sox is the Robinson of the moment after beating the New York Yankees Tuesday with a two-run homer.

It wasn't always like this. When Floyd came out of high school at San Diego in 1954 he signed a minor league contract with the Padres for only $500. Major league scouts took one look and said, "Too small." Floyd didn't get to the majors until the tail end of the 1960 season. He didn't become a regular until last May.

"Last time I was here half of the stories called me Earl," he recalled today. Nobody is getting him mixed up this year.

Searching for a No. 4 hitter during spring training, Manager Al Lopez settled on Robinson. The search was over. Floyd hit around .400 in the exhibition games and picked up speed when the season started.

"At first I didn't feel I should be hitting fourth," he said. "A clean-up hitter should be a little larger. I'm only 5-8¾.

"It affected me quite a bit the first week or so (you'd never know it from the box scores, for he was hitting .500). Then I decided I just was not a home run hitter. After all, we're not a power club. I just keep to my own style." (Like hitting a ball into the right field bleachers at Yankee Stadium).

Floyd's "own style" has been sensational. He is hitting .469 with 23 hits in 49 at bats. He leads the American League with 21 runs batted in.

Spahn Shows Old Form In 2-1 Victory

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Don't get the rockin' chair ready for Warren Spahn yet. The Milwaukee southpaw great is out to prove he's just as good at 41 as he was at 40.

Spahn moved ahead of his 1961 pace by hurling the Braves to a 2-1 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday night. It marked his 311th National League victory since 1946.

"I didn't win my first game last year until my 40th birthday, so I guess I'm more than one game ahead," Spahn said. "But I won't complain if I wind up with the same type of season as last year. No pitcher will complain about 21 victories."

Handed the starting assignment against the Phillies a day after his 41st birthday, Spahn evened his season record at 2-2. His two victories represent exactly half the Braves' total in 13 games.

Midland Nine Edged, 3-2, In Stiff Pitchers' Duel

The New Brighton Lions edged Paul Farnan's Midland Leopard nine, 3-2, Tuesday afternoon at Midland and moved into a second place tie with South Side in the Section 4 race. The loss pushed Midland down to fourth with an even 2-2 slate. New Brighton and South Side have identical 2-1 records.

Leopard hurler Bill Doyle and New Brighton moundsman Bill Maybray hooked up in a terrific pitching duel. Doyle gave up only three hits, all singles and none of which figured in the New Brighton scoring, struck out four and walked only one.

Maybray gave up just four singles and whiffed 10 Leopard batters while walking only one. Other than their four hits Maybray did not let the Leopards get another ball out of the infield.

Doyle also kept the Lion batters in the infield. Besides their three safeties the only balls New Brighton batters got to the outfield were two lazy fly ball outs to right field.

Doyle also turned in a sparkling defensive performance from his mound position.

Midland scored first in the opening frame when Doyle singled, stole second and came home on Dave Troup's single to center.

New Brighton then pushed across two unearned runs in the third.

In the fourth the Lions added what turned out to be the winning run. Midland closed out the scoring in its half of the fourth when it took advantage of a Lion miscue and pushed across an unearned run.

Doyle was the only player to collect more than one safety in the game.

Thursday afternoon Midland will close out the first half schedule of Section 4 by playing host to South Side.

NCAA May Penalize Colorado At Next Session

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The University of Colorado should be holding its breath as the powerful —and stern—executive council of the National Collegiate Athletic Association opens it spring meeting today.

A source close to the council says there's a good possibility of penalties being meted to Colorado.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, which guides the athletic destinies of the nation's major colleges, had no comment on what action the group might take during its four-day session.

But the spring session is where discipline, when warranted, is normally administered.

Colorado's board of regents fired head football coach Everett (Sonny) Grandelius, who guided the school to its first Big Eight Conference title last fall, on March 17.

Grandelius, who had a 21-9 record in three seasons at Colorado, was accused by the regents of permitting and encouraging contributions to a "secret slush fund which was used to provide financial assistance to some prospective and enrolled athletes."

Amateur Golf Field To Be Slashed To 8

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Danger signals were in order today as the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament field headed into a treacherous double round.

By late afternoon only eight players will remain of the 114 who set out hopefully two days ago in the qualifying round. The Wednesday double round traditionally extracts a toll of greats. The pressure of playing two 18-hole rounds when there is so little margin for error usually results in a generous share of upsets.

West Virginia Boxer Slated To Leave Hospital

He was knocked out in the 10th round by Joe Shelton of Cleveland.

As for boxing, "I guess it's all over for me," Hunsaker said Tuesday night as he prepared to leave. "I'd be stupid to go back now."

The 32-year-old former police chief at Fayetteville has recovered the use of his limbs. He started walking, with help, Sunday, and Tuesday night was able to sign his name.

In last week's column I must have been thinking of one thing and speaking of another. That's the only way I know how to explain my mistake.

I wrote that 5.6 horsepower motors would be allowed on Lake Guilford, which is in error. Motors no larger than 3.6 horsepower are allowed.

Now when my phone rings instead of saying the customary, "Hello," I begin with "3.6 horsepower motors," which is the only way I know to stop an argument before it begins.

RUFF POND, on the Zepernick area, was partially drained last year as all the bluegills and bass were killed by the winter freeze. When seeing people fishing there, I usually walked over to tell them there were no fish in the pond.

Much to my surprise they were hauling in 9-to-10-inch eastern chain pickerel like mad. Along with pickerel they were taking 5-inch bullheads about as fast as the hook hit the water.

THE FREEZE didn't hurt the bullheads nor the pickerel one bit. This answers another question that I have asked often, How could pickerel do in a farm pond? Without a doubt they would live, survive and reproduce.

A few fishermen are catching them, keeping them alive in a bucket and transferring them to private ponds. This is OK from the legal standpoint, but I am wondering how fast these cannibals will eliminate the bass and bluegills. Might be a good thing for an overcrowded pond. On the other hand, would they become overpopulated and undesirable?

Since they were stocked in Zepernick Lake they have reached a growth of 20 inches. About 9 pounds is the maximum size when they reach full maturity.

Unlike grass pike, chain pickerel put up a good scrap when hooked and know all the tricks of a muskie. They are truly game fish, but when it comes to fish for food they are bony as a sucker. But for that matter so are muskies and northern pike.

TWO THOUSAND trout were stocked in the headwaters of Beaver Creek last week. Stocking trout in Little Beaver has been done for the past three years. I know of a few being caught, but it remains to be seen how successful stocking trout in Beaver Creek will be. These are surplus fish given to the state from the Blue Hole Hatchery near Sandusky.

Beaver Creek proper flows into Ohio from Pennsylvania near Negley and trout have been taken in this area for years.

There won't be any taken there now as the strip miners up on the hill have seen to it that the creek has been polluted to the extent that all fish habitat has been destroyed.

Freedom Cindermen Capture 71-47 Victory At Midland

Coach Larry Novak's Midland Leopard thinclads had a victory in sight Tuesday afternoon, but faltered in the field events and dropped a 71-47 decision to the Freedom Bulldogs.

Midland picked up 41 of their 47 points in the track events. They could manage only six points in the field, however, where Freedom rolled up 39.

Denny Haglan, Freedom senior, broke the Midland Stadium broad jump record with a leap of 22 feet. Haglan also picked up firsts in the discus with a heave of 130 feet, 7½ inches and the high jump at 5 feet, 4 inches.

Dale Carothers and Henry Tookes led the Leopards with two firsts each. Carothers won the high and low hurdle events, while Tookes captured the 100 and the 220-yard dashes.

Potters Post 5-0 Victory At Chester Behind Ed Six

The victory was the second in three starts for Coach Jack Bair's nine.

Six struck out eight batters and showed perfect control by not giving up a walk.

Centerfielder Butch Mathias and Vince McKinnon led the Potters at the plate. Mathias enjoyed a perfect day in the batter's box, going four-for-four, including three singles and double.

McKinnon, the Potters first baseman, smacked a two - run homer in the fifth inning when East Liverpool scored its fourth and fifth runs.

The Potters pushed across one run in the first inning, then accounted for two more in the second.

Podoloff, NBA Czar, Plans To Retire In 1963

NEW YORK (AP) — Maurice Podoloff, the roly-poly czar of professional basketball, is going to retire at the end of next season because, he said today, "there are a great many things I want to do."

The cigar-smoking Podoloff, born 71 years ago in Russia, has been the president and the bellwether of the NBA and its predecessor, the Basketball Association of America, since 1946.

Podoloff made the announcement of his pending retirement Tuesday at the opening session of the two-day board of governors meeting of the NBA. No one was surprised. There had been talk of Podoloff quitting for a long time.

There was no talk of a successor.

"But," sighed one of the owners at the meet, "he'll be hard to replace."

Pirates Top Giants, 7-3; Cards Lose

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

One of these days Sandy Koufax will strike out 20 batters in a nine-inning game and people may recognize that the Los Angeles Dodgers southpaw is the greatest strikeout pitcher of modern times.

For the second time in his comparatively brief major league career, Koufax equalled the major league strikeout mark when he fanned 18 Chicago players Tuesday as the Dodgers routed the Cubs 10-2.

That gave the 26-year-old Brooklyn native a career total of 992 strikeouts in 980 innings, an average of better than one strikeout per inning.

No other pitcher in the history of baseball averaged a strikeout an inning. Not even Walter Johnson, the all-time whiff king of the majors, or such other strikeout artists as Bobby Feller, Rube Waddell, Lefty Grove and Christy Mathewson did it.

Pittsburgh won its 11th game in 12 starts, defeating San Francisco 7-3, the same score by which Cincinnati downed the New York Mets. Milwaukee defeated Philadelphia 2-1 and Houston shaded St. Louis 4-3.

Tommy Davis and Duke Snider drove in seven runs between them as the Dodgers clubbed loser Don Cardwell and three relief pitchers for 12 hits. Davis drove in four runs with a home run and single, Snider batted in three with a home run and triple.

Koufax, fanning eight of the first nine batters he faced, finished with a flourish, striking out the side in the ninth for his third victory in four decisions.

Sandy's 18 strikeouts matched the record set by Cleveland's Bob Feller against Detroit on Oct. 2, 1936 and later equalled by Koufax against San Francisco on Aug. 31, 1959. This is a National League daytime strikeout record since Koufax' 1959 effort was achieved at night. Feller accomplished his feat in an afternoon game.

The league-leading Pirates put five of their seven hits together for a five-run fourth inning against loser Juan Marichal as Al McBean registered his second triumph. He needed ninth-inning help from Elroy Face. Catcher Don Leppert homered for the Bucs.

The Reds scored four runs in the first against New York starter Craig Anderson and went on to inflict the 10th defeat on the Mets, who have won only one game. Cincinnati rookie Sam Ellis allowed only one hit but was replaced by Moe Drabowsky in the sixth after walking his 10th and 11th batters. Wally Post hit two doubles and a home run, Vada Pinson also homered and Eddie Kasko had three hits for the Reds.

Warren Spahn scattered nine Philadelphia hits and doubled home the Braves' first run. Eddie Mathews' fifth home run accounted for what proved to be the winning run. Three straight hits after two out in the ninth ruined Spahn's bid for his 56th lifetime shutout but he tossed out the final Philly batter himself to preserve his second victory of the season and 311th of his major league career.

Southpaw Hal Woodeshick pitched a six-hitter for Houston against St. Louis and ex-Cardinal outfielder Don Taussig homered in the sixth, off loser Larry Jackson, for the clincher.

Allen Takes Throw At 2nd

BERNIE ALLEN NO. 12, East Liverpool's bonus baby playing second base for the Minnesota Twins, is shown taking a throw at second base which forced Baltimore's Jerry Adair who is beginning his slide in the seventh inning of Tuesday night's game at Baltimore. The umpire is Larry Napp. The Twins were beaten, 5-4, Allen tripled, singled and drove in one run in last night's game. (UPI Telephoto)

Parents Urging Injured English Driver To Quit

LONDON (AP)—The parents of badly injured racing driver Stirling Moss said today they want him to quit the sport that has made his name a legend.

"You can't go on seeing your son have accidents without wanting him to give up," said Alfred Moss, the driver's father, who has been with him constantly since Monday's crackup at the Goodwood track.

"Stirling knows that I have felt like this for a long time."

Their son is unconscious in a South London hospital which specializes in brain surgery.

Moss suffered serious head injuries in a 100 miles per hour smash at an Easter Monday race meeting watched by 100,000 fans. Early morning bulletin on his condition said he had maintained his "slight improvement" of Tuesday throughout the night.

Ellis Allows One Hit But Walks 11

Ellis defeated Stengel's New York Mets 7-3 Tuesday night by allowing them only one hit but giving up 11 walks. The 21-year-old youngster, whose only professional experience prior to this year was a season of Class B baseball, was yanked, dead tired but still game, after five full innings and 120 pitches.

Stengel, who sometimes talks about a player without using his name, had this to say about Ellis:

"That first pitcher was very interesting. He walks how many? Eleven? His knuckleball was better than his fast one."

Ellis, who claims to have the only knuckleball curve in the majors, struck out six and held the Mets hitless until Charlie Neal got a single with two down in the fifth. New York scored its first run in that inning. Ellis was replaced by Moe Drabowsky after issuing two passes in the sixth.

The Reds found New York pitchers easy, administering the new National League entry its 10th defeat in 11 games. The Reds got 11 hits off five pitchers.

The Reds got off to a quick start with four runs in the first inning on four hits, a walk and an error. From there on, it was easy.

Vada Pinson and Wally Post homered to add to the score. Post had a perfect night at bat with the homer and two doubles, and Pinson tied for the National League lead in runs batted in. Both he and Thomas Davis of Los Angeles have 20 RBI's.

As for the Mets, they got only five hits—all singles except for a double by Gus Bell.

Ellis, who pitched for Columbia in the Sally League, said he was "tired, dead tired" when Hutchinson removed him from the game.

"My legs were tired," he added. "I've had a cold for more than a week, but that's no excuse. But, I'm not that wild," he said of the 11 walks.

The victory was awarded to Ellis, while Craig Anderson, the first New York pitcher, was charged with the loss. Ellis is now 1-1, and Anderson 0-1.

The Mets and Reds meet again tonight for the final game of the present two-game series. Hutchinson's choice for starter is Bob Purkey (2-0). His probable opponent is Bob Miller (0-1).

Royals' Embry Thinks Lucas Will Turn Pro

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Royals' Wayne Embry, just back from a few basketball games with Jerry Lucas, says he thinks the Ohio State star will go into pro basketball.

Both Embry and Lucas played in a two-game tournament at Charleston, W.Va., over the weekend.

"Yes, I talked to Jerry and he said nothing about what he intends to do," Embry said Tuesday night.

"I told him I thought it was partly my duty as captain of the Royals to tell him how much we wanted him and what a great asset he'd be. I think he'll play, but that's my own personal opinion."

However, in Columbus Tuesday, Lucas said he still is undecided about playing pro ball. He said he plans to meet with representatives of the Cleveland Pipers of the American Basketball League in the near future.

Koufax Got Mad To Set New Record

CHICAGO (AP)—Sandy Koufax gets mad at himself when he throws a bad pitch. Because of this, the Los Angeles southpaw Tuesday became the first pitcher to twice strike out 18 batters in the major leagues.

Koufax pitched the greatest baseball in his career through the first three innings of the game which the Dodgers won from the Chicago Cubs 10-2.

Yet, he needed two ninth inning breaks to equal the modern record of 18 strikeouts which he previously shared with Bob Feller, the Cleveland fireballer who established the mark in 1938.

First, Billy Williams led off the Cub ninth with a home run and this so infuriated Koufax that "I really started pumping. It was a bad pitch, a curve which hung high and inside."

Koufax pumped so hard that he made Bob Will and Elder White strikeout victims to run his total to 17. Then came another break.

Moe Thacker hit a pop fly for what should have been the game-ending out but first baseman Tim Harkness lost the ball in the wind and sun and it dropped for a single, Chicago's fifth hit. Koufax then fanned pinch batter Moe Morhardt to end the game.

"I had no idea of any records," said Koufax, whose 269 strikeouts last season set another modern National League record. "I was surprised to see the whole team pour out on the field to shake my hand."

Koufax struck out nine of the first 10 men he faced, getting the side out on strikes in both the first and third innings. He threw 144 pitches.

Orioles' 4 In 9th Edge Minnesota

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ty Cline, Cleveland's 22-year-old rookie center fielder, has shaken his slump and lifted the pressure imposed by a can't miss label and a tendency in the teepee to spell that last name C-o-b-b.

Using Chavez Ravine as the site for his war dance, Cline crashed three extra-base hits in a 3-2 victory over the Los Angeles Angels Tuesday night that kept the Indians in first place in the American League with their sixth consecutive victory.

The much-publicized speed merchant scored the Indians' first run after doubling, drove in the second with another two-base blow, then rapped a triple in the seventh inning to knock in pitcher Ron Taylor with the winning run.

It was quite a one-man show for the left-handed swinging Cline, trying to live up to a host of press clippings after only two seasons in organized ball. His credentials include a .311 batting average at Mobile in 1960 and a .290 mark at Salt Lake City last season.

Cline now has five hits—all for extra bases—in his last 11 trips to the plate after failing to hit in his first dozen appearances.

Baltimore stretched its winning streak to four with a 5-4 victory over Minnesota. Detroit blanked Kansas City 1-0 behind Don Mossi's four-hitter, the Chicago White Sox whipped the New York Yankees 3-1 and Boston bopped Washington 4-1.

Taylor (1-1), pitching for the first time since he lost his debut after hurling 11 shutout innings, gave up only three hits before yielding to reliever Frank Funk in the seventh. Leon Wagner accounted for the Angels' runs with a two-run homer in the sixth.

Boog Powell's bases-loaded single with two out in the ninth drove in two runs and capped a four-run rally that gave the Orioles and Milt Pappas (2-0) their win over the Twins after Jack Kralick had checked Baltimore on one run and four hits for eight innings. Joe Bonikowski (1-1), working in relief of Kralick, took the loss. It was Pappas' first route-going performance since a March 12 appendectomy. He allowed eight hits.

Mossi (2-1) beat rookie Dan Pfister, making his first major league start for the A's, in a stirring pitchers' duel. Going into the eighth Pfister had the Tigers blanked on one hit, but Jake Wood's double and a single by Rocky Colavito brought in the only run of the game. Pfister (0-1) wound up with a three-hitter.

Floyd Robinson's two-run homer in the eighth inning off Ralph Terry (3-1) got the job done for the White Sox after Joe Cunningham's single had driven in the tying run against the Yankees. The victory went to John Buzhardt (2-1), who gave up a homer to John Blanchard in the second and needed relief help from Frank Baumann and Turk Lown to wrap it up.

Pete Runnels, who hit only three homers last year, hit a pair with the bases empty to support Galen Cisco's four-hit pitching for the Red Sox, Runnels' shot in the eighth inning off Joe McClain (0-2) snapped a 1-1 tie and gave Cisco (2-0) the run he needed to send the Senators to their seventh consecutive defeat.

Will Quit If Not Traded, Taylor Says

WOODRUFF, S.C. (AP)—"My family means more to me than baseball," says the Chicago Cubs' suspended catcher, Sammy Taylor.

After returning to his home Tuesday, Taylor said he will quit baseball if he is not traded.

Earlier Cub Vice President John Holland said in Chicago that Taylor was suspended for failing to show up for Tuesday's game with the Los Angeles Dodger.

Taylor said he was not making enough money to keep up two homes, in Chicago, and in Woodruff, where his wife prefers to live with their daughter, 4.

Carter Team Appears Sure Of ABC Victory

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—The team championship in the classic division of the American Bowling Congress tournament looked pretty safe for the Don Carter Gloves of St. Louis today after the opening performance of its last challenger.

The L. & L. Castle Lanes team of San Francisco rolled half of its six-game test Tuesday night and counted a poor 2704 total. The Frisco bowlers, last of the 58 classic teams in the tourney, would have to shoot 3545 for the final three games tonight.

Casey Fined For Posing In Beer Ad

The New York Mets manager was $500 poorer, had been given a verbal slap on the wrist and taken out for pinch hitter Kathy Kersh.

The whole incident came to light Tuesday when it was learned that Stengel had been fined and reprimanded for posing in a baseball uniform for advertisements of the beer company sponsoring radio and television broadcasts of the Mets.

The ads show Stengel in a Mets uniform in position to bunt although company representative Kathy Kersh is standing behind Ol' Case already holding the baseball.

Commissioner Ford Frick said the ads were a violation of baseball rules, which prohibit men in uniform from posing for alcoholic beverage ads.

"But everything's been taken care of now," said the commissioner.

"In future ads the bat will be in the girl's hand, and Casey will be out of the picture."

Steel Production Expected To Dip

NEW YORK (AP) — A trade publication predicted today that steel production will drop sharply in June and July.

Iron Age, metalworking weekly, added that output should recover and level off at about 70 per cent of capacity late in the third quarter.

"This means it will be September before the steel market is back to where production reflects the rate of steel use," Iron Age said.

Production last week was at about 73 per cent of estimated capacity. Three weeks ago the figure was above 80 per cent.

The magazine based its prediction of a big decline in June and July on what it called the pattern of order cancellations balanced against the rate of steel consumption.

Denied Plea Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has decided not to hear the appeal of three Cleveland attorneys indefinitely suspended from law practice by the Ohio Supreme Court. Charles, Aaron and Sidney Fleck made the appeal on grounds they were denied due process of law. The case concerned arrangements the Flecks allegedly made with a labor union to represent members in workmen's compensation claims.

Police In Akron Continue Search For Three Boys

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Police continued searching today for three teen-agers reported missing since Monday, although they expressed doubt any harm had come to the youths.

The parents of Gary J. Donohoe and Raymond L. Blackerby, both 14, reported their sons missing at noon Monday. Jeanette Hill, 15, was reported missing at 5 p.m. Monday.

Detective Jim Smith said he didn't believe there was any connection between the disappearance of the boys and the girl.

The boys told their parents they were going fishing. Smith said they had taken $14 between them, more than they normally carry. He said a nurse reported picking up two boys fitting the missing boys' descriptions in the Portage Lakes area and dropping them off in Barberton.

Robinson, Floyd That Is, Beats Yankees With Homer

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The woods are full of Robinsons these days. Jackie in the Hall of Fame. Brooks and Earl with Baltimore. Frank with Cincinnati. But Floyd of the Chicago White Sox is the Robinson of the moment after beating the New York Yankees Tuesday with a two-run homer.

It wasn't always like this. When Floyd came out of high school at San Diego in 1954 he signed a minor league contract with the Padres for only $500. Major league scouts took one look and said, "Too small." Floyd didn't get to the majors until the tail end of the 1960 season. He didn't become a regular until last May.

"Last time I was here half of the stories called me Earl," he recalled today. Nobody is getting him mixed up this year.

Searching for a No. 4 hitter during spring training, Manager Al Lopez settled on Robinson. The search was over. Floyd hit around .400 in the exhibition games and picked up speed when the season started.

"At first I didn't feel I should be hitting fourth," he said. "A clean-up hitter should be a little larger. I'm only 5-8¾.

"It affected me quite a bit the first week or so (you'd never know it from the box scores, for he was hitting .500). Then I decided I just was not a home run hitter. After all, we're not a power club. I just keep to my own style." (Like hitting a ball into the right field bleachers at Yankee Stadium).

Floyd's "own style" has been sensational. He is hitting .469 with 23 hits in 49 at bats. He leads the American League with 21 runs batted in.

Spahn Shows Old Form In 2-1 Victory

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Don't get the rockin' chair ready for Warren Spahn yet. The Milwaukee southpaw great is out to prove he's just as good at 41 as he was at 40.

Spahn moved ahead of his 1961 pace by hurling the Braves to a 2-1 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday night. It marked his 311th National League victory since 1946.

"I didn't win my first game last year until my 40th birthday, so I guess I'm more than one game ahead," Spahn said. "But I won't complain if I wind up with the same type of season as last year. No pitcher will complain about 21 victories."

Midland Nine Edged, 3-2, In Stiff Pitchers' Duel

The New Brighton Lions edged Paul Farnan's Midland Leopard nine, 3-2, Tuesday afternoon at Midland and moved into a second place tie with South Side in the Section 4 race. The loss pushed Midland down to fourth with an even 2-2 slate. New Brighton and South Side have identical 2-1 records.

Leopard hurler Bill Doyle and New Brighton moundsman Bill Maybray hooked up in a terrific pitching duel. Doyle gave up only three hits, all singles and none of which figured in the New Brighton scoring, struck out four and walked only one.

Maybray gave up just four singles and whiffed 10 Leopard batters while walking only one. Other than their four hits Maybray did not let the Leopards get another ball out of the infield.

Doyle also kept the Lion batters in the infield. Besides their three safeties the only balls New Brighton batters got to the outfield were two lazy fly ball outs to right field.

Doyle also turned in a sparkling defensive performance from his mound position.

Midland scored first in the opening frame when Doyle singled, stole second and came home on Dave Troup's single to center.

New Brighton then pushed across two unearned runs in the third.

In the fourth the Lions added what turned out to be the winning run. Midland closed out the scoring in its half of the fourth when it took advantage of a Lion miscue and pushed across an unearned run.

Thursday afternoon Midland will close out the first half schedule of Section 4 by playing host to South Side.

NCAA May Penalize Colorado At Next Session

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The University of Colorado should be holding its breath as the powerful—and stern—executive council of the National Collegiate Athletic Association opens it spring meeting today.

A source close to the council says there's a good possibility of penalties being meted to Colorado.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, which guides the athletic destinies of the nation's major colleges, had no comment on what action the group might take during its four-day session.

But the spring session is where discipline, when warranted, is normally administered.

Colorado's board of regents fired head football coach Everett (Sonny) Grandelius, who guided the school to its first Big Eight Conference title last fall, on March 17.

Grandelius, who had a 21-9 record in three seasons at Colorado, was accused by the regents of permitting and encouraging contributions to a "secret slush fund which was used to provide financial assistance to some prospective and enrolled athletes."

Amateur Golf Field To Be Slashed To 8

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Danger signals were in order today as the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament field headed into a treacherous double round.

By late afternoon only eight players will remain of the 114 who set out hopefully two days ago in the qualifying round. The Wednesday double round traditionally extracts a toll of greats. The pressure of playing two 18-hole rounds when there is so little margin for error usually results in a generous share of upsets.

West Virginia Boxer Slated To Leave Hospital

He was knocked out in the 10th round by Joe Shelton of Cleveland.

As for boxing, "I guess it's all over for me," Hunsaker said Tuesday night as he prepared to leave. "I'd be stupid to go back now."

The 32-year-old former police chief at Fayetteville has recovered the use of his limbs. He started walking, with help, Sunday, and Tuesday night was able to sign his name.

In last week's column I must have been thinking of one thing and speaking of another. That's the only way I know how to explain my mistake.

I wrote that 5.6 horsepower motors would be allowed on Lake Guilford, which is in error. Motors no larger than 3.6 horsepower are allowed.

Now when my phone rings instead of saying the customary, "Hello," I begin with "3.6 horsepower motors," which is the only way I know to stop an argument before it begins.

RUFF POND, on the Zepernick area, was partially drained last year as all the bluegills and bass were killed by the winter freeze. When seeing people fishing there, I usually walked over to tell them there were no fish in the pond.

Much to my surprise they were hauling in 9-to-10-inch eastern chain pickerel like mad. Along with pickerel they were taking 5-inch bullheads about as fast as the hook hit the water.

THE FREEZE didn't hurt the bullheads nor the pickerel one bit. This answers another question that I have asked often, How could pickerel do in a farm pond? Without a doubt they would live, survive and reproduce.

A few fishermen are catching them, keeping them alive in a bucket and transferring them to private ponds. This is OK from the legal standpoint, but I am wondering how fast these cannibals will eliminate the bass and bluegills. Might be a good thing for an overcrowded pond. On the other hand, would they become overpopulated and undesirable?

Since they were stocked in Zepernick Lake they have reached a growth of 20 inches. About 9 pounds is the maximum size when they reach full maturity.

Unlike grass pike, chain pickerel put up a good scrap when hooked and know all the tricks of a muskie. They are truly game fish, but when it comes to fish for food they are bony as a sucker. But for that matter so are muskies and northern pike.

TWO THOUSAND trout were stocked in the headwaters of Beaver Creek last week. Stocking trout in Little Beaver has been done for the past three years. I know of a few being caught, but it remains to be seen how successful stocking trout in Beaver Creek will be. These are surplus fish given to the state from the Blue Hole Hatchery near Sandusky.

Beaver Creek proper flows into Ohio from Pennsylvania near Negley and trout have been taken in this area for years.

There won't be any taken there now as the strip miners up on the hill have seen to it that the creek has been polluted to the extent that all fish habitat has been destroyed.

Freedom Cindermen Capture 71-47 Victory At Midland

Coach Larry Novak's Midland Leopard thinclads had a victory in sight Tuesday afternoon, but faltered in the field events and dropped a 71-47 decision to the Freedom Bulldogs.

Midland picked up 41 of their 47 points in the track events. They could manage only six points in the field, however, where Freedom rolled up 39.

Denny Haglan, Freedom senior, broke the Midland Stadium broad jump record with a leap of 22 feet. Haglan also picked up firsts in the discus with a heave of 130 feet, 7½ inches and the high jump at 5 feet, 4 inches.

Dale Carothers and Henry Tookes led the Leopards with two firsts each. Carothers won the high and low hurdle events, while Tookes captured the 100 and the 220-yard dashes.

Carothers's time in the high hurdles was 18.6 and 15.5 in the lows. Tookes ran the 100 in 10.7 and covered the 220 in 24.7.

The results:

120-yard high hurdles — Carothers (M); Droz (F); Alston (M). Time—18.6.

Potters Post 5-0 Victory At Chester Behind Ed Six

The victory was the second in three starts for Coach Jack Bair's nine.

Centerfielder Butch Mathias and Vince McKinnon led the Potters at the plate. Mathias enjoyed a perfect day in the batter's box, going four-for-four, including three singles and double.

McKinnon, the Potters first baseman, smacked a two - run homer in the fifth inning when East Liverpool scored its fourth and fifth runs.

The Potters pushed across one run in the first inning, then accounted for two more in the second.

Podoloff, NBA Czar, Plans To Retire In 1963

NEW YORK (AP) — Maurice Podoloff, the roly-poly czar of professional basketball, is going to retire at the end of next season because, he said today, "there are a great many things I want to do."

The cigar-smoking Podoloff, born 71 years ago in Russia, has been the president and the bellwether of the NBA and its predecessor, the Basketball Associaition of America, since 1946.

Podoloff made the announcement of his pending retirement Tuesday at the opening session of the two-day board of governors meeting of the NBA. No one was surprised. There had been talk of Podoloff quitting for a long time.

There was no talk of a successor.

"But," sighed one of the owners at the meet, "he'll be hard to replace."

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

'Because We Want To Know'

Lt. Col. John Glenn will be back on your TV screen—and before the teen-agers are tucked in—next Sunday night at 7:30 p.m. Together with Jules Bergman, science editor at ABC News, the astronaut will take young people (and their elders) on a futuristic tour of space. The program is called "60 Hours to the Moon." Mr. Bergman, who is TV's only science editor, is a spare-time pilot and a lunch-time doodler. I am sure that the table cloth we shared the other afternoon is already in enemy hands.

Alan Gill

"YOU SEE," he said, tracing a globe with his ballpoint, "after we've had another three-orbit flight (with "Scottie" Carpenter) and then a third, we'll send up the first 18-orbit mission, probably in November and probably with Sheppard aboard.

"Glenn will do the second 18-orbiter. Next, we get two astronauts up there, and orbit them a week."

Mr. Bergman drew swirling lines around the globe.

"To orbit the moon, we'll need a docking operation in space, which, if not perilous, at least will take some doing, backing into the dock with steering rockets. The dock will be a kind of filling station in space. Then—off and around the moon! This will be in 1966, we figure."

-:-

"The operation will take 60 hours, and that's where the title of our show comes from."

And then?

"Well, in '67 or '68, we'll launch the Nova rocket for a moon landing. That will be a 10-day trip. As John Glenn says on the program, 'You'll be launched on Tuesday morning and be back Friday of the following week.' "

How much, Mr. Bergman was asked, will all this cost?

"It's estimated," he said, "at $20 billion. But with the moon shot, I think you have to apply the Madison Avenue rule of thumb of 'double it and add 10 per cent.' "

AS TO THE DESTINY awaiting us in space, Jules Bergman guesses that "we should be colonizing the moon by the late '70s."

Prof. Melvin Calvin of Cal Tech will be on the hour show to talk about life on Mars, offering the opinion that the "quantitative level" of life there, based on his studies of Martian biology, "may well be above ours."

The conversation turned to the physical experience of space flying. Has anyone, for example, ever seen a flying saucer?

"Definitely not," said Bergman. "Hypoxia, the condition produced by lack of oxygen, or some other physical reaction to flying makes a man subject to aerial mirages."

And those needles of light Col. Glenn viewed during the orbital flight?

"It's been pretty well accepted that they were either flakes of paint chipping off the capsule or drops of water from its cooling system."

-:-

FOR THE PROGRAM, Mr. Bergman asked John Glenn about the danger of space flight.

"I believe the problem has been overemphasized," Glenn replied, on camera. "But there is no question people are going to be lost."

"Is it worth it?" Bergman asked him.

"Certainly. Or we wouldn't be doing it."

"And second, of course, is the military reason. The retaliatory potential of a base 'way out yonder can't be stopped. It would answer a nuclear attack within 34 hours."

"60 HOURS TO THE MOON" will offer many "first looks" at space gadgetry: Detailed mock-ups of the "Gemini" two-man space capsule, the "Apollo" lunar craft, and the weird landing vehicles designed to return astronauts safely from the moon, among others.

Mr. Bergman, a young man who started in on a television news desk at 16 and then got his science training at Time magazine and through a science grant given him by Sloan-Kittering and first to break the news, back on Thanksgiving Day, of the selection of John Glenn for the orbital flight.

He's published a book on the X15 and has another coming up on how to fly.

Does he, a visitor asked, have a cyclotron in his living room?

2 Of Family Drown On Vacation In Italy

BOLZANO, Italy (AP) — The four members of the Dietelmann family, on vacation from their home in Germany, were sunning themselves on rocks below a dam near this north Italian town, unaware that water behind the flood gates was rising toward a level that automatically opened the barrier.

Moments later tons of water crashed down on them, drowning Hildegard Dietelmann, 28, and daughter Ingeborg, 3. The husband, Reinhard, 29, a school teacher from Stuttgart, managed to save himself and daughter Ursula, 5.

Lower Gives Tips To Fight Insect Pests

LISBON — Insect alerts for May have been received by Floyd Lower, county extension agent, from state extension entomologists at Ohio State University.

Termites will be active soon. The control consists of the use off insecticides to make a poisonous soil barrier, Lower said.

The spittle bug hatch is very late this year, but farmers who wish to protect their meadows should spray when clover is six inches high and alfalfa is not over eight inches high, Lower said.

Now is the time to hand pick and destroy bagworm cases from shrubbery before the eggs inside hatch in June. Check Scotch Pine and other pine for cooked, dead buds infested by European pine shoot moth. Break off and destroy them before the caterpillars break dormancy and start further damage in early May.

European pine sawflies will become active in late April. They can be destroyed with DDT, methoxychlor, chlordane or other residual insecticides.

Now is the best time to grub-proof lawns in areas where turf has been damaged by Japanese beetle grubs. The office has available a new bulletin giving the correct amounts of insecticide to use either on an acre or a 1,000-foot basis.

Exeptionally heavy populations of aphids on opening apple buds have been noticed already. Most of these are apple grain aphids that will soon leave the apple trees without causing much damage. This might be an indication of heavy rosy apple aphid infestation to follow. Growers should check carefully for the presence of aphids at pink and petal-fall time.

Dimethoate, sold under the name of "Cygon," is a promising insecticide for residual fly control. Its acute toxicity is less than that of DDT, but it has given between six and eight weeks of control in other states. The use cost is high, but the performance has been good and the material deserves trial, Lower said.

Church Women Set Fellowship Day At Wellsville

The May Fellowship Day for the United Church Women of Wellsville will be held next Wednesday night at 7:30 in the basement of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church.

A one-act play, "Where the World Begins" (Wilson), will be presented by eight representatives from the Protestant churches.

Mrs. Emma Lewis will lead the worship program and conduct business.

U.S. Spacecraft Due To Crash On Moon Thursday

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — As the sun rises Thursday on the desolation of the lunar landscape, U.S. spacecraft Ranger 4 is expected to plunge from the black sky onto the surface of the moon.

Scientists say it will strike the unseen back side of the moon at 8:50 a.m. EST, exactly 63.913 hours after it blasted off from Cape Canaveral—carrying elaborate television equipment and the hopes of United States lunar experts for a close-up look at the moon.

The hopes were shattered when a timer failed and halted a sequence of maneuvers which would have brought Ranger's television eye into play as it neared the lunar surface.

But Ranger, as blind as a plunging meteor, hurtled on toward what would be a historic collision. If it strikes as expected, Ranger will be the first piece of U.S. hardware on the moon. The Russians hit it in 1959.

A tiny radio is sending out steady beeps by which scientists from Pasadena's Jet Propulsion Laboratory are tracking Ranger's flight. When the beeps stop, they will know it has hit.

Strips of onion and green pepper, simmered in butter, add zest to cooked snap beans.

Mr. K Agrees With Kennedy On Steps To Summit Parley

NEW YORK (AP) — Premier Khrushchev has told an American publisher he agrees with President Kennedy that accord on crucial issues must precede a new summit meeting between the two leaders.

But the Soviet premier gave no ground on major East-West issues in an interview in the Kremlin last Friday with Gardner Cowles, president and editor of Look magazine and president of the Des Moines Register and Tribune Co.

Khrushchev told Cowles he now agrees with Kennedy that they should meet again only if such a meeting could produce positive results.

"We should first reach some agreement on the questions on which our common decision is required now to avoid a conflict and war," he said.

The Soviet leader expressed hope that a major war could be avoided, but he repeated his previously stated support for defensive war against an aggressor and wars by subject peoples to liberate themselves.

During wide-ranging discussion that lasted nearly three hours, Khrushchev told Cowles that he thought an agreement on Berlin and Germany should precede any disarmament agreement, but that he realized the arms issue was "the question of questions."

The 68-year-old Soviet leader made clear he had not budged in his refusal to tolerate any form of nuclear inspection, which he looks on as merely a cover-up for espionage.

Khrushchev expressed belief some glimmers of hope for a Berlin and German settlement have appeared in the current negotiations between the United States and the Soviet Union. He reiterated the Kremlin condition for such agreement—withdrawal of Western troops from West Berlin.

Khrushchev placed no time limit on the current talks and indicated he is prepared to pursue the present effort to reach an interim solution without applying any sudden new pressures on West Berlin.

Casey Fined For Posing In Beer Ad

The New York Mets manager was $500 poorer, had been given a verbal slap on the wrist and taken out for pinch hitter Kathy Kersh.

The whole incident came to light Tuesday when it was learned that Stengel had been fined and reprimanded for posing in a baseball uniform for advertisements of the beer company sponsoring radio and television broadcasts of the Mets.

The ads show Stengel in a Mets uniform in position to bunt although company representative Kathy Kersh is standing behind Ol' Case already holding the baseball.

Commissioner Ford Frick said the ads were a violation of baseball rules, which prohibit men in uniform from posing for alcoholic beverage ads.

"But everything's been taken care of now," said the commissioner.

"In future ads the bat will be in the girl's hand, and Casey will be out of the picture."

Steel Production Expected To Dip

NEW YORK (AP) — A trade publication predicted today that steel production will drop sharply in June and July.

Iron Age, metalworking weekly, added that output should recover and level off at about 70 per cent of capacity late in the third quarter.

"This means it will be September before the steel market is back to where production reflects the rate of steel use," Iron Age said.

Production last week was at about 73 per cent of estimated capacity. Three weeks ago the figure was above 80 per cent.

The magazine based its prediction of a big decline in June and July on what it called the pattern of order cancellations balanced against the rate of steel consumption.

Police In Akron Continue Search For Three Boys

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Police continued searching today for three teen-agers reported missing since Monday, although they expressed doubt any harm had come to the youths.

The parents of Gary J. Donohoe and Raymond L. Blackerby, both 14, reported their sons missing at noon Monday. Jeanette Hill, 15, was reported missing at 5 p.m. Monday.

Detective Jim Smith said he didn't believe there was any connection between the disappearance of the boys and the girl.

The boys told their parents they were going fishing. Smith said they had taken $14 between them, more than they normally carry. He said a nurse reported picking up two boys fitting the missing boys' descriptions in the Portage Lakes area and dropping them off in Barberton.

6 FBI Agents To Testify In Attack Case

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Six FBI agents were slated to take the stand today in Federal Court and give their version of the hectic events on a Shelby County farm one day last June.

Farmer Henry DeLoye and his son, Robert, 31, are on trial for allegedly attacking the FBI men as the officers sought to question them about an earlier fracas with two U.S. deputy marshals—whom the DeLoyes are charged with impeding.

Civil suits are pending, meanwhile, in which DeLoye asks $300,000 damages for supposedly suffering bodily injury at the hands of the FBI agents and his daughter-in-law seeks $5,000 for alleged manhandling by the marshals.

The two deputy marshals testified Tuesday. Officers Earl Pelfrey and Richard G. Evans told of going to the DeLoye property at Yorkshire in February 1961 to serve a summons. It demanded $375 from DeLoye for allegedly planting wheat in excess of his federal quota.

Pelfrey told the court Henry DeLoye grabbed a pole ax from a shed and ran toward the marshals' car, screaming threats and cursing. Pelfrey said DeLoye's wife managed to take the ax from the farmer, but added that he was afraid to arrest DeLoye at the time.

"I didn't want any bloodshed," said Pelfrey, "and I knew he'd come at me with that ax if I got out of the car." He said the occasion was the eighth on which they attempted to serve the summons.

Defense attorneys commented that they will show DeLoye merely picked up the ax to remove a partition from a shed and had no intention of attacking the officers.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Ronald Logan, in his opening statement Tuesday, said the June fracas saw the elderly farmer come at the FBI men with a pitchfork "poised to strike." A scuffle followed, Logan said, in which DeLoye and his son struck and severely kicked an agent.

3 Top Ohio 4-H Clubbers Having Fun In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — "We're having lots of fun," besides learning lots, report three youths from Ohio of their visit to the capital as a prize for their outstanding 4-H Club work.

Joyce Fox of Ashland, William Mitchell of Plain City and Don McNemar of Xenia, honored for their leadership qualities and state projects, called their activities here "a once in a lifetime opportunity."

Sightseeing tours, cultural and educational doings and meetings with national 4-H Club Conference delegates from other sectors of the country are keeping the youngsters busy.

They've visited the National Art Gallery and the National Archives attended a concert by the National Symphony and listened to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy speak of the need for America's youth to take a more serious part in citizenship.

ANPA Head Attacks Critics Of Newspapers

By EDWARD L. SMITH

NEW YORK (AP)— The president of the American Newspaper Publishers Association attacked as irresponsible today those critics who would "have the public believe newspapers (are) fading away."

Mark Ferree, ANPA president, told more than 1,200 publishers at the ANPA convention that "a new stridency has crept into some of the 'professional' criticism leveled at newspapers — something quite the opposite of constructive criticism."

In a prepared address, Ferree argued that such critics chop at the roots of the newspaper tree, "never recognizing that they, with all free citizens, live and work in the shade of that very tree."

Ferree, executive vice president and general business manager of Scripps-Howard Newspapers, warned that if newspapers—as a fully independent medium of news and opinion — faded, "criticism would wither, not for lack of a target but for lack of its chief protector."

He declared that newspapers were prepared to use imaginatively all opportunities of the space age, and announced the creation of a scientific advisory committee of the ANPA.

The committee will assess ways of adapting the latest scientific findings and equipment to newspaper technology, he said.

It will consist of Athelstan F. Spilhaus, dean of the University of Minnesota's Institute of Technology, committee chairman; Trevor Gardner, chairman and president of the Hycon Manufacturing Co., Monrovia, Calif.; and Dr. John Pierce, executive director of research - communications principles division, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, N.J.

Ferree said newspapers had changed to protect the public's right to know and to respond to its needs in the space age.

Ferree said a recent survey showed that newspapers go into nine of 10 suburban and city homes, and are read thoroughly by seven of 10 readers. More than one-third of advertising was spent on newspapers last year, and circulations have reached record highs.

Newspapers that merged or suspended publication, he said, did so because of "specific local conditions—they will not indicate a weakness in all newspapers."

Says It Must Be Corrected

Inland Steel Head Cites Relation Of Cost, Price

CHICAGO (AP) — The board chairman of Inland Steel Co. said today that the relations between steel costs and prices eventually will have to be corrected and only time will determine whether increased productivity will justify the present hold-the-line price policy.

Joseph L. Block, whose firm was the first to balk publicly at the since-rescinded price boost announced by several other producers, said earnings on invested capital in the steel industry do not compare favorably with those in manufacturing industries.

He told stockholders in a quarterly report that although the rate of increase in employment costs was relatively lower in the last steel wage agreement, the increased union benefits amounted to 10 cents an hour or 2.5 per cent of employment costs.

Improved earnings are essential for modernization of facilities as well as to attract new capital, Block said. Whether the cost increase can be offset by productivity improvement "is problematical and cannot be determined until we have had experience," he said.

In deciding not to boost steel prices, Block said, it was the company's "considered judgment that a price change at this time would not be in the national interest or recognize competitive factors and, therefore, would not be in the interest of our stockholders, employees, and customers."

The company reported first-quarter earnings of $16,639,062 or 94 cents a share. This compared with $8,143,592 or 46 cents in first quarter 1961 but 11 per cent less than record first quarter earnings of $18,743,934 or $1.07 a share in 1960.

Consolidated sales were $214,437,184, compared with $159,404,735 last year and $226,177,602 in the first quarter 1960.

DiSalle Planning Interview With Condemned Man

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle planned a Death Row interview, possibly today, with condemned slayer James R. Buck as the clock ticked away what may be the last hours of Buck's life.

Meanwhile, Buck, 24, was awaiting Ohio Supreme Court response to a plea that he be spared execution, scheduled for Friday night.

Counsel for the Akronite convicted of fatally shooting Akron policeman Floyd Weatherholt on March 25, 1960, applied to the court Tuesday for a writ of habeas corpus. The petition asks the court to determine whether Buck should be committed to a mental institution.

Attorney Bernard I. Rosen contends Buck was of unsound mind at the time of the shooting, which came as officers cornered Buck following a robbery. Rosen admitted in his petition that examination at Lima State Hospital determined that—at the time of examination—Buck could determine between right and wrong.

The U.S. Supreme Court rejected an appeal in the case. DiSalle, an avowed foe of capital punishment, held a clemency hearing last Wednesday but has not announced whether he will spare the condemned man from the electric chair.

Out Of The Air

'Because We Want To Know'

Lt. Col. John Glenn will be back on your TV screen—and before the teen-agers are tucked in—next Sunday night at 7:30 p.m. Together with Jules Bergman, science editor at ABC News, the astronaut will take young people (and their elders) on a futuristic tour of space. The program is called "60 Hours to the Moon." Mr. Bergman, who is TV's only science editor, is a spare-time pilot and a lunch-time doodler. I am sure that the table cloth we shared the other afternoon is already in enemy hands.

Alan Gill

"YOU SEE," he said, tracing a globe with his ballpoint, "after we've had another three-orbit flight (with "Scottie" Carpenter) and then a third, we'll send up the first 18-orbit mission, probably in November and probably with Sheppard aboard.

"Glenn will do the second 18-orbiter. Next, we get two astronauts up there, and orbit them a week."

Mr. Bergman drew swirling lines around the globe.

"To orbit the moon, we'll need a docking operation in space, which, if not perilous, at least will take some doing, backing into the dock with steering rockets. The dock will be a kind of filling station in space. Then—off and around the moon! This will be in 1966, we figure."

-:-

"The operation will take 60 hours, and that's where the title of our show comes from."

And then?

"Well, in '67 or '68, we'll launch the Nova rocket for a moon landing. That will be a 10-day trip. As John Glenn says on the program, 'You'll be launched on Tuesday morning and be back Friday of the following week.'"

How much, Mr. Bergman was asked, will all this cost?

"It's estimated," he said, "at $20 billion. But with the moon shot, I think you have to apply the Madison Avenue rule of thumb of 'double it and add 10 per cent.'"

AS TO THE DESTINY awaiting us in space, Jules Bergman guesses that "we should be colonizing the moon by the late '70s."

Prof. Melvin Calvin of Cal Tech will be on the hour show to talk about life on Mars, offering the opinion that the "quantitative level" of life there, based on his studies of Martian biology, "may well be above ours."

The conversation turned to the physical experience of space flying. Has anyone, for example, ever seen a flying saucer?

"Definitely not," said Bergman. "Hypoxia, the condition produced by lack of oxygen, or some other physical reaction to flying makes a man subject to aerial mirages."

And those needles of light Col. Glenn viewed during the orbital flight?

"It's been pretty well accepted that they were either flakes of paint chipping off the capsule or drops of water from its cooling system."

-:-

FOR THE PROGRAM, Mr. Bergman asked John Glenn about the danger of space flight.

"I believe the problem has been overemphasized," Glenn replied, on camera. "But there is no question people are going to be lost."

"Is it worth it?" Bergman asked him.

"Certainly. Or we wouldn't be doing it."

Jules Bergman's own answer to the question is twofold.

"Because we want to know—that's No. 1. It's the reason that replaces the old line, 'Because it's there.'

"And second, of course, is the military reason. The retaliatory potential of a base 'way out yonder can't be stopped. It would answer a nuclear attack within 34 hours."

"60 HOURS TO THE MOON" will offer many "first looks" at space gadgetry: Detailed mock-ups of the "Gemini" two-man space capsule, the "Apollo" lunar craft, and the weird landing vehicles designed to return astronauts safely from the moon, among others.

Mr. Bergman, a young man who started in on a television news desk at 16 and then got his science training at Time magazine and through a science grant given him by Sloan-Kittering and first to break the news, back on Thanksgiving Day, of the selection of John Glenn for the orbital flight.

He's published a book on the X15 and has another coming up on how to fly.

Does he, a visitor asked, have a cyclotron in his living room?

ALBERT DIX

Speaker For Ladies' Day.

Publisher's Aide Will Be Kiwanis Luncheon Guest

Albert E. Dix, assistant to the publisher of the Martins Ferry Times-Leader, will speak at a "Ladies Day" luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Dix, who covered phases of Col. John Glenn's orbital space flight from Cape Canaveral, will discuss his experiences at the launch site.

A 1951 graduate of Denison University, Dix, 32, is the son of A.V. Dix, publisher of Dix Newspapers. He served two years with Army Intelligence. He is married and has two children and is past president of the Bellaire Kiwanis Club.

BOLZANO, Italy (AP) — The four members of the Dietelmann family, on vacation from their home in Germany, were sunning themselves on rocks below a dam near this north Italian town, unaware that water behind the flood gates was rising toward a level that automatically opened the barrier.

Moments later tons of water crashed down on them, drowning Hildegard Dietelmann, 28, and daughter Ingeborg, 3. The husband, Reinhard, 29, a school teacher from Stuttgart, managed to save himself and daughter Ursula, 5.

Lower Gives Tips To Fight Insect Pests

LISBON — Insect alerts for May have been received by Floyd Lower, county extension agent, from state extension entomologists at Ohio State University.

Termites will be active soon. The control consists of the use off insecticides to make a poisonous soil barrier, Lower said.

The spittle bug hatch is very late this year, but farmers who wish to protect their meadows should spray when clover is six inches high and alfalfa is not over eight inches high, Lower said.

Maple bladder gall mites can be controlled best by a spray of malathion as the leaves unfold. Only recently - transplanted trees are likely to benefit. In spite of the looks, gall insects do not do much damage.

Now is the time to hand pick and destroy bagworm cases from shrubbery before the eggs inside hatch in June. Check Scotch Pine and other pine for cooked, dead buds infested by European pine shoot moth. Break off and destroy them before the caterpillars break dormancy and start further damage in early May.

European pine sawflies will become active in late April. They can be destroyed with DDT, methoxychlor, chlordane or other residual insecticides.

Now is the best time to grub-proof lawns in areas where turf has been damaged by Japanese beetle grubs. The office has available a new bulletin giving the correct amounts of insecticide to use either on an acre or a 1,000-foot basis.

Exeptionally heavy populations of aphids on opening apple buds have been noticed already. Most of these are apple grain aphids that will soon leave the apple trees without causing much damage. This might be an indication of heavy rosy apple aphid infestation to follow. Growers should check carefully for the presence of aphids at pink and petal-fall time.

Dimethoate, sold under the name of "Cygon," is a promising insecticide for residual fly control. Its acute toxicity is less than that of DDT, but it has given between six and eight weeks of control in other states. The use cost is high, but the performance has been good and the material deserves trial, Lower said.

Church Women Set Fellowship Day At Wellsville

The May Fellowship Day for the United Church Women of Wellsville will be held next Wednesday night at 7:30 in the basement of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church.

A one-act play, "Where the World Begins" (Wilson), will be presented by eight representatives from the Protestant churches.

Mrs. Pat Sanko is chairman of the fellowship and director of the play.

Mrs. Emma Lewis will lead the worship program and conduct business.

U.S. Spacecraft Due To Crash On Moon Thursday

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — As the sun rises Thursday on the desolation of the lunar landscape, U.S. spacecraft Ranger 4 is expected to plunge from the black sky onto the surface of the moon.

Scientists say it will strike the unseen back side of the moon at 8:50 a.m. EST, exactly 63.913 hours after it blasted off from Cape Canaveral—carrying elaborate television equipment and the hopes of United States lunar experts for a close-up look at the moon.

The hopes were shattered when a timer failed and halted a sequence of maneuvers which would have brought Ranger's television eye into play as it neared the lunar surface.

But Ranger, as blind as a plunging meteor, hurtled on toward what would be a historic collision. If it strikes as expected, Ranger will be the first piece of U.S. hardware on the moon. The Russians hit it in 1959.

A tiny radio is sending out steady beeps by which scientists from Pasadena's Jet Propulsion Laboratory are tracking Ranger's flight. When the beeps stop, they will know it has hit.

Mr. K Agrees With Kennedy On Steps To Summit Parley

NEW YORK (AP) — Premier Khrushchev has told an American publisher he agrees with President Kennedy that accord on crucial issues must precede a new summit meeting between the two leaders.

But the Soviet premier gave no ground on major East-West issues in an interview in the Kremlin last Friday with Gardner Cowles, president and editor of Look magazine and president of the Des Moines Register and Tribune Co.

Khrushchev told Cowles he now agrees with Kennedy that they should meet again only if such a meeting could produce positive results.

"We should first reach some agreement on the questions on which our common decision is required now to avoid a conflict and war," he said.

The Soviet leader expressed hope that a major war could be avoided, but he repeated his previously stated support for defensive war against an aggressor and wars by subject peoples to liberate themselves.

During wide-ranging discussion that lasted nearly three hours, Khrushchev told Cowles that he thought an agreement on Berlin and Germany should precede any disarmament agreement, but that he realized the arms issue was "the question of questions."

The 68-year-old Soviet leader made clear he had not budged in his refusal to tolerate any form of nuclear inspection, which he looks on as merely a cover-up for espionage.

Khrushchev expressed belief some glimmers of hope for a Berlin and German settlement have appeared in the current negotiations between the United States and the Soviet Union. He reiterated the Kremlin condition for such agreement—withdrawal of Western troops from West Berlin.

Khrushchev placed no time limit on the current talks and indicated he is prepared to pursue the present effort to reach an interim solution without applying any sudden new pressures on West Berlin.

6 FBI Agents To Testify In Attack Case

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Six FBI agents were slated to take the stand today in Federal Court and give their version of the hectic events on a Shelby County farm one day last June.

Farmer Henry DeLoye and his son, Robert, 31, are on trial for allegedly attacking the FBI men as the officers sought to question them about an earlier fracas with two U.S. deputy marshals—whom the DeLoyes are charged with impeding.

Civil suits are pending, meanwhile, in which DeLoye asks $300,000 damages for supposedly suffering bodily injury at the hands of the FBI agents and his daughter-in-law seeks $5,000 for alleged manhandling by the marshals.

The two deputy marshals testified Tuesday. Officers Earl Pelfrey and Richard G. Evans told of going to the DeLoye property at Yorkshire in February 1961 to serve a summons. It demanded $375 from DeLoye for allegedly planting wheat in excess of his federal quota.

Pelfrey told the court Henry DeLoye grabbed a pole ax from a shed and ran toward the marshals' car, screaming threats and cursing. Pelfrey said DeLoye's wife managed to take the ax from the farmer, but added that he was afraid to arrest DeLoye at the time.

"I didn't want any bloodshed," said Pelfrey, "and I knew he'd come at me with that ax if I got out of the car." He said the occasion was the eighth on which they attempted to serve the summons.

Defense attorneys commented that they will show DeLoye merely picked up the ax to remove a partition from a shed and had no intention of attacking the officers.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Ronald Logan, in his opening statement Tuesday, said the June fracas saw the elderly farmer come at the FBI men with a pitchfork "poised to strike." A scuffle followed, Logan said, in which DeLoye and his son struck and severely kicked an agent.

3 Top Ohio 4-H Clubbers Having Fun In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — "We're having lots of fun," besides learning lots, report three youths from Ohio of their visit to the capital as a prize for their outstanding 4-H Club work.

Joyce Fox of Ashland, William Mitchell of Plain City and Don McNemar of Xenia, honored for their leadership qualities and state projects, called their activities here "a once in a lifetime opportunity."

Sightseeing tours, cultural and educational doings and meetings with national 4-H Club Conference delegates from other sectors of the country are keeping the youngsters busy.

They've visited the National Art Gallery and the National Archives attended a concert by the National Symphony and listened to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy speak of the need for America's youth to take a more serious part in citizenship.

ANPA Head Attacks Critics Of Newspapers

By EDWARD L. SMITH

NEW YORK (AP)— The president of the American Newspaper Publishers Association attacked as irresponsible today those critics who would "have the public believe newspapers (are) fading away."

Mark Ferree, ANPA president, told more than 1,200 publishers at the ANPA convention that "a new stridency has crept into some of the 'professional' criticism leveled at newspapers — something quite the opposite of constructive criticism."

In a prepared address, Ferree argued that such critics chop at the roots of the newspaper tree, "never recognizing that they, with all free citizens, live and work in the shade of that very tree."

Ferree, executive vice president and general business manager of Scripps-Howard Newspapers, warned that if newspapers—as a fully independent medium of news and opinion — faded, "criticism would wither, not for lack of a target but for lack of its chief protector."

He declared that newspapers were prepared to use imaginatively all opportunities of the space age, and announced the creation of a scientific advisory committee of the ANPA.

The committee will assess ways of adapting the latest scientific findings and equipment to newspaper technology, he said.

It will consist of Athelstan F. Spilhaus, dean of the University of Minnesota's Institute of Technology, committee chairman; Trevor Gardner, chairman and president of the Hycon Manufacturing Co., Monrovia, Calif.; and Dr. John Pierce, executive director of research - communications principles division, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Murray Hill, N.J.

Ferree said newspapers had changed to protect the public's right to know and to respond to its needs in the space age.

Ferree said a recent survey showed that newspapers go into nine of 10 suburban and city homes, and are read thoroughly by seven of 10 readers. More than one-third of advertising was spent on newspapers last year, and circulations have reached record highs.

Newspapers that merged or suspended publication, he said, did so because of "specific local conditions—they will not indicate a weakness in all newspapers."

Says It Must Be Corrected

Inland Steel Head Cites Relation Of Cost, Price

CHICAGO (AP) — The board chairman of Inland Steel Co. said today that the relations between steel costs and prices eventually will have to be corrected and only time will determine whether increased productivity will justify the present hold-the-line price policy.

Joseph L. Block, whose firm was the first to balk publicly at the since-rescinded price boost announced by several other producers, said earnings on invested capital in the steel industry do not compare favorably with those in manufacturing industries.

He told stockholders in a quarterly report that although the rate of increase in employment costs was relatively lower in the last steel wage agreement, the increased union benefits amounted to 10 cents an hour or 2.5 per cent of employment costs.

Improved earnings are essential for modernization of facilities as well as to attract new capital, Block said. Whether the cost increase can be offset by productivity improvement "is problematical and cannot be determined until we have had experience," he said.

In deciding not to boost steel prices, Block said, it was the company's "considered judgment that a price change at this time would not be in the national interest or recognize competitive factors and, therefore, would not be in the interest of our stockholders, employees, and customers."

The company reported first-quarter earnings of $16,639,062 or 94 cents a share. This compared with $8,143,592 or 46 cents in first quarter 1961 but 11 per cent less than record first quarter earnings of $18,743,934 or $1.07 a share in 1960.

Consolidated sales were $214,437,184, compared with $159,404,735 last year and $226,177,602 in the first quarter 1960.

Electric Firm Bares Increase In Earnings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. reports earnings for the year ended March 31 amounted to $3.13 per common share based on 2.8 million shares. The previous year's profits were $2.98 per share on 2,651,360 shares.

The firm elected H. M. Miller chairman of the board and president Tuesday at the annual stockholders' meteing. J. L. McNealey was named executive vice president. Elected directors were Miller, McNealey, G. B. Fenton, S. L. Hall, W. Glover Porter, James F. Kurtz and H. C. Vincent, all of Columbus, and G. C. Claypool of Chillicothe.

To 'Welcome' Escapee

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Penitentiary officials were getting set today to "welcome back" escaped convict John D. Patton, 32. An April 13 walkaway from a work detail outside the prison, Patton was arrested by Wheeling, W. Va., police Tuesday night.

$50,000 Fire Loss

CADIZ, Ohio (AP)—Fire gutted the Sunshine Pillow Co. Tuesday night and did an estimated $50,000 damage. The one-story factory was housed in a converted motel between old and new U.S. 22 a mile east of Cadiz.

DiSalle Planning Interview With Condemned Man

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle planned a Death Row interview, possibly today, with condemned slayer James R. Buck as the clock ticked away what may be the last hours of Buck's life.

Meanwhile, Buck, 24, was awaiting Ohio Supreme Court response to a plea that he be spared execution, scheduled for Friday night.

Counsel for the Akronite convicted of fatally shooting Akron policeman Floyd Weatherholt on March 25, 1960, applied to the court Tuesday for a writ of habeas corpus. The petition asks the court to determine whether Buck should be committed to a mental institution.

Attorney Bernard I. Rosen contends Buck was of unsound mind at the time of the shooting, which came as officers cornered Buck following a robbery. Rosen admitted in his petition that examination at Lima State Hospital determined that—at the time of examination—Buck could determine between right and wrong.

The U.S. Supreme Court rejected an appeal in the case. DiSalle, an avowed foe of capital punishment, held a clemency hearing last Wednesday but has not announced whether he will spare the condemned man from the electric chair.

THE CALENDAR

QUESTION: When was the first calendar made?

ANSWER: The calendar, like the clock, is an attempt to measure time. It is almost impossible to pinpoint the very first calendar. Every culture developed its own calendar, early in the culture's history. It was noticed that it was cold, then plants began to spring up, then it was hot, and then the plants died, and then it was cold again. The number of times the new moon appeared in these periods was counted. Thus, the seasons and the months were determined. An early farmer knew that he saw a certain number of new moons after the plants died and it was a good time to plant again. Everyone's calendar differed. Some early calendars were based upon the moon and some upon the sun. Some cultures developed writing skills earlier than others, and these cultures wrote their calendars down. The Egyptians, Babylonions and Chinese were pioneers in this. The calendar we use today was developed by the Romans and has been revised many times. If we had only 28 days every February, in a few centuries it would be cold in June and hot in December. The addition of an extra day every four years helps keep our calendar on the right track. Some cultures add an extra month from time to time for the same reason.

FOR YOU TO DO: Work out your own calendar. Start totally from scratch. Find a natural phenomenon, such as the full moon or the positions of the stars, and use it as a base. What will you call the period between full moons? What will you name your other time sequences?

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Is it possible for a person to go several days without getting any sleep at all?

Almost every morning my husband will stumble out of bed and say, "I didn't close my eyes last night. I got absolutely no sleep."

I don't see how this is possible but he gets very annoyed when I challenge him.

I had an aunt who had real insomnia. But this was quite a different thing. She used to walk about all night and never get into bed. She read everything she could get her hands on, baked pies and cakes, cleaned closets and did petit point. We know she didn't sleep because she accomplished so much at night.

My husband tosses and turns but he never gets out of bed. Is it possible that he sleeps a few hours and doesn't realize it?

Thanks for any information you can give me.—C.W.

Dear C.W.: Not only is it possible that your husband is getting a few hours' sleep every night but it's likely. Even bonafide insomniacs get some shuteye, although often they don't remember and would swear on the family Bible they were up all night.

It serves no purpose to try to persuade such individuals that they slept. People who talk about their sleeplessness are in the same category with those who like to talk about their operations. They enjoy it.

The Whole Truth

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been married for five years. His first wife died when their son was 3 months old.

We now have a boy and a girl of our own and are very happy. All three children look like my husband. We never have told the oldest child that I am not his natural mother.

Frankly, I see no reason to tell him now or ever. Why take the chance of upsetting him emotionally? Also, if his brother and sister knew, perhaps they would feel differently about him.

My husband thinks the boy should be told. I say what people don't know won't hurt them. Do you agree?—NO BOAT ROCKER.

Dear N.B.R.: Your little motto is filled with fish hooks and bobby traps. What people don't know often hurts them—and badly.

A child whose natural mother has died should be told his father has remarried. He should be told as soon as he can understand what words mean.

Parents who try to conceal information of this sort do their children an injustice. All too frequently the child learns from an outside source when he is half grown. When this happens the shock can be a devastating one.

Over-Generous Host

Dear Ann: Our niece attends a college which is a short distance from where we live. We have invited Debbie to spend some weekends with us because most college kids appreciate a break from dorm life. We've tried to make her feel at home but I'm afraid we overdid it.

Debbie was here for a weekend last month. The telephone bill arrived yesterday. It showed two long-distance calls which amounted to $13.30. No one in our family placed on the days that Debbie was here.

My husband said the amount won't break us and that we should not embarrass her by bringing it up. I am annoyed and feel that she should be handed the bill and given a chance to make it right. What is your opinion?—BURNED.

Dear Burned: More is involved here than $13.30. If Debbie made these calls she displayed a shocking lack of integrity. By all means discuss it with her. If she made the calls she should pay for them.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Pastor Will Become South America Bishop

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—The Very Rev. Germanos Psallidakis, 47, pastor of the Holy Trinity Greek Church here, will be consecrated bishop for South America May 4.

Father Psallidakis' see city will be Buenos Aires, but he will be known by a titular title, His Grace, Bishop of Synadon, Germanos. Synadon was a famous Byzantine diocese in the early days of the church in what is now a part of Turkey.

He came here in April 1954 from Springfield, Ohio.

Suspended 15 Days

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—State egg law supervisor Phil Stallard has suspended the Rollie Jaynes Egg Co., Buena Vista, Ohio, from doing business in Kentucky for 15 days, effective today. Stallard said the firm violated regulations by supplying unclassified (ungraded) eggs to its Kentucky grocer outlets. A 30-day probationary period will follow the suspension.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE CALENDAR

QUESTION: When was the first calendar made?

ANSWER: The calendar, like the clock, is an attempt to measure time. It is almost impossible to pinpoint the very first calendar. Every culture developed its own calendar, early in the culture's history. It was noticed that it was cold, then plants began to spring up, then it was hot, and then the plants died, and then it was cold again. The number of times the new moon appeared in these periods was counted. Thus, the seasons and the months were determined. An early farmer knew that he saw a certain number of new moons after the plants died and it was a good time to plant again. Everyone's calendar differed. Some early calendars were based upon the moon and some upon the sun. Some cultures developed writing skills earlier than others, and these cultures wrote their calendars down. The Egyptians, Babylonians and Chinese were pioneers in this. The calendar we use today was developed by the Romans and has been revised many times. If we had only 28 days every February, in a few centuries it would be cold in June and hot in December. The addition of an extra day every four years helps keep our calendar on the right track. Some cultures add an extra month from time to time for the same reason.

FOR YOU TO DO: Work out your own calendar. Start totally from scratch. Find a natural phenomenon, such as the full moon or the positions of the stars, and use it as a base. What will you call the period between full moons? What will you name your other time sequences?

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Is it possible for a person to go several days without getting any sleep at all?

Almost every morning my husband will stumble out of bed and say, "I didn't close my eyes last night. I got absolutely no sleep."

I don't see how this is possible but he gets very annoyed when I challenge him.

I had an aunt who had real insomnia. But this was quite a different thing. She used to walk about all night and never get into bed. She read everything she could get her hands on, baked pies and cakes, cleaned closets and did petit point. We know she didn't sleep because she accomplished so much at night.

My husband tosses and turns but he never gets out of bed. Is it possible that he sleeps a few hours and doesn't realize it?

Thanks for any information you can give me.—C.W.

Dear C.W.: Not only is it possible that your husband is getting a few hours' sleep every night but it's likely. Even bonafide insomniacs get some shuteye, although often they don't remember and would swear on the family Bible they were up all night.

It serves no purpose to try to persuade such individuals that they slept. People who talk about their sleeplessness are in the same category with those who like to talk about their operations. They enjoy it.

The Whole Truth

Dear Ann: My husband and I have been married for five years. His first wife died when their son was 3 months old.

We now have a boy and a girl of our own and are very happy. All three children look like my husband. We never have told the oldest child that I am not his natural mother.

Frankly, I see no reason to tell him now or ever. Why take the chance of upsetting him emotionally? Also, if his brother and sister knew, perhaps they would feel differently about him.

My husband thinks the boy should be told. I say what people don't know won't hurt them. Do you agree?—NO BOAT ROCKER.
